Dear Sir

You will receive by Pearl the wheel of your boat. This is the second time that I have shipped it to you. The Dora failed to land it and returned it to me. I also send my mate by this boat and would like you to have him get the Hunter ready by the time I arrive on the Dora. It is evident - we are going to have a lot of opposition this summer so I want to be on hand early this year. You will receive his transfer of bet as he is behind here. Please let him go to work and oblige me. All are well here and news are scarce so with best wishes to you and yours I am Yours Respectfully
Wm. A. Mun.

Dear Sir. Will you please get the sails of the "Baranoff" fixed. Gus. Johnson the man sent by N. Wren for the Hunter is a sailmaker and will do the work.
He has instruction what to do to them if you are disposed to hire him.

Yours Respectfully

N. W. Johnson
