

Early Music Quartet will perform

April 22, 1975

An evening of music, featuring the Early Music Quartet of San Diego, will be held Saturday, May 3, in the lobby of the Central University Library at the University of California, San Diego.

The concert, sponsored by the Friends of the UCSD Library, is free and open to the public. It is scheduled to begin at 8:00 p.m.

The quartet will perform works from Handel, Bernardo Gaffi, Thomas Morley, Francisco Landini, Allesandra Scarletti, Antonio Cesti, and Claudio Monteverdi.

The members of the Early Music Quartet include: Dr. James Paul, director; Elisabeth Marti, soprano; John Peeling, tenor and counter-tenor; Ann Chase, soprano; Richard Dehmel, bass; Alice Bryant, recorder; John Haak, cello; and Cynthia Paul, portative organ.

For further information contact: Paul W. West, 452-3120

(April 22, 1975)