The LGBT Resource Center at UCSD is a diverse, open and public space for all members of the University community to explore issues relating to sexual and gender identities, practices and politics. It develops student leadership, builds workplace equity, promotes academic research, and provides resources. The Center challenges existing definitions of variant genders and sexualities by engaging in community building on- and off-campus. This Center sustains and develops visibility, sense of community, and knowledge of diverse queer people.

The History of Q Camp

Q Camp began in the fall of 2002 with only 13 registrants. Proclaimed as a huge success by those attending, the event grew primarily by word of mouth in its second year.

With the addition of counselors from the UCSD LGBT community who led discussions, the numbers of registrants more than doubled, with 30 participants. In 2004, the campus was canvassed by a core of counselors and volunteers, 46 people registered, and even more attended the event.

For the 2005 edition of Q Camp, counselors went through extensive co-training with UCSD's Queer Peer Support Program, and Q Fair was added as an opportunity for our entire community to connect with Q Campers during an informal resource fair.

Q Camp continues to grow, and has evolved into the quickest and easiest ways for incoming students to connect to the LGBT community.

Q Camp 2006 Schedule

9:00am	Registration
9:25am	Introductions
9:45am	General Discussion I
10:45am	General Discussion II

LGBT Community Bonfire

Saturday, September 23rd, 2006, 7pm at Mission Bay - DeAnza Cove

As a start-of-the-school-year/end-of-the-summer community event, the Umbrella Group and Queer by Nature is hosting a bonfire the night of Saturday September 23rd. Classes will just be starting the week before and a bonfire will be a great way to get things off to a great start. The event will be down at Mission Bay/De Anza cove and boat ramp and will start around 7:00pm. It's going to be a great time and will once again bring the UC San Diego LGBT community together after a very successful Q camp!

What: Bonfire (mellow people around glowing embers)
 When: Saturday, September 23, 2006 7:00 PM until midnight
 Where: Mission Bay, fire rings near the boat ramp & cove
 Who: Cool UCSD folks and friends

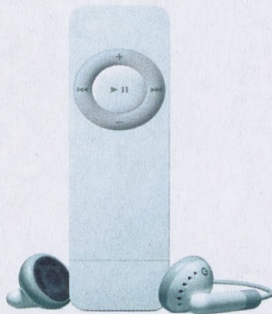

Bring a beach chair or blanket to make yourself cozy. The event is sort of a potluck so bring some food, or snacks, or drinks to share. Dogs are allowed on the beach/park, though they must remain leashed. It can get very chilly on the Bay, so bring something warm.

Mission Bay- De Anza Cove & Boat Ramp is located on the bay just north of the Visitor Information Center. The site is freeway easy (I-5 and Clairmont Drive) and there is plenty of parking.

AIDS Walk 2006! Win and iPod Shuffle!
Join Team "UCSD Community" Today!
 Sunday, October 1st, 2006, 8am at Balboa Park

HIV/AIDS affects so many in our community and those we love. The LGBT Resource Center lost one of our most consistent volunteers, Trent Lawley, to the pandemic. We honor his memory every year with a Memorial Volunteer Award at Rainbow Graduation. For that reason, and for many others, team "UCSD Community" will be participating in the 17th annual AIDS Walk San Diego on Sunday, October 1st, 2006. We want you to walk with us this year as part of our team. The Walk is really inspiring and raises much-needed funds for people living with HIV/AIDS in our community. Plus, it is a lot of fun. If you can't walk, please consider sponsoring the team "UCSD Community" that is walking. Your help and support makes a big difference! Click here to join.

Queer Womyn's Coalition "Family" Game Night

Saturday September 23, 2006 at 8 pm

The Queer Womyn's Coalition presents "Family" Game Night on Saturday night September 23, 2006 at 8 pm at 3935 Mississippi in Charoenphol (affectionately known as Nong Toom in Thailand) sets out to master the most masculine and lethal sport of Muay Thai (Thai boxing) to earn a living and to achieve his ultimate goal of total femininity.

Touching, funny and packed with breathtaking Thai kickboxing sequences, Beautiful Boxer traces Nong Toom's childhood, teenage life as a traveling monk and grueling days in boxing camps. Shot in 9 provinces across Thailand and in Tokyo, the film also features a series of explosive matches where Nong Toom knocks out most of his opponents in Thailand and Japan.

