A hearty "Howdy do!" to my loyal masses! Once again, the time is ripe for me to send out the "LGBTQA at UCSD E-Newsletter". As usual, I apologize beforehand if I offend anyone with my lame attempt at humor or my numerous typos. As far as my life goes, I've been managing to survive day to day, but I'll write more about me at the end of the newsletter. But enough about me, how have all of you been? I encourage people to write me at this account just to keep me updated on their lives. I realize that some of you can't always make it to meetings or find me around campus, but I still want to hear from all of you! Trust me, I love reading mail from all you fabulous people! So, without any more dry banter from yours truly, let's get on with this, shall we?

Last Minute Drag Show Schpiel

Michael, the coordinator, wants to confirm final submissions for the drag show. The deadline is now well past, but he has not received music from everyone who has expressed interest in participating in this gala. Please please PLEASE call Michael ASAP at 640-0380. As to the rest of you, I had better see you all at the Drag Show on Wednesday, February 24 at 8 PM in the Price Center Theater. It's FREE!!!! I've already seen one of the acts, and believe you me, this show is gonna rock! Don't miss "Divas In Denial IV"

Gay activist #1, Nikki Schweitzer, my loving mother!

My mom is putting on a panel discussion at my synagogue, Tifereth Israel, and I wanted to invite all of you to go! It is going to be this Sunday, February 21, 1999 from 2-4 PM.

"Someone You Know Is Jewish And Gay"

"Statistics show that at least one in 10 people is gay. Statistics also show that there is a tremendous incidence of suicide, drug abuse, alcoholism, school failure and depression among young gays due to non-acceptance by their families, peers and society in general. In an effort to open discussion and promote acceptance, Tifereth Israel Synagogue's Adult Education Committee will host a panel discussion with Rabbi J.B. Sachs of Temple Shearei Torah of Arcadi, California and Rabbi Raphael Goldstein, Community Chaplain for San Diego, member of Parents, Friends and Famile of Lesbians and Gays (PFLAG) and members of the Gay and Lesbian Center of San Diego. There will be an opportunity for questions. A resouce list will also be available for anyone wishing more information and/or support."

This is a free event that is open to the ENTIRE COMMUNITY. (i.e. you need not be either gay or Jewish) Refreshments will be served. Please RSVP to 697-6001 so that a room of appropriate size can be provided. I urge everyone to go, this event will truly be unique. Plus, you would get to meet my mom. She rocks!

Youth Speaks To GLSEN at San Diego High School, My Alma Mater

The Gay, Lesbian & Straight Education Network (GLSEN) of San Diego, is pleased to present, "Youth Speak to GLSEN," a community forum bringing youth and adults together to support GLSEN's mission, "to ensure that each member of every school community is valued and respected, regardless of sexual orientation." The forum will be Tuesday, February 23, 1999, from 7 to 9 pm, at the newly rededicated San Diego High School

Los Perkins Performing Arts Theater, 1405 Park Blvd, in Downtown San Diego.

The forum will include an overview of GLSEN San Diego and the current climate in the San Diego Unified School District and surrounding districts, with speakers to include a youth panel. Attendees will be divided into small groups to generate youth and adult concerns and set an agenda to address them in the future.

"We have an exciting program, planned by an energetic group of queer youth and advocates that is, to our knowledge, the first of its kind in the country," said Brian Polejes, Youth Outreach Coordinator for GLSEN San Diego, who added, "We will make full use of the audiovisual capabilities of the Performing Arts Theater, and the group work in particular is designed to overcome barriers of misunderstanding and mistrust that have gotten in the way of our goal of schools free of discrimination."

For more information about Youth Speak to GLSEN, please call GLSEN at 619-226-5786 or e-mail GLSENSD@aol.com.

"Letters to Thien" Documentary Film Screening

Trac Minh Vu, director and co-producer
Kerry Seed, assistant director and co-producer

Thursday, February 25th
Noon in Robinson Auditorium, IR/PS
Reception will follow in 103 SSB

"Letters to Thien" is a 55-minute documentary bearing witness to the life and death of Thien Minh Ly, a Vietnamese hate crime victim. The documentary examines in intimate detail how Thien's death, and more importantly his life, still deeply affect his family and community.

Sponsored by the Center for the Study of Race and Ethnicity, Departments of Ethnic Studies and Communication, AS, Cross Cultural Center, and Thurgood Marshall Provost Office.

Computer Not Working? Maybe It's The "Y2GAY" Thing We're All Hearing About!!!

Time for yet another LGBTQA at UCSD dance! The last dance had a total attendance of over 615 people!! Let's try and make this one even bigger and more successful! The next dance will be on Friday, February 26, 1999. We'll be rockin' out from 9 PM until 1 AM! The dance will be located in the same place, The Stage/Pub area of the Old Student Center. For directions, call us at 534-GAYS or campus information at 534-EDNA. Free refreshments are, as always, served. Admission is FREE, but we do ask that you donate whatever you can. We are a non-profit student organization, so our funds are limited. The more money we receive in donations, the more refreshments we can bring for everyone to share, etc. I had better see each and everyone of you there, and be sure to bring some friends! I'll be the one with the huge grin on my face the whole night. Love those dances! Hehehe

RAINBOW SUMMIT '99
Blueprint for Action

For more information contact: Jess Durfee at 299-4818

Members of San Diego's diverse lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgendered community will have an opportunity to establish shared goals and develop a framework for accomplishing those goals at Rainbow Summit '99: Blueprint for Action, to be held on March 5 and 6 at the Metropolitan Community Church.

