

Chancellor William D. McElroy of UCSD presented Mrs. Joyce A. Hittenberger with certificate of appreciation for 25 years service

August 1, 1973

Chancellor William D. McElroy of the University of California, San Diego, right, presents Mrs. Joyce A. Hittenberger with a certificate of appreciation in recognition of 25 years service to the University of California. Mrs. Hittenberger, of Solana Beach, is assistant to UCSD's Dean of Graduate Studies, Dr. Roy Harvey Pearce, center. A graduate of UC Berkeley, Mrs. Hittenberger began working with the University of California in 1947 while a student at Berkeley. After four years with the UCB School of Business Administration, she worked at UC Riverside during 1951 and 1952 in the College of Letters & Science. Mrs. Hittenberger returned to Berkeley the following year and was associated with the graduate division there until 1971 when she came to UCSD.