Directed and produced by Ekachai Uekrongtham, the film stars Asanee Suwan, a real-life kickboxing champ as Nong Toom. The role earned him the 2004 Supannahongsa Award (Thailand's equivalent to the Oscar) for Best Actor. Beautiful Boxer also features compelling performances by Thailand's award-winning actor Sorapong Chatree in the role of Nong Toom's coach and former Miss Thailand Orn-Anong Panyawong as Nong Toom's mother."

Fluid Sexuality Meetings

Meeting Place: 2nd Floor of the Cross-Cultural Center

This group is an open and intimate discussion regarding bisexual identities/labels, attraction to multiple genders, and the fluid nature of sexual attraction, sexual orientation and sexual identity that many experience in our community. People of all sexual and gender identities are encouraged to attend, listen, and actively participate in this unique forum. Come together and share your experiences or learn from the experiences of others about what fluid identities mean in peoples' lives.

It's respected space and we have our meetings on the 2nd floor of the Cross-Cultural Center.

With that, if you're still interested in participating in this exciting and fun open discussion this coming Fall quarter, please e-mail Peper at distantshadow44@yahoo.com with some available times you can meet during the week. Keep in mind that the meetings usually last one to two hours.

Very Hard for My Immigrant Ignorance" by Mirtha Quintanales to "who told you anybody wants to hear from you? you ain't nothing but a black woman!" by Hattie Gossett to "I Don't Understand Those Who Have Turned Away From Me" by Chrystos, This Bridge Called My Back is a showing-and-telling, a volume of reflections of stunning color: raging, gentle, powerful.

First published in 1983 and winner of the 1986 Before Columbus Foundation American Book Award, this collection was an important addition to the steadily growing voice of the world's silenced people, especially women of color. This Bridge Called My Back is a gift of wisdom, of strength, of womanhood. As Gloria Anzaldúa puts it in her foreword: "Haven't we always borne jugs of water, children, poverty? Why not learn to bear baskets of hope, love, self-nourishment and to step lightly?"

Q-Quote of the Week

"My lesbianism is the avenue through which I have learned the most about silence and oppression, and it continues to be the most tactile reminder to me that we are not free human beings." ~ Cherrie Moraga

A History

LGBT Organizations at UCSD

The first documents at UCSD that indicate that there was any visible LGBT presence come from the student organization that was at the time called the "Gay Student Association." In 1977, a woman by the name of Deborah Carlin signed her name to the form that officially created the group. That same group exists to this day, although through the years the name has evolved. They are now LGBTQIA.

Since that time, numerous groups and organizations have formed, reformed and continued this proud legacy of connecting our community. The Men's Group and

Interested in raising awareness on campus regarding LGBT issues and working on the Day of Silence? The join the AS Alliance! Similar to Gay-Straight Alliances found at many high schools, the AS Alliance brings together folks who are committed to being allies to the UCSD LGBT Community. The Alliance's next Training is on Sunday, October 1st in the afternoon. Please e-mail alliance@ucsd.edu if you are interested in attending the training, joining the Alliance or if you have any other questions!

Queer People of Color (QPOC)

Thursdays, 7pm at the LGBT Resource Center

Queer People of Color (QPOC) was established in 2000 by a group of Queers of Color FED UP with racism in the queer community. Because of this, at the core of QPOC is our commitment to struggle, and our commitment to activism. We recognize the intersecting of our identities, as well as the related intersection of various social justice movements. We create a SPACE: social, political, academic, and cultural environment - to enhance our members entire self-being! Email: ucsdqpoc@gmail.com; Website: <http://www.qpoc.org>

Queer Womyn's Coalition

Wednesdays, 6pm at the LGBT Resource Center Heritage Room

Queer Womyn's Coalition Mission Statement is to create a space that is inclusive and representative of queer womyn and queer womyn of color. The coalition works to create change and opportunities for womyn in the queer community.

LGBTQIA

Mondays at 7pm at the LGBT Resource Center

LGBTQIA is committed to providing safe spaces for the community and work toward this goal in many ways:

- holding regular meetings to provide a space to talk and socialize
- putting on social dances open to all, allowing people to have a good time without fear
- holding rallies to show our pride
- promoting education, both within the LGBTIQ community and to the larger San Diego community.

Fluid Sexuality

Mondays, 4:30pm-6:30pm upstairs at the Cross-Cultural Center

Women's Group came soon after the above-mentioned recognition. An organization of LGBT people of color, a precursor to QPOC, has some records after that.

Our community is now served by over 10 active groups and organizations. The history continues through the participation of our community as we come together and organize for social connection, education, and political action.

Creating you own!