Representatives of the LGBT community have been organizing Rainbow Summit '99 since November 1998 under a grant from the San Diego Foundation for Change.

Over a dozen LGBT community organizations have participated in the preparations for the summit. The collaboration of these groups ensured that diverse viewpoints would form the final format and agenda of the summit.

The major purposes of Rainbow Summit '99 are to improve communication between different sectors of the LGBT community, develop a plan for training and mentoring future community activists and leaders, and draft a blueprint for addressing community issues and needs. To these ends, the summit will feature workshops on the interpersonal and technical aspects of communication; addressing community diversity; and youth concerns and outreach. Each workshop will identify goals related to the workshop topic. In a general plenary session that follows the workshops, summit participants will select major goals from among those identified by each workshop. The general session will also lay the groundwork for future community development.

Registration and check-in for Rainbow Summit '99 will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Friday, March 5. The opening plenary session will start at 7:00 and will feature welcome addresses by organizers of the summit and local leaders. A keynote address by a nationally prominent speaker will highlight the evening.

On Saturday, March 6, the program will begin at 9:00 a.m. with a general plenary session followed by breakout sessions addressing the various workshop topics.

The Summit will conclude with a town hall format plenary session which will feature brief reports from each workshop, followed by a discussion aimed at building a consensus on goals and developing a blueprint for future action.

The plenary session and the summit itself will conclude at 5:00 p.m.

Rainbow Summit '99: Blueprint for Action will be held at Metropolitan Community Church, located at 4333 30th Street. Registration will require a small fee and an even smaller fee for students, seniors and others.

To receive more information and a preregistration form call 299-4818 or e-mail
RainSum99@aol.com.

San Diego Latino Film Festival '99

The San Diego Latino Film Festival (SDLFF), one of the nation's leading festivals of Latino films, will take place on MARCH 9-14, 1999 at United Artists Theatres located in downtown San Diego at Horton Plaza. The Festival, now celebrating its sixth year, will screen over fifty Latino films and videos from throughout Latin America and the United States.
The SDLFF was established five years ago as a student film festival focusing on works by and/or about the Latino Experience. Since that time, it has developed into one of the larger and well-respected Latino film festivals in the country. Over 12,000 people have attended during the past five years and 250 films/videos from across Latin America and the United States have been screened.
Advance tickets go on sale February 1, 1999. For more information about the festival screenings and how to get tickets, please check out the SDLFF website at: www.sdLatinoFilm.com or call (619) 230-1938.

If anyone is going to this event, would they please let me know by replying to this e-mail address? (ucsdlgba@sdcc13.ucsd.edu) A member of our organization would like to go, but needs to carpool. He is willing to donate gas money.

New Stamps To Commemorate the 80s?! I Want To Vote For The Duran
Duran/Depeche Mode Series!

Seriously, though...here is an e-mail we got.

Please help with the U.S. Postal Services' StampVote Program:

"Celebrate The Century"

Voting for stamps of the 1980s is in progress (1-28 February)

Aids Awareness is one of the choices! Please vote.

There has been an effort to get an Aids Awareness Stamp reissued and you can help. It's been over 4 years since we've had a stamp to remind everyone that aids prevention education is still urgently needed. Vote only for aids awareness to ensure that it gets the most votes. Let's show the Postal Service how much support there is for having an aids awareness stamp on a continuing basis.

Two ways to help:

1. Vote for Aids awareness online:

HTTP://STAMPVOTE.MSN.COM/usps/welcome.asp

Click on Science and Technology icon.

2. Pick up ballots for yourself/concerned friends/co-workers at any U.S. Post Office - complete, stamp and postmark by Feb. 28, 1999 (copies not accepted).

Email your online friends, ask groups and organizations you may be involved with to send an email to their distribution lists and request a link from any appropriate web sites.

AS Committee On Women's Issues

Dear Student Organizations,

Hello, my name is Nicole Hogan and I am the chair of the AS Executive Committee on Women's Issues. The committee is new this year and has been working through this time to identify issues that pertain to women here at UCSD. We are planning a program in conjunction with the Cross Cultural Center's diversity series titled "Let's Talk About Sex, Exploring Sexual Perspectives Within Cultures". The program is scheduled for Weds. March 31st from 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. It is our hope to hold a discussion with students and faculty addressing the diverse issues of sex between and within different cultures, as well as between men AND women. I am asking for any interest from your orgs. to either attend or possibly be part of the discussion. There would be no planning of the program on your part just participation in the actual event. I hope that this type of program sparks interest in some or all of you. Please contact me if you are interested in helping out, attending, or with questions and suggestions.

Thanks in advance for your help.

Sincerely,
Nicole Hogan

Lesbians on Exhibit? Sounds Kinky!

