DOB: _____

ADDRESS: [REDACTED]

TIME: 10:30 p.m.

CITY: [REDACTED]

LEA: Border Patrol

PHONE: [REDACTED]

OFFICER: [REDACTED]

LOC. OF INCIDENT: San Ysidro Border Crossing

BADGE #: [REDACTED]

DATE OF INCIDENT: Oct. 21, 1984

NARRATIVE:

Sent to secondary inspection because the officer did not believe our reason for going to Tijuana. The officer asked if the husband was in the military. The same officer # [REDACTED], ordered us out of the car at secondary inspection. Ordering to "Keep hands out of pockets, that's my job, put hands on counter, spread legs". Then he searched. He grabbed his penis in front of the staff people and other people. He went through our personal belongings. Then he yelled at me for putting my hands down. I am pregnant. [REDACTED] protested then the officer yelled at him and pushed him against the counter. Officer [REDACTED], Sr. came in and told [REDACTED] to shut-up or he was going to be locked up. Names were then run through the computer and license returned.