How to create an LGBT Group or Organization

The first step in creating an organization is to find some like-minded folks that want to organize with you. This can be done through flyers, e-mail postings, articles in the Rainbow Newsletter, through word-of-mouth, and any other means you can think of!

Once you have a core group, there are many levels of organizing. Some groups simply choose a time, date and place to meet, advertise the group, and there is nothing more formal in place. Fluid Sexuality and Queering Gender are examples of this kind of organization.

Other groups are part of broader organizations and coalitions. For example, the Alliance is a part of the Associated Students. The Umbrella Group is member organization of the larger Staff Associations. QPOC is a member organization of the Student Affirmative Action Committee (SAAC).

Some groups go through extensive training of the leadership in order to serve their membership. Women's Group, Men's group and QPSP are examples of this kind of organization.

QPOC, as well as LGBTQIA and Queer by Nature, are officially

This group is an open and intimate discussion regarding bisexual identities/labels, attraction to multiple genders, and the fluid nature of sexual attraction, sexual orientation and sexual identity that many experience in our community. People of all sexual and gender identities are encouraged to attend, listen, and actively participate in this unique forum. Queer Peer Support Program (QPSP) Meetings determined by program participants

QPSP is a student organization that broadens queer and questioning UCSD students' support networks by developing an individual mentoring relationship with another queer UCSD student. It is for queer UCSD students by queer UCSD students. The mission of QPSP is to help queer and questioning students at UCSD succeed during their time at the university, reach their full potential as individuals, and connect with other queer UCSD students in an intimate and confidential setting. Participants will meet with Peer Supporters (PS's) once every two weeks for the academic year and attend quarterly socials.

Email: ucsdqpsp@yahoo.com

Queer by Nature (QxN) Tuesdays, 6pm at the LGBT Resource Center

We are a Queer wilderness collective of friends interested in experiencing the beauty of the natural world through means of exploration. We hike, bike, surf, swim, camp, climb and kayak and anything else outdoorsy you can think of. Our goal is to provide a safe and fun wilderness experience for LGBTQI students of UCSD and other colleges in the San Diego area (State / Private / Community all welcome).
Email: qxn@ucsd.edu

Queering Gender Tuesdays, 3:30pm-4:30pm at the LGBT Resource Center

Queering Gender is a safe supportive environment to discuss gender, the gender/sex matrix, sexuality, female/male dichotomy, transgender identities, and anything else that comes to mind... All identities are welcome. Please join us! For more information, e-mail: rainbow@ucsd.edu

Women's Group Tuesdays, 7pm at the LGBT Resource Center

Women's Group is an opportunity to discuss issues, problems, and life in an informal and comfortable atmosphere. We meet in a respected space, so all information and identities are kept confidential. If you identify as lesbian or bisexual, or are questioning your sexual orientation, stop by Women's Group to meet other like minded women and gain support from your peers.

Men's Group Wednesdays, 7pm at the LGBT Resource Center recognized organizations through the Student Organization and Leadership Opportunities (SOLO) Office. This represents the most formal type of group among student organizations, and allows access to facilities and funds provided through the University.

Regardless of the level of organization you might be interested in, starting a group is a great way to build community among the community, so if you are interested, go for it!

Men's Group is a service brought to the male-identified members of the UCSD community for the purpose of discussions on what it means to be LGBT or an Ally within the context of UCSD and beyond. The setting is personal and confidentiality is a prime objective. Thus, a safe discussion space is created for discussing these issues with friendly facilitators.

Friday Night Movie

Saving Face Sep. 29th, 2006 at 5 PM

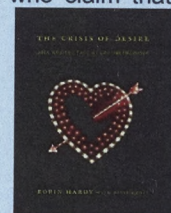

From our own LGBT RC intern Mary Kong... "Saving Face is a romantic comedy about a widowed mother, Hwei-Lan who moves in with her grown daughter Wil after being thrown out by her father after he found out she was pregnant. Both Hwei-Lan and Wil find themselves in the same boat of whether choosing to follow their hearts or to honor their family name. See how Hwei-Lan and Wil learn to deal with love, honor, and each other by coming to Friday, September 29th movie night."

The Crisis of Desire: Aids and the Fate of Gay Brotherhood by Robin Hardy with David Groff

What has AIDS done to us gay men? is a question that can only be answered one gay man at a time. Decrying New Age Bunnies who claim that AIDS is the best thing that ever happened to them, Hardy asserts that if there is redemption in living with HIV, it is only in the community to come out to our Week One hike happening this Saturday. We are going out to the Mission Hills/ Cowell's Mountain area for a great hike that ends with a fantastic view of San Diego County. We will be meeting at the Old Resource Center Parking Lot (across from Gilman Parking Structure) at 9:30am to figure out rides and then leave from there.

