Funding Available for Western Regional Conference

On April 18-20, 2008, the University of California, Los Angeles will host the annual Western Regional LGBTQIA College Conference.

This conference, organized for and by LGBT college students, is the only one of its kind in California. Don't miss this great opportunity to meet people and attend great workshops!!!

The conference will feature author, playwright and performance artist

Kate Bornstein, slam poet Andrea Gibson, comedian Sandra Valls, and transgender activist and scholar Dean Spade; you won't want to miss it!

Contact Dorothy Young at dsyoung@ucsd.edu for details on how to register.

"LGBT Speakers Bureau Spring 2008 Panelist Training

Feel the need to speak about an important part of your life and want to find a good outlet? Want to be involved in the LGBT community in one of the easiest and most flexible ways? Ever wish you could have the opportunity to dispel stereotypes and myths about the LGBT community? Then Speakers Bureau is for you! Speakers Bureau is a group of LGBT identified folks and Allies who speak in classrooms, residence halls, and other venues on campus about their experiences as LGBT people and Allies. We will be holding our Spring Panelist Training on April 29th from 6pm to 9pm. The training will be at the LGBT Resource Center in the Conference Room. Food and Drinks will be provided. Please RSVP with Ariel Smith at LGBTspeakers@ucsd.edu if you'd like to attend the training, and include your eating preferences (vegan, veggie, etc.).

For more information contact Ariel Smith at LGBTspeakers@ucsd.edu or check out our website at: <http://lgbt.ucsd.edu/speakers>

Coming Out Group

Tuesdays at 5pm, Cross-Cultural Center

The Coming Out Group is a place to meet and gain support while discussing your sexual and/or gender identities in a confidential setting. This group is for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, straight or questioning folks who are coming out and who may already be out. Topics are determined by group participants, and can include coming out to yourself, coming out to family, coming out to friends, coming out and the work place, and coming out at school.

For more information, e-mail Mark Kurai at mkurai@ucsd.edu or Sean Boileau at sboileau@ucsd.edu

Out and Proud Week: May 5-9, 2008

Out and Proud Week presents the largest opportunity for community visibility on the UCSD campus. It is a week-long group celebration and private reflection on the achievements of LGBTQI-identified students, staff, and faculty and our allies. It is also a time for public awareness and discussion of current LGBT issues on the state and national levels.

All Week

The LGBT Resource Center will be on Library Walk the week of May 5-9, 2008, from 10am-3pm. We'll be tabling with folks from various LGBT student, staff, and faculty organizations. Come visit us at the rainbow balloon arch!

Monday, May 5: Scholarship Fundraiser

5:00pm-7:00pm

Round Table Pizza

Come join us as we fundraise for the LGBT Resource Center undergraduate scholarship. 20% of the proceeds you spend at Round Table will go to the $1,000 scholarship. Bring friends, share a meal, and raise money for an awesome cause!

Tuesday, May 6: Transamerica

5:00pm Reception, with film immediately following
Price Center Theater

Admission: FREE

Bree is a perfectly adjusted conservative transsexual woman. Born Stanley, a genetic male, she's about to take the final step to becoming the woman Stanley always wanted to be -- until she finds out she is the parent of a long-lost 17 year-old son. Afraid to tell the rebellious teenager the truth, Bree embarks on a journey with him that will challenge and change both their lives and bring them closer to the truth of their connection. TRANSAMERICA is a funny, touching, completely modern look at the contemporary American family, starring Emmy Award-winner Felicity Huffman and Kevin Zegers. TRANSAMERICA has won numerous festival prizes, including awards for best film at the Berlin Film Festival, San Francisco's Frameline Festival, and the Woodstock Film Festival, and the award for Best Screenplay at France's 2005 Deauville Festival of American Film.

Wednesday, May 7: Hidden Voices - The Lives of LGBT Muslims

Speaker: Faisal Alam

5:00pm

Mandeville Center East

This presentation aims to dispel myths about Islam, a religion that is commonly misunderstood in today's world. By exploring the complex diversity within the Muslim world and by illustrating the many challenges facing queer Muslims, this presentation will bring new light into the lives of an often invisible and silent community: Muslims who are lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, intersex and questioning. LGBT human rights, the concerns of women and religious minorities and the history of sodomy laws & Islamic Shariah laws will also be discussed. Additionally the history of the queer Muslim movement in the United States post 9/11 and the suppression of LGBT people in predominantly Muslim countries under the guise of the "war on terror" will also be explored in this interactive presentation.

Thursday, May 8: Transgender Tea Party

5:00pm

LGBT Resource Center

The Transgender Intersex Alliance (TIA) and the LGBT Resource Center are hosting a "T"-Party! Here, "T" stands for "Transgender", so we will have a panel discussion with members of our transgender community, who will be sharing their stories and their lived experiences. All members of the LGBT community and our allies are welcome to attend.

Formal English high tea, finger sandwiches, and petit fours will be served.

Friday, May 9: Julia Serano and Anniversary Celebration

4:00pm, with reception immediately following

Eucalyptus Point

Come join us for Julia Serano's spoken word performance!

Julia Serano is an Oakland, California-based writer, spoken word performer, trans activist, and biologist. Julia is the author of Whipping Girl: A Transsexual Woman on Sexism and the Scapegoating of Femininity (to be published by Seal Press in June, 2007), a collection of personal essays that examines the ways in which misogyny frames many popular stereotypes and assumptions about transsexual women. In recent years, Julia has gained notoriety in transgender, queer, and feminist circles for her unique insights into gender.