The title pretty much says it all. We haven't gotten the press release yet, but I am assuming that you can go to the central library at SDSU (which actually has quite striking architecture, in my opinion) and see a cool exhibit on Lesbian History. It will be there this March.

Yawn, stretch, crack neck

Welp, that about wraps up this issue of "Stuff". I hope you enjoyed yourselves as much as I did! If you would like to be taken off of this once-in-a-while newsletter, just write back saying so. If you have any questions regarding any of the above, you can address your questions to yours truly. And, as much as I'd love to supply you all with my endless drivel, time is of the essence right now. You see, I'm leaving in an hour to go to Hillcrest. There, I'm meeting up with my sexy friend Hai and we're going to go see that gay movie at the Ken, "All The Rage." After that, we're picking up our friend Joe and Joe and I will be whisked away to Smith College (an all girls school...any jealous lesbians out there? Hehehe...just kidding) in Northampton Massachusetts for a conference of gay Jews. Pretty cool, eh? I'll be sure to tell you all about it when I get back. Until then, I must sign off. Peace, out!

Your beloved (don't see that movie, it was TERRIBLE!) wench-in-training,

Yes, this E-Newsletter's title was stolen from "Blossom"! If anyone can introduce her to me, I'd love it because I am, like, so in love with Mayim Bialik. I know she is a fourth year neuro-anatomy major at UCLA, and if I had gone there, I would have stalked her with all my heart. Geez, I really need to take a course in "How to start off E-Mails" or something. These introductions keep getting lamer and lamer. I hope everyone had a wonderful Spring Break (if applicable)! For part of my break, I went with some close friends to Nor. Cal. I think that the highlight of the trip was reenacting Madonna's "Open Your Heart" video! For those not familiar with the video's content, rent "The Immaculate Collection." Trust me, it's worth it! So now that I am all rested and ten pounds heavier (I ate like it was going out of style!), I am ready to start classes again. Err, almost. I think it's a negative harbinger if I'm lost in two of my four classes after the first day. Anyone want to help me write a paper on Analytical Jurisprudence & Constitutional Theory? Just let me know! I guess by now I should explain exactly what this is. My name is Daniel Schweitzer, I am a Principle Member of the LGBTA at UCSD. You are receiving this E-Mail because you have either signed in on one of our rosters, or have requested to be added, or I added you because, well, I can do things like that. If you feel you have been placed on this list in error or would like to be taken off, just let me know. E-Mails only get sent about once every 3 weeks. Also, please check our UPDATED webpage at <http://sdcc13.ucsd.edu/~ucsdlgba> (Thanks to our Web Goddess!) So, that said, on with the program. Oh, by the way, if any of you are interested, I am also known as DJ Drama, host of DramaFest on KSDT student run radio. Long story short, I may have landed an interview with IKE TURNER of "What's Love Got To Do With It?" infamy. I'll let you all know if this one pans out! (Sorry for any typos!)

"The Brandon Teena Story"

Playing at The Ken through Thursday, April 1, "This gripping documentary about hatred and homophobia in the heartland tells the story of Teena Brandon, a woman who decided she was really a male, changed her name and moved to rural Falls City, Nebraska. There he dated several girls who found him thoughtful and charming, until word got out that he was a she and tragedy ensued." (USA, 1998) Nightly: 5:00, 7:00, 9:00. I still have a FREE PAIR OF TICKETS to this for Wednesday night, March 31. If anyone is interested in these tickets, please e-mail me (dschweit@ucsd.edu) before 4:45 PM Wednesday. (Short notice, I know, oh well.) The Ken is located at 4061 Adams Avenue in Kensington.

"Bunny Hop!" The First Dance of Spring Quarter '99

The dance will be this Saturday, April 3 from 9 PM to 1 AM. It will be in the same place it always is, The Pub/Stage in the Old Student Center. For directions, call 534-EDNA (Campus information) or 534-GAYS (The LGBTQA office). As usual, admission is FREE (but donations are never turned away!) as are the beverages. Bring ID if you're over 21, but ALL AGES WELCOME! We are also looking for volunteers at the dance: help with set-up, tear-down, greeting, doing the door clicker-thingie, the newly added COAT CHECK. If you would like to help (And believe me, we LOVE volunteers!), please let us know by calling the above number or e-mailing me at my E-Mail address. Everyone make sure to bring coats to check at the coat check! Shameless Plug Come one, come all, tell your friends, bring your parents!

Day of Silence 1999

MOMENTUM GAINING FOR DAY OF SILENCE PROJECT

On April 9, 1999, thousands of students at high school and colleges across the United States and Canada will stay silent, passing out cards advocating for queer equality rather than speaking. These students will be participating in the Day of Silence.

The purpose of the Day of Silence is to create a visible, "audible" silence to protest the oppression forced upon lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender youth. It also hopes to offer educational tools and dialogue devoted to ending the silence by organizing post-event forums and breaks. Participation in the event has grown exponentially from a single campus in 1996 into an international effort.

For the first time, the Day of Silence Project has chosen to adopt a theme: "Unity through Diversity." By focusing on this topic, DoSP hopes to encourage dialogue about the unique issues facing diverse segments of the queer community. The Project expects that these conversations will allow the community to unite to protest homophobia and heterosexism.

