

Madrigal Singers present concert

May 31, 1968

The Madrigal Singers of the University of California, San Diego, directed by Charles D. Keeling, will present an evening concert at 8:00 p.m. on Sunday, June 9, in the Matthews Campus Recital Hall, Building 409.

This vocal and instrumental concert will include excerpts from "Missa Pange Lingua" by Josquin des Pres, "Magnificat" by Purcell, "The Lament of Ariadne" by Monteverdi, "Trio in G Major" by Haydn, "The Battle of Marignan" by Janequin and "Five Songs of Valais" by Milhaud. Elizabethan music by Bennet, Dowland, Thomkins and Wilbye will also be presented.