Be sure to keep in mind that we will be hiking out under the sun so dress accordingly. Note You CAN get sunburned when it's overcast. This means sunblock up and also bring some water for the hike.

To maintain our QxN traditions, we will probably be going out to lunch afterwards so plan on getting some good food with good company. I look forward to seeing you all then and Tuesdays at our meetings at 6pm in the Resource Center.

Hope y'all are having a good first week of classes and if you have any questions/ comments feel free just contact me,

LGBTQIA Intramural Innertube Waterpolo!

Join our team now!

From our own Red... "Hello everyone! LGBTQIA is starting up an intramural innertube waterpolo team this fall, and we need you to come play for us!

Innertube waterpolo is essentially waterpolo...but played on innertubes! Isn't that fun and easy? We need a co-ed team of seven players; 4 men and 3 women are required, but we are allowed to have as many on the team we want. That's just the number of people needed to play per half, so sign up if you wanna play!

The season runs from Oct. 10 to Nov. 20. Playing times vary from Sun 6PM-12midnight, or Mon-Thurs 7PM-12midnight, one night a week.

If interested, e-mail us at LGBTQIA@gmail.com with "INNERTUBE WATERPOLO" on the subject line. Include your name, PID number, times you are available, and night(s) you prefer to play from one of the 5 available ones from above. E-mail must be received by Wednesday, Oct. 4, 2006.

determining that something good can be constructed in the midst of great evil, and it can only be personal. With an eclectic mix of memoir, social history, diatribe, journalism and cultural criticism, he defends and celebrates the sex-positive ways gay men have continued to connect in the face of an ongoing catastrophe.

Hardy, who died in a mountaineering accident before AIDS could kill him, believed HIV is not the enemy of sex; its the antagonist of love, and that even against death, revolution can be joyful. At its most incisive, the book documents AIDSs great evil, governmental and institutional inaction and the loss of most of a generation of gay men... who would have told the rest of us how to grow old, how to be adult. Hardy was a first-rate journalist whose honesty and intelligence are most evident in his personal history, particularly his account of a Dutch lovers state-sanctioned euthanasia. The greatest strength of the book is in its portraiture and reminiscences. Although Hardy left this manuscript incomplete, editor David Groff has done an excellent job of preserving the work of an important writer. Copyright 1999 Reed Business Information, Inc.

Q-Quote of the Week

TOP STORY

Wednesday, October 11th, is National Coming Out Day!

Wednesday, October 11th, 2006
Price Center Rally 11am - 2pm

From Bryce of LGBTQIA...

"October 11th is National Coming Out Day, and in observance LGBTQIA is holding a rally in Price Center Plaza! We will have tables, a stage, and a podium with a microphone set up where you can stand up and tell your personal stories, experiences, or just speak your mind. Not only can this be very empowering for yourself, to be able to publicly affirm one's social identity as queer, but it can help to educate others as well.

Feel free to bring your lunch and eat with us, either to show your support with your presence, or to stand up and speak out for what you believe in.

And for the first year ever, the Rally will feature a live musical guest (Every Reason, a new acoustic pop group) to perform in between speakers, to keep the energy up and to grab the attention of anyone in PC Plaza."

Please come and join a committed group of UCSD community members as we come together and plan the annual recognition of HIV/AIDS in our community. The current working title is "Fuzzy Hope - Thinking about 25 years of HIV/AIDS World AIDS Day 2006"

We need lots of community input and support to plan this event, so please join us!

Organizations

Fluid Sexuality Time and Location Change

Wednesdays, 4:30 - 6:30pm

@ The Women's Center

The group is an open discussion regarding bisexual identities/labels, attraction to multiple genders, and the fluid nature of sexual attraction, sexual orientation and sexual identity that many experience in our community. People of all sexual and gender identities are encouraged to attend, listen, and actively participate in this unique forum. Come together and share your experiences or learn from the experiences of others about what fluid identities mean in everyone's lives.

For more information about "Fluid Sexuality" e-mail Shaun Travers at: stravers@ucsd.edu with "Fluid" in the subject line.

Queering Gender - Time Change!

Tuesdays, 3:00 - 4:00pm

@ The LGBT Resource Center

Queering Gender is a safe supportive environment to discuss gender, the gender/sex matrix, sexuality, female/male dichotomy, transgender identities, and anything else that comes to mind... All identities are welcome. Please join us!