Julia's performance will be followed by an Anniversary Celebration to honor the LGBT Resource Center's second year in its permanent home. Refreshments will be served.

Get Involved with Day of Silence 2008

From UCSD Alliance, Looking for a fun way to contribute to the Day of Silence? Come to the Day of Silence flyering party on Monday, April 7th, at 6pm. We'll meet at the LGBTRC at 6, go flyer, and then come back for pizza and drinks at 7pm.

The more the merrier!

Film Screening: "In God's House"

Tuesday, April 22, 6:30pm, Cross-Cultural Center Lecture Hall

Join members of the Asian Pacific Islander, LGBTQ and Faith communities at UCSD as we come together to view "In God's House" - a compelling film about Asian American gay and lesbian families in the church. Following the film will be a panel and discussion. Light refreshments will be provided. For questions, please contact Siddharth at spkulkar@ucsd.edu. See you there!

Teatro Chicana

Thurs., April 17 from 5-7pm

Meet Chicana actors and writers, discussing their new book, "Teatro Chicana: A Collective Memoir and Selected Plays," with a musical performance by Chunky Sanchez and Ricardo Felix. For information, email violetag@ucsd.edu

URINETOWN: THE MUSICAL

Mandeville Auditorium, April 10th, 11th, & 12th, 8-10PM

Come watch Denny & Red, two members of the LGBT Resource Center, on stage! Tickets are $8 for students, $9 for faculty/staff, and $10 general, at the Price Center Box Office, or Middle of Muir (M.O.M.). *If you buy them at M.O.M. though, tickets are $8 each no matter what! =)

Synopsis: "Set in the not-too-distant future, a 20-year drought has depleted the world's water resources, making the use of private toilets impossible. People are now forced by law to pay a major monopolizing urinal company in order to pee. If you refuse to pay, you are whisked away to a place called Urinetown and never heard from again. Things get better when a strapping young revolutionary decides to rally his people and take back their freedom to piss. Oh, did we mention that he falls in love with the daughter of the villainous urinal company's CEO? Secrets, scandals, dance breaks, and pee ensue."

GUTS:

Gender Respect and Equality. On Tuesday, March 17, we will be discussing gender issues in terms of same-sex relationships. GUTS meets every Tuesday at 7:30pm in the Hi Thai Lounge. For questions please contact jristau@ucsd.edu

By Cris Beam

"Christina, Dominique, Foxxjazell, and Ariel's world is a dizzying mix of teenage cliques, crushes, and far less familiar challenges – such as how to morph your body on a few dollars a day. These transgender girls bravely struggle to reconcile the way they feel inside with the way the world sees them. Funny, defiant, and sometimes heartbreaking, Cris Beam's exceptional story of how these girls survive, and maybe even thrive, despite a world that wants to ignore them is a wonder of storytelling and passionate engagement."

"To be nobody but yourself in a world which is doing its best, night and day, to make you like everybody else means to fight the hardest battle which any human being can fight; and never stop fighting."

Principles to Practice: Campus Community Center's Institute on Diversity and Social Justice

June 25th, 2008. 8:30am -4:00pm

Price Center, Gallery A. 50 people maximum

Addressed from multiple perspectives, and with a deep-seated attention to the lived experiences of the participants in the room, the session will explore both past realities, current situations and potentials for future change. Cultures within departments, political dynamics, and individual effectiveness will be examined and explored. By honoring UCSD's Principles of Community we continue to maintain an excellent workforce, and the session provides a space to hone the skills necessary to maintain and enhance this work.

Spring CUDLI Workshops

Interested in having facilitators from the Chancellor's Undergraduate Diversity Learning Initiative put on a workshop for your group or organization?

The following workshops are available for our Social Justice Peer Educators to present for your group or organization:

Fluidity Workshop: How do I Change and Grow?

This workshop will deeply explore the ways in which identities shift, grow, and change over time.

Intersectionality Workshop: How do I Fit?

This session will "dig deeper" into diversity. Issues of multiple identities and cross-issue organizing will be discussed, as it relates to social justice.

Target and Agent Workshop: Who Am I?

In this workshop participants will focus issues of power, privilege, and oppression. We will discuss how individuals or groups of people might be most challenged or be most likely to succeed within the institution and the larger community.

For more information, please contact diversity-institute@ucsd.edu.

"Be confident. Be you."

Monday, April 21st from 7:00 pm – 8:30 pm at the Women's Center

Want something to believe in? Start with yourself! Come to a workshop designed just for you on how to feel good about yourself and raise your confidence. The Women's Center is located across from Main Gym near the Old Student Center in Muir College.

Coming Out Group

Tuesdays at 5pm, Cross-Cultural Center

The Coming Out Group is a place to meet and gain support while discussing your sexual and/or gender identities in a confidential setting. This group is for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, straight or questioning folks who are coming out and who may already be out. Topics are determined by group participants, and can include coming out to yourself, coming out to family, coming out to friends, coming out and the work place, and coming out at school.

For more information, e-mail Mark Kurai at mkurai@ucsd.edu or Sean Boileau at sboileau@ucsd.edu

UCSD Alliance Ally Training!

An Ally training is a workshop in which participants become familiar with the LGBT Community, both on and off the UCSD campus. We will go over terms, symbols, and discuss the issues that this community faces on a daily basis.

On Thursday, May 15th (Week 7) we will be having our Spring Quarter Ally training. It will take place in the conference room at the LGBT Center from 5-7pm. Dinner will be provided. Email alliance.ucsd@gmail.com with any questions you may have!

Spring CUDLI Workshops

Interested