Chloe Palenchar, Co-Chair of DoSP, comments: "We want to help others recognize how as a community we can achieve equality by through our diversity -- along gender, sexuality, race, class, age, educational status, and every other line."

The Day of Silence Project Team is composed of volunteer youths from across the country who are dedicated to fighting for queer rights. Their energy and focus is garnering momentum and recognition as April 7 approaches. Co-Chair Jessie Gilliam comments "schools across the nation are gearing up to fight oppression and end homophobia on this day. We invite you to join our Project and work to end the silence."

If you or your school are interested in participating or learning more about the project, please contact Jessie Gilliam, Co-Chair, at jmg8r@virginia.edu or Chloe Palenchar, Co-Chair, at cpalenchar@hotmail.com. Please visit our website at <http://www.Youth-Guard.Org/dayofsilence/> .

Admit Day 1999

On Saturday, April 10, UCSD will open the floodgates to an estimated 7,000 admitted freshmen and their families to the campus. To quote an E-Mail, :

"Admit Day is the annual event where newly admitted freshmen and their families have the chance to experience UCSD. Students have told us in the past that they truly appreciate the opportunity to meet members of various student organizations, and that their positive experience on Admit Day greatly influenced their decision to enroll at UCSD. " The LGBTQA will, once again, have a table with information available at this fair. There will be some student organizations, including ours, with tables set up on Library Walk. This event will take place from 9:00 AM to 1:00 PM. If anyone would like to volunteer and help out, it would be GREATLY appreciated. The way things look right now, the table will be BADLY UNDERSTAFFED, i.e. we don't have many people, other than myself, who have signed up to help. So, this is my personal request for all you shiny, happy people to come down and visit the table, sit with me/us for a while, listen to some tunes, eat some food, talk to prospective freshmen, etc. I think that it is really important for people to see that the LGBTQA consists of more than just one or two people. If people will commit to coming and helping out, I will make sure to have food and snacks for the volunteers. Those interested, please respond to this E-Mail, call our office at the above number, or E-Mail me directly. Thanks!

Umbrella Group Camp Out, Co-Sponsored by the LGBTQA

This year's Umbrella Group (The Staff/Faculty LGBT group) Campout will be May 7-8 in the Anzo Borrego Desert [I think that's it, I'm going from memory, but I know the dates are correct.] and is being co-sponsored by the LGBTQA (So, yes, non-staff/faculty ARE invited and welcome!). For those interested in attending this event, please contact Paul Harris at pharris@ucsd.edu, and you can get more information from him. And as a footnote, I do not believe this trip is pricey, either, so don't let money be an issue in deciding if you're interested or not!

Gay (?) Awareness Week

First off, the question mark is because the name of this annual event is still being pored over. We have not decided yet if we will use gay, queer, LGBT, or whatever. If you have any suggestions, please voice your opinions to this E-Mail address, and please give your reasoning for your opinion. This will help us in deciding what to name this event. Moving beyond the name game, this week will occur in conjunction with Week 7 of this quarter, also known as May 10-13 to the rest of the world. We are looking for people to lead discussion groups or present topics of interest (Ethnicity and sexual orientation, AIDS information, Domestic Partner information sessions, etc.). If you have an interest in leading a topic by yourself or helping lead it with others, please E-Mail us back to this account and let us know. This is an opportunity for all of you to create the kinds of forums you would like to see or learn about or educate about. Additionally, we have recently found out about a fund of about $1,000 that is available for us to bring in a non-academic (preferably, but not as a rule) speaker/presenter/performer, and we would like your input on who you would like to come in. Please let us know by informing a Principle Member or E-Mailing this account. As a last note, the last dance of this year will be at the end of this week, on May 15. Name suggestions anyone?

CACLBGTI Seeks Volunteers

The UCSD Chancellor's Advisory Committee on LGBT Issues is looking for members and non-members alike to join in assisting our various subcommittees in their work. It is not necessary that you join CACLBGTI but just help by giving a small time commitment in improving the campus environment. Please e-mail this back with your name and e-mail address listed below for any subcommittee you would be interested in helping out. After signing up, someone will be in touch with you in the near future. Note that subcommittees D & E are new and in need of Chairs if you're interested. Thanks for helping out.

A. LGBT CENTER AD HOC COMMITTEE: Meets about once every 2 months to discuss details for developing a safe space in a central campus location for a staffed center. Solicit support of faculty/administrators and community members.

Name E-Mail

B. OUTREACH AND EDUCATION: Meets monthly to arrange on-going distribution and development of brochures, resource guides to better educate the Campus community on lgbt issues. Arranges to have informational tables at outreach fairs, and to publicize these events.

Name E-Mail

C. PROGRAMMING: Meets monthly to discuss what speakers/workshops/movies, etc. can be brought to Campus to help meet the mission of the CACLBTI. Make arrangements to implement programs.

Name E-Mail

* D. CAMPUS LIAISON: Works specifically to try and develop communication and recruitment with specific groups on campus -- students, faculty, persons of color, staff organizations, particular departments and service providers, with a special emphasis on students.

Name E-Mail
(Also, are you interested in being a chair or co-chair of this subcommittee?)

