Corporate Governance Disclosure Statement 31 December 2009

Objective: "The first choice provider of superannuation and other financial services in PNG"

The Board is responsible for the corporate governance of the Fund. The NASFUND Board is committed to the highest standards of Corporate Governance and disclosure in Papua New Guinea. The Corporate Governance matrix consists of five governance objectives

- Implementing the vision and values of NASFUND
- Identification of risk and managing risk within set parameters within the Strategic Plan
- Meeting financial targets
- Compliance with the Superannuation 2000 Act
- Employment and training of world class staff to meet performance goals

NASFUND believes that it's continued strength as the leading institution in superannuation lies in its open platform of member communication and open disclosure of the operations of the business. This statement sets out the principal corporate governance practices and disclosures that are in operation for the twelve months to December 2009.

Board Role of:
Under the NASFUND Constitution the management of the group is vested in the Board. The Board is charged with the following responsibilities

- Corporate governance
- Selection and supervision of the Chief Executive Officer(s)
- Approving and monitoring strategies, policies and plans
- Monitoring compliance with relevant legislation and in particular the Superannuation 2000 Act
- Review of human resources, information technology and the resources of the business

Board Remuneration & Attendance:
The Board presently comprises ten Directors. Seven Directors are representatives of the shareholders of NASFUND. The remaining three Directors are independents appointed by the Board. The Workers Director was filled over the year by Mr Hulala Tokome – an employee of Interoil Limited after public advertising. All Board meetings for the nine months were conducted in Port Moresby. The names of the members of the Board at the date of this report including the Audit and Remuneration Committee for the nine months to 31 December are as follows.

The Board met formally on six occasions over the twelve months. All available information on matters to be discussed at the meeting is provided to each Director and Senior Officer at least 14 days in advance. Minutes of the meetings can be obtained through the website: www.nasfund.com.pg.

Board Resolutions

Board resolutions made throughout the history of NASFUND can be accessed via the website www.nasfund.com.pg

Central Bank as Regulator

As part of the regulatory environment under the Superannuation 2000 Act, the Central Bank from time to time will conduct independent audits on the Fund outside normal independent accounting audits. No independent review by the Central Bank was conducted in the twelve months to December 2009. All regulatory requirements have been met including quarterly regulatory statements.

Codes of Conduct & Ethical Standards

The Board has adopted several codes relating to the conduct of Directors, Executives and Staff, including conflicts, of interest and confidentiality agreements. NASFUND recognises the need for Directors and employees to observe the highest standards of behaviour and business ethics in conducting their business. All Directors and senior management have signed a code of conduct. Two members of management are graduates of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Communication to Members

The Board formally communicates twice yearly with Members in two page newspaper spreads on the performance and activities of the Fund. The annual reports are also produced in poster format and sent to all contributing employers for employer notice boards. The content of all reports and graphs are produced internally by NASFUND. Over the twelve months NASFUND met with 353 employers and addressed employees and employers in public forums in four regions of the country. A newsletter is published monthly and circulated via email to 25,000 recipients. To be put on the email distribution E: itsupport@nasfund.com.pg - Twelve newsletters were produced over the period and can be accessed via the website: www.nasfund.com.pg

Constitutional Change:

There was one constitutional change this year with the creation of a Deputy Chair position

Contingent Liabilities:

As at 31 December 2009, there were no contingent liabilities.

Credit Rating Policy:

The crediting rate is determined on a time-weighted basis on member balances throughout the year. This is in accordance with international standards on return accreditation. Member's accounts were credited with 15% interest on the 27th February 2010.

a chance to go to the 2010 NRL
GRAND FINAL***

MVIL'S PMV NRL DRIVER COMPETITION

ENTER NOW FOR YOUR FREE FOOTY JERSEY

(LIMITED TO SUCCESSFUL PMV DRIVER APPLICANTS ONLY)

Conditions apply: The competition will be open for entry from February 1 to February 26 and will commence from March 1, 2010 through to August 31, 2010. To be eligible to be in the draw for the prize, drivers must not incur any driving infringement notices in this time. Drivers caught drink driving, speeding, overloading or driving in a manner dangerous to the public will be removed from the competition by a special task force set up to monitor and police the PMV drivers. Task force members will each be equipped with breathalysers and speed radar guns and will carry infringement notice books to issue written notice to rule breakers. Drivers caught breaking the rules will not receive fines but will be removed from the competition, as will any driver who fails to stop at any road block set up for the NRL Driver Competition. All drivers that remain in the competition at the end of August will be placed in the draw to be one of 15 to attend the 2010 NRL Grand Final. Winners will be flown from destinations within PNG to Port Moresby and depart to Sydney on Saturday October 2. All winners will need to have or be able to obtain passports. The decision and draw of the competition is at the discretion of MVIL. No disputes or correspondence will be entered into.

IT'S EASY TO ENTER

Each driver will need to register at any MVIL traffic registry office or MVIL agency from 1-26 February 2010 and complete the "PMV NRL Driver Competition" entry form and provide their license. Upon successful completion every driver will receive a specially designed "ROAD SAFETY – it's not a GAME" players shirt and car flag. Football logo stickers and passenger limit stickers will also be fitted to each registering driver's vehicle. Drivers caught drink driving, speeding, overloading and driving irresponsibly will be removed from the competition by a special task force set up to monitor PMV Drivers. Task force members will each be equipped with breathalysers and speed radar guns.