For more information, e-mail: rainbow@ucsd.edu

I look forward to seeing you participate in Speakers Bureau panels this year, and can't wait for new folks to sign up! Magandang araw sa inyong lahat (Have a good day to you all!)

Friday Night Movie

Transamerica Oct. 6th, 2006 at 5 PM

"Bree, a pre-operative, male-to-female transsexual, holds down two jobs and saves every penny so that she can pay for one last operation that will make her a woman at last. One day, however, she receives a strange phone call. It appears that on the other side is Toby, apparently her son, who must be the product of a somewhat clumsy sexual encounter years ago when she was a man. He stays in New York, incarcerated. Bree flies from Los Angeles to New York in order to get the boy out of jail. At first she is reluctant to do so, but her therapist convinces her to face up to her past. The boy is handed over to her without a word of explanation and Toby believes the woman to be some Christian missionary determined to convert reprobates to Jesus; Bree sees no reason to clear up the misunderstanding. However, she finds out that the boy just wants to escape from her and hitchhike to Los Angeles. She persuades him to accompany her back to the west coast—secretly planning to leave him at his stepfather's along the way. Toby is happy to take her up on her offer."

So come and join the wonderful Red Galura as he shows this film!

LGBT Speakers Bureau Fall Panelist Training

October 12th, 2006

5 - 8pm @ The LGBT Resource Center

The first Speakers Bureau Panelist Training for the new academic year will be on Thursday, Oct. 12th, from 5:00PM - 8:00PM, in the Conference Room at the LGBT Resource Center. Speakers Bureau is a group of lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, and straight ally identified students, staff and faculty trained to represent, in a personal way, the diversity of the UCSD LGBT community to a variety of groups and organizations interested in providing education regarding LGBT issues.

Those who complete the Panelist Training are eligible to be panelists for Speakers Bureau events and sessions run through the program, including the infamous Guess Who's Gay Panel, Traditional Panel, and "I Have Gay Friends" Panel. Panels are usually requested by RAs for their residents, professors in various classes, and the UCSD Alliance. There is no time commitment besides Training; respond only to the panels which you are available to volunteer!

Life feeling a little bit empty without Speakers Bureau? Want to be involved in the LGBT community in one of the easiest and most flexible ways? Just want someone (or a classroom full of 300 students) to listen to your story? Then Speakers Bureau is for you! Please RSVP to Red Galura at LGBTspeakers@ucsd.edu if you'd like to attend the training. Free pizza and drinks will be provided. Panelist Trainings are offered once a quarter, so don't fret if you can't make this one.

For more information, visit us at

Borhek

"For gays and lesbians, Coming Out to Parents explores the fears and misgivings accompanying the revelation of themselves to their parents, providing suggestions on how and when to come out, what reactions to expect, and how to deal with the awkwardness that follows. For parents, the book guides them through the natural feelings of grief and loss and shows how understanding, compassion, and insight can lead to an even deeper love."

Q-Quote of the Week

have volleyball, ultimate Frisbee and what ever else we happen to do (I have it on good authority there happen to be a lot of good looking people down at that beach too, coincidence?).

In order to arrange rides and coordinate directions, we will be meeting at what was the Old Resource Center and is now a visitor parking lot, across from Gilman Parking Structure, at 12:00pm on Sunday, October 8th. We will already have the volleyball and Frisbee stuff, so just come with yourself and any friends you want to come. Also make sure to wear something appropriate for the beach and bring sun screen. Following the event, we may get food, just to follow tradition!

Snorkeling Event

Sunday, October 15th, 9:00am-12:00pm

Meeting At: Old LGBT Resource Center

Event At: La Jolla Cove

Queer by Nature is holding its first snorkeling event this year! We will again be going down to La Jolla Cove, one of the best snorkeling spots in California. We are going to be meeting at the Old Resource Center at 9:00am on Sunday, October 15th, and then car pooling down to the Cove. I know it seems early, but really, it's MUCH better in the morning. We've talked with Outback Adventures and are able to get a group discount if more than 10 people go. All gear (mask and snorkel, fins, and wetsuit) will cost $22, provided we find enough of you to rent from them, so RSVP to qxn@ucsd.edu !! In order to get the discount, the money must be paid in advance, hence the need to RSVP. Following the event, we will continue our tradition of going out for food with a trip for brunch at a restaurant across the street!

If you would like to see something specific at these events, or any QxN event, then please attend our weekly meetings from 6:00pm-6:30pm at the LGBT Resource Center on Tuesdays. For more information contact qxn@ucsd.edu and visit our soon to exist website!