* E. VOLUNTEER: As needed will assist in publicizing any of the Committee's or subcommittees' events, on an as needed basis, based on your availability. Eg. posting flyers, putting announcements in various media, designing flyers, e-mailing announcements, setup, cleanup, etc.

Name E-mail
(Also, are you interested in being a chair or co-chair of this subcommittee?)

* New subcommittees.

Call For Queer Papers

Just wanted to let you know that there's been a call for Queer Ethnic studies papers by the UC Berkeley Queer Ethnic Studies working group to prepare for a interdisciplinary conference on Oct. 29-31. The conference will be called "performing unnatural acts: critically queering racial cultural studies".

<http://members.aol.com/Worsethanq/index.html/>

or email worsethanq@aol.com for more info.

Gay Men's Chorus of Los Angeles

The GMCLA has recently decided that they would like to do more grass roots outreach to student organizations. Their website can be found at <http://www.gmcla.org/>. The GMCLA is a nonprofit group and is looking to offer student discounts for their performances, invite students to audition and become members of the chorus and just increase awareness of their organization in San Diego.

The Web Page HAS Been Updated!

I am proud to announce that, this past weekend, Wayne and I spent many hours gathering new and accurate information for the LGBTQA's web page. We request that everyone go check it out and let us know what you think of it! I also urge everyone to check out the banner Wayne made for the dance. It's absolutely fabulous! <http://sdcc13.ucsd.edu/~ucsdlgba>

Movie Nights - Suggestions???

If anyone has suggestions for future screenings, please let us know. Our screenings are always free, and always fun!

Meetings, Just A Reminder

We have general meetings every Monday night, from 7 PM to 8 PM in the Grad. Student Association in the Old Student Center, located next to AS Lecture Notes and Soft Reserves. They are informal meetings, and general fun all around. We hang out afterwards to schmooze and sometimes we go out to Hillcrest or wherever to wreak havoc on the general public. The meetings are fun, I swear!

OK, I think that pretty much covers it...I have been working on this E-Mail for over two hours now and I am starting to go stir crazy from just sitting here, cutting and pasting and writing my own stuff, and gathering information from the internet. I wish you all a Happy Passover or Happy Easter or Happy Anything Else You May Or May Not Celebrate. If you've made it this far in the E-Mail, "You have my gratitude." (I bet none of you guys recognized that I stole that line from 'Fistful Of Yen' in "Kentucky Fried Movie"!)

I hope to see you all at the dance this Saturday night! Ask around for me, I'll be there from opening to closing, and I love meeting new people, especially the ones who read my

E-Mails! And use our coat check! Hehehe :) [What E-Mail would be complete without ASCII text faces?]

Shoot, I really have a hard time writing a snazzy intro. sigh Maybe next time...Regardless, I'd like to welcome you all to the LGBTA at UCSD E-Newsletter! If you would like to be taken off of this occasionally-used list or feel you have been added in error, please reply to this and let me know, and you will be taken off. But, please do it nicely, E-mail Moderators have feelings, too, you know. As most of you have probably heard by now that I will be studying abroad in Israel for the 1999-2000 academic year. Fear not, however, the E-mails will be placed in good hands. Anyone want to take over for me? Inquire within..."OK, enough narcissism, Daniel! Get on with it!" All right, I hear you. And here are the topics for today:

LGBT Shabbat Potluck

It's that time once again! The quarterly LGBT Shabbat Potluck dinner is once again just around the corner! It will be at 7:45 PM in the Women's Center, this Friday, April 23. We only ask that you bring a vegetarian/vegan dish to share, and a positive attitude! Haha That's really cheesy, isn't it? And to answer that penultimate FAW: No, you don't have to be LGBT and/or Jewish, you just have to know how to enjoy good times and good food! Please RSVP to Michael Rabkin at mrabkin@ucsd.edu or 822-1047. I better see all of you there!

Community Challenge Ride Volunteers Wanted

COMMUNITY CHALLENGE RIDE
SATURDAY, MAY 1, 1999

The Community Challenge Ride is an annual 25, 50, and 100 mile bicycle ride held to raise funds for provision of services to youth in crisis, victims of domestic violence, women's health and breast cancer programs, and supplemental support for HIV/AIDS programs. The ride is sponsored by The Lesbian and Gay Men's Community Center. Over 100 riders are expected to participate in the day-long event - beginning in Hillcrest, traveling up the coast, going inland to Escondido and finishing back in San Diego.

The first food / water / rest stop of the ride (at Mile 13) will be on the UCSD CAMPUS at Revelle College. Volunteers are needed to staff the stop from 7:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Take an hour or two and help pass out food and water and give support to the riders.

Volunteers for any amount of time are welcome. If you'd like to help, please e-mail the UCSD stop coordinator, Milt Phegley, at mphegley@ucsd.edu

LGBT Panel on Hate Crimes Looking For Input

Dear Folks at LGBTA,

I'm looking for some people to participate in a discussion panel on hate crimes on college campuses on May 7th in the Student Center. Would anybody be able to volunteer 1/2 hour of their time to help educate others on LGBTA issues at 3:15 pm please let me know,

Thanks,

Matt Xavier

MEChA And LGBTA Join Forces!

As many of you know, Week 7 is "Out And Proud Week." Week 6 is "Raza Awareness Week," sponsored and coordinated by MEChA (Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlan). On Friday of Week 6 (May 7), we will be co-sponsoring a Barbeque (and maybe a dance, keep an eye out!) on Library Walk. More information on this as the date draws close. It promises to be lots of fun!

Dark Star & LGBTA: No Holds Barred!

We are proud to announce that we will be co-hosting a production of "The Rocky Horror Picture Show" on campus! Yes, everyone's favorite cheese-ball musical will be put on here on campus, May 8 (Saturday). This event guarantees mayhem and hella fun! (I'm not really from Nor. Cal.) Make sure to bring some toast, too! Exact times and locations will be released very soon. We just want to keep you on the edges of your computer-lab seats.

"Out And Proud Week"

Yes, this is the new name for the formerly known as "Gay Awareness Week." The name was decided by members of the LGBTA who were in attendance at the all important "Vote For A New Name" meeting. We hope all are pleased by the unveiling. As you read this, the final touches are being put on this week. It promises to be the best "Out And Proud Week" we have ever brought you! Discussions are being given times, speakers are being procured. And don't forget that we will be closing out the to-be-successful week with a booth at the Sun God Festival and the last dance of the 1998-1999 academic year!!! Anyone who's anyone will be there! As always, our dances are free and include free refreshments, and special refreshments if you are over 21, and have ID. And please bring your coats to check at our coat check! It was a 150% success at the last dance! I love exclamation marks!!! For more information on this week, keep your eyes peeled for flyers or you can call us at 534-GAYS.

Philippine Parade

The 11th Annual Philippine Parade Celebration is just around the corner. This event will be held on June 6, 1999, at 10:00 AM in front of the San Diego County Administration Building. The Parade is the highlight of the two-day festival.

We would like YOUR organization/group to have an active part in the parade by marching. There is no fee to march, and it is REALLY easy to sign up!

Our goal is to show the thousands of spectators that come out to the parade each year just how diverse our community really is, and that means WE NEED YOU! We want to bring together San Diegans of all cultures, occupations, ages, genders, and interests.

So, if your group might be interested, call us! We want the community to meet your group! So come and be a part of this history making day! Please remember, "the more we are seen, the more we are heard, the stronger we become!"

Jess San Roque
Parade Chair
(619)229-2822

P.S. Spread the word to anyone else that is interested!

If we get enough interest, the LGBTQA as a group to march in the parade. However, this parade is very close to Finals Week, so it seems that unified student support may be hard to rally at this specific time. However, you don't need to march in a parade to rock out at a parade! Just grab some friends, show up, and enjoy the show!

NGLTF Conference

Colleagues-

This is a note to let you know that the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force will hold its annual Creating Change Conference in Oakland, California November 10 - 14, 1999. This year is the lowest cost ever for early registration, just $100 prior to June 30, 1999. UCLGBTQA Co-Chair Jonathan Winters is Co-Chair of the Oakland Host Committee!! I plan to attend and I hope that you do to. More information can be found on the WWW at:

Queer Youth: Now At A Bookstore Near You!

Hello all :]

Well, some of you know I've been working on a book project for sometime that would bring new perspectives on queer and questioning youth into the public eye.

It's FINALLY ready and now available at the usual places (amazon.com, barnesandnoble.com, queer bookstores). The title is: In Your Face: Stories from the Lives of Queer Youth.

president, don't make it too p.r.-ish.)

We want to know how accepting the student body, faculty and administration are towards gays (and, as a result, how many guys are actually out). Tell us about gay life in the surrounding town. Describe the resources and activities available on campus (student groups, coming out weeks, dances, etc.). And finally, tell us about the dating scene (or lack thereof) -- how guys meet each other, the average half-life of relationships (if they exist), how many guys you see walking around campus hand-in-hand, etc. Above all, remember to give us both the pros and cons (and a very insider perspective).

Because we're trying to get profiles of every college from Ole Miss to Harvard U. to UC-Santa Barbara, we regrettable cannot give you money for your services. But we can offer you something better -- that warm feeling you'll get for knowing you've helped some cute little high school senior decide where to go to college. (If you're not one for warm feelings, well, come up with your own justification.)

Once you've finished your review, send it to leif@joeymag.com (put "college reviews" in the subject line.) Be sure to include in the message whether you want your name and/or e-mail address to be listed with your review (if you'd like us to post your picture, attach a thumbnail -- that means SMALL -- gif or jpg to your message). And as a favor to us, please, please, please help us spread the word by forwarding this message to every gay college student you know.

Thanks a million,

The Joey Online staff

Really Gay Real Audio

FYI to all...
Many of you may have already found it, but here is an excellent site for gay-and-lesbian-specific "real audio" Internet news radio...

Meetings & Pens, Pens & Meetings!!

Just a quick reminder that our weekly General Meetings are held Mondays at 7 PM in the GSA (Grad. Student Association), located in the Old Student Center on the bottom floor, next to AS Lecture Notes and Soft Reserves. Everyone is invited, bring a friend, make a friend, have a blast! Yeah!

Also, for those who don't know, in the past we have had fundraising by selling our rainbow UCSD T-shirts and sweatshirts. This year, however, we have decided to change this. We still have a few shirts, left, but now we have a plethora of rainbow PENS! These exciting pens will liven up any life and any party! Don't have any pens left to take notes with in class? Get a RAINBOW PEN! They're a bargain at 75 cents for one, but they're a STEAL when they're two for just $1!!!! So make sure to come to meetings or activities and BUY OUR TUBULAR PENS!

Wipes the tears The ending of an E-Newsletter always makes me sad. I just want to take this time to apologize for any misinformation (though it should all be correct) or typos. Keep your eyes out for the next newsletter, probably to be sent in a couple of weeks. If anyone has been offended or has community announcements for the next newsletter, please address your comments/concerns to me at ucsdlgba@sdccl3.ucsd.edu.

Now that I've got your attention (or disgust), I'll credit that line as being stolen from "Kentucky Fried Movie". Welcome to the almost-last LGBTA E-Newsletter of this school year! Vigorously shakes pom-poms It's the end of Week 6, and we all know what comes after Week 6!!! No, the answer we're looking for is NOT "What is, 'Week 7'?" It's "OUT AND PROUD WEEK", the week formerly known as "Gay Awareness Week." Among other things you'll find below is a list of the activities we have planned. This promises to be the BEST "Out And Proud Week" EVER! Alert: I will not be here next year to continue my duties with the LGBTA E-mail, so I am requesting that anyone even REMOTELY interested in doing this (It's not THAT much work, folks, I promise.) reply to this E-mail and let me know. Also, if you would like to be taken off of this occasionally-used list or feel you have been added in error, please reply to this and let me know, and you will be taken off. Enjoy!

MEChA And LGBTA: Tag-Team Action!

As you all should know, Week 7 is "Out And Proud Week." Week 6 is "Raza Awareness Week," sponsored and coordinated by MEChA (Movimiento Estudiantil Chicano de Aztlan). This Friday, May 7, we will be co-sponsoring a Barbeque with them. The barbeque will take place on Library Walk from 11 AM until 2 PM. Be sure to drop by and get lunch! Even if you don't buy the food (carne asada, rice, beans, and drinks), just drop by to say hey and hang out and check out the car show. Also, later Friday night we will be co-sponsoring a dance with MEChA at the Pepper Canyon Lodge (Roosevelt Apartments) from 8:30 PM to 12 midnight. This is our first big co-sponsored event and so we'd appreciate it if EVERYONE showed up! come on down, it'll be fun! And, yes, of course, the dance will be FREE!

"The Rocky Horror Picture Show" Was Cancelled

Due to unforeseen circumstances, the co-sponsored event with Dark Star had to be cancelled. Our apologies on this.

Go See "ExtrABBaganza" For FREE!

Forget Ikea. Forget Volvo. Come experience Sweden's most important export, as the Gay Men's Chorus of San Diego presents "ExtrABBaganza!" -- a 25th anniversary salute to ABBA at the Spreckels Theatre on Saturday, May 8th at 8 PM and Sunday, May 9th at 7 PM. Join the 55-voice Gay Men's Chorus and the ExtrABBaganza Dancers for an unforgettable high-energy evening of hummable melodies, lush choral harmonies, and the instant sing-a-long that happens when you hear any of ABBA's chart-topping hits. The show features

some of the catchiest hooks ever, including "S.O.S.", "Fernando", "The Winner Takes It All", "Waterloo", "Super Trouper", and their #1 hit, "Dancing Queen." And the lyrics take on an entirely new meaning when the Gay Men's Chorus spoofs "When I Kissed the Teacher" and "Does Your Mother Know That You're Out."

We have been fortunate enough to receive FREE tickets to both Saturday and Sunday night's performances. I got the vouchers from a lovely and kindly gent this afternoon who is in the production and this is how it will work: You pick up the voucher from me for whichever night you want to go, and you present it at the box office at least 30 minutes prior to showtime, and you get your free tickets. Pretty easy, right? Right. All you have to do is reply to this E-mail, or for those of you who have my number, call me, and let me know which night you want tickets for and how many. We have 25 tickets for each night, and it's first come, first serve.

"Out And Proud Week"

OK, folks, and now the unveiling of the long-awaited schedule of activities for this monumental week:

Monday, May 10

Kick-off Rally in the Price Center Plaza, 12:00 noon to 1:00 PM. We will have an open microphone set-up for people to speak their minds: what the week means to them, what they have encountered through being LGBT or otherwise, etc. If you don't feel comfortable getting up and talking to everyone, just show up, hang out and show your support!

Tuesday, May 11 - Workshops in the Santa Barbara/Los Angeles Room, located on the 2nd Floor in the Price Center

*10:10 - 11:00 LGBT Symbols - Have you ever wondered what certain symbols mean or how they came about? Come find out!

*11:15 - 12:05 What is "Queer"? - Come get educated about the origins and use of this controversial term.

*12:20 - 1:10 Ethnicity & Homosexuality - Engage in a discussion on the relationship between these ethnicity and homosexuality.

*2:30 - 3:20 Machismo & Homosexuality - Engage in a discussion on the relationship between machismo and homosexuality

Wednesday, May 12 - Workshops in the San Francisco/Santa Cruz Room, located on the 2nd Floor in the Price Center

*10:10 - 11:00 Internalized Homophobia - Learn what it means to have and identify internalized homophobia and how to overcome it.

*11:15 - 12:05 Lecture on Queer Youth & Book-Signing with Author Mary Gray - Mary Gray is the author of a new queer youth book (some of you may recognize her name from the last E-mail). She will be talking on this subject and signing her book.

*12:20 - 1:10 Out on Campus - Join Asst. Res. Dean Ray Guerrero, Library-Employee Paul Harris, and others for a discussion of what it is like to be out of the closet on the UCSD campus, both as a student and as faculty.

*1:25 - 3:00 LGBT Resource Center Forum - This will be a discussion about what students would want from an LGBT Resource Office/Space, and what they hope it could do.

Thursday, May 13 - Workshops in the San Francisco/Santa Cruz Room, located on the 2nd Floor in the Price Center

*10:10 - 11:00 LGBT History: Stonewall - Come learn about one of the most well-known events in the history of the gay rights movement.

*12:20 - 1:10 Judaism & Homosexuality - A discussion on resolving the seemingly-conflicting Judaism and Homosexuality. (I will be leading this workshop.)

*1:25 - 2:15 Safer Sex for Men - Representatives of the Heads Up!

Program from the Center will be down to show techniques for safer sex for men. All levels of experience are invited!
*2:30 - 3:20 Lesbian Safer Sex - As the counter-part for the above, this will be a program on the ins-and-outs of safer sex for lesbians. I believe they may have an instructional video, too!

Friday, May 14

*Gay Jeans Day - Where jeans if you are either LGBT-identified, or are an ALLY to the community!
*Sun God - Come visit our sure-to-be-the-best booth at the Sun God Festival on the Sun God Lawn.
*Fund Raisers - We will be selling our rainbow pens and shirts, so please come buy some merchandise to support our NON-PROFIT, STUDENT-RUN organization!

Saturday, May 15

*The LAST Dance of the School Year, "Club Sun Goddess" - This will be the last LGBTQA dance of the 1998-99 school year and it promises to be a huge success! Please come and enjoy our FREE dance with FREE beverages (please bring ID if you're over 21, but ALL AGES WELCOME)! It will be from 9 PM until 1 AM in the Stage/Pub located in the Old Student Center. For directions/information, please call us at (619) 534-GAYS or check us out on the Web at <http://sdcc13.ucsd.edu/~ucsdlgba>. The date on the webpage may be wrong, so be assured it is on MAY 15!

Gay Bud Light Ad

Recently, Bud Light released a print of its ad for a Gay Pride Parade in which it has a picture of two men holding hands, accompanied by "Be Yourself And Make It A Bud Light." As expected, the Religious Right (and so forth) began a furious calling-campaign to tell the company that they thought the ad should be pulled. In response, a TOLL FREE line has been set up for people to call if they DO support the gay-themed ad. All you have to do is dial 1-877-233-7725. You will reach an automated response and that's it! No questions to answer, no nothing! It's an EASY and QUICK way to support gay rights.

Well, it's open season on Midterms and there's no rest for the students. Alas, my studies are beckoning me. Please feel free to forward this E-mail as you see fit. And, hey, join us for our FREE general meetings every Monday night at 7 PM in the Grad. Stud. Assoc. in the Old Student Center, located next to A.S. Lecture Notes and Soft Reserves. This Monday we will be starting a movie (It's going to a surprise which one, though!), so please join us! It'll be rad!

CALLING ALL VOLUNTEERS FOR FLYERING FOR "CLUB SUN GODDESS!" Last dance of the school year! Week seven, May 10 - May 15 is LGBTQA's "Out and Proud" Week to celebrate lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender awareness at the UCSD campus. To top off that weekend, on Saturday, May 15th, 9:00p.m. TO 1:00a.m. @ the Pub Stage, LGBTQA is hosting "Club Sun Goddess," our bi-quarterly non-sexist dance, this time voted by LGBTQA general members and given its name because the celebration is in conjunction with UCSD's Sun God Festival. In order to make this dance a big success again, we need those kind volunteers to lend a helping hand in flyering UCSD and the greater San Diego community prior to this event!

Your help is not only greatly appreciated, but crucial to this dance. Please review the following times to see if you're able to volunteer, and e-mail us back with the location and time slot(s) that best suits you:

Hillcrest:
(meet in front of Euphoria Coffee Shop off University Ave, near Obelisk Bookstore)

Friday, May 7th 1:30a.m. TO 2:00a.m.
Saturday, May 8th 1:30A.M. TO 2:00a.m.
Friday, May 14th 1:30a.m. TO 2:00a.m.

UCSD Campus, Library Walk:
(grab the flyers from the LGBTQA Office in the Old Student Center and meet at the Library Walk)

Thursday, May 13th 11:00a.m. TO 12:00p.m.
12:00p.m. TO 1:00p.m.
Friday, May 14th 11:00a.m. TO 12:00p.m.
12:00p.m. TO 1:00p.m.

Thank you and hope to see you at CLUB SUN GODDESS!! -- LGBTQA
