

"Under Milkwood" to be presented

November 5, 1979

"Under Milkwood," by Dylan Thomas, will be presented at 8 p.m. Nov. 28 through Dec. 1 in the Mandeville Recital Hall at the University of California, San Diego.

The play, considered by many to be Thomas' masterpiece, is a moving and hilarious account of a spring day in a small coastal town in Wales. "Under Milkwood" begins with dreams and ghosts and moves through a brilliant, noisy day. The play closes, in Thomas' own words, as "the rain of dusk brings on the bawdy night."

The play includes a cast of graduate and undergraduate students wearing authentic costumes and speaking in traditional Welsh dialect. Graduate student Tom Humphrey is the director.

Tickets cost $2 and can be purchased at the UCSD Theatre Ticket Office or at the door. For ticket information, phone 452-4574 or 452-3362.

"Under Milkwood" is a Department of Drama production.
