OCTOBER 1976

VOLUME 6

ISI CON 14!

On September 17, hundreds of Chicanos rallied at St. Anthony's Church Hall to hear Cesar Chavez, leader of the United Farmworkers Union (UFW) speak in favor of the farmworkers initiative, Proposition 14. The proposition which would guarantee farmworkers the right to choose their union by secret elections is being strongly opposed by the large farming corporations. Chavez told the crowd, "the growers have the money, but the farmworkers have the people. If all of you here today just get out and vote on November 2, you will give us a hands down victory!"

The rally was organized by the Ad Hoc Committee on Chicano Rights to kick-off their efforts to register voters in National City and throughout the South Bay. Over 300,000 people have been registered to vote throughout the state as part of the UFW's effort to win a resounding victory for farmworkers' rights.

The rally was preceded by a march through National City's West Side and was attended by leaders of the Church and the Black community as well as leaders of the Chicano community.

The November 2 election is significant for National City's voters for another reason. Throughout the last year many new voters have been registered by the Ad Hoc Committee. These citizens represent a real power base in the Committee's efforts to bring responsible government to the people of National City. However, if these voters do not exercise their right on election day they will be "purged from the roles," that is, they will not be allowed to vote in any future elections until they have re-registered.

The message is clear. National City's voters must go to the polls so that the farmworkers can win their right to vote. But just as importantly the voters must go to the polls to exercise their right.

Free transportation to the polls will be provided. Call 474-8195

ONE YEAR LATER

Question: Tato Rivera was killed one year ago October 12, 1975. What can you point to that has been accomplished by the protests, marches, recall, election campaign, and many other activities sparked by Tato's death?

Herman Baca: We can point to the existence of an on-going community based, non-funded, volunteer run organization which exists and is supported solely by the community. This is the major accomplishment of what we can point to.

Q.: Is the community more aware and more organized now than it was a year ago?

H.B.: It is more organized and more aware because of its involving itself actively on issues that effect its social, economic and political welfare. This was displayed during the recall, the election and more recently when it picketed the Federal Court House because of the reopening of the San Onofre checkpoint and the Proposition 14 rally which was held at St. Anthony's Hall.

Q.: What is the purpose of the Ad Hoc?

H.B.: To take positions on issues which affect the civil and constitutional rights of the Chicano community and to continue the political effort of organizing our people here in Nactional City and throughout San Diego County thru voter registration.

Q.: Has the purpose of the Ad Hoc Committee changed since its inception?

H.B.: The purpose has remained the same and we have expanded our objectives by involving more people in the community. We have always been a community based organization and will continue with the communities support.

Q.: How are the Ad Hoc's activities funded?

H.B.: Solely by membership dues and contributions from the communities who support our fundraisers and our objectives.

Q.: What is the difference between the Ad Hoc and other Chicano organizations?

H.B.: Plenty. Our organization is not funded by anyone other than the community so therefore it is not controlled by anyone but the people in the community. This is the basic difference; we are controlled and accountable only to the people and their interest in the community.

Q.: What is the next step for the Ad Hoc Committee?

H.B. To finish what was started.

HERMAN BACA

CESAR CHAVEZ

On September 17, 1976 a significant meeting took place in National City between Urban and Rural Chicanos on the issue of organizing politically on Proposition 14, the Farmworker initiative. As one News commentator stated " The significance of the National City meeting is that Urban Chicanos have finally begun to deal with the issue of organizing themselves politically".

AD HOC BRINGS CHAVEZ TO NATIONAL CITY

ST. ANTHONY'S - A HISTORY

St. Anthony's Hall in National City has been a gathering place for the community in times of concern and crisis; one year ago after the brutal shooting of Luis Tato Rivera and most recently for the "Yes on 14" and voter registration rally sponsored by the Ad Hoc Committee on Chicano Rights and the United Farm Workers.

The Church of St. Anthony of Padua was dedicated on May 30, 1910 and an account in the National City News described it much as it stands today: "The edifice measures 30 by 60 feet and faces east on Harding, near 18th St., its high tower and cross above being a conspicuous object in that part of the city. The exterior is painted white and its arched windows are of pleasing appearance. The interior, with a seating capacity of 200 contains a sanctuary and two small rooms which occupy the west end and a gallery on the other end for a choir. The ceiling built in the form of an arch is fitted throughout for electric lighting."

On September 10 of the same year, the new church narrowly escaped destruction when a small building adjacent to the church burned down. According to the National City News, only the prompt arrival of the Volunteer Fire Department saved the structure.

The first marriage took place on October 10 of 1910 and was performed by Father Fumelen. He was the first pastor and served the community for three years. During that time he also built a small church in Otay. Father Roberto Omana came as pastor to St. Anthony's on June 3, 1972 and is presently serving the parish.

LA PAZ RELIEF

The Ad Hoc Committee on Chicano Rights organized a drive from October 9 to 17 to collect necessary items for the victims of Hurricane Liza, La Paz, Mexico. Leaflets announcing the drive were distributed in the community at centers and churches in San Diego County. Saint Anthony's Church assisted in the drive by providing its hall as a collection point for the items received.

The people in the community responded generously to the Ad Hoc Committees request for help. Candles, clothing, medical supplies and canned food were brought in by the truckload to Saint Anthony's Hall. Members from the Ad Hoc volunteered their time and efforts to receive and sort all the items during the drive. Many stayed late into the night packing everything into large cartons.

The local 89 AFL-CIO Laborers Union provided truck transportation to centers in Tijuana where all materials collected will be taken to La Paz for distribution to the unfortunate victims of the hurricane.
