

Joseph Gantner appointed assistant Librarian

July 11, 1966

Joseph F. Gantner has been appointed assistant librarian at the University of California, San Diego, Melvin J. Voigt, UCSD librarian, announced today.

Gantner will be responsible for the development of new library buildings on both the Torrey Pines and Scripps campuses, and for certain aspects of personnel and finance, Voigt said. He will also continue as librarian of the SIO library for the next few months.

Since 1963, Gantner has been librarian at Scripps Institution of Oceanography. Prior to joining UCSD, he was with the UCLA biomedical library for four years. Gantner received his M.S. degree in library science from the University of California, Berkeley in 1959.

He is a member of Sigma Xi, honorary science research society, and of Beta Mu Phi, honorary library science society.

The Gantners live in La Jolla, California.

(7/11/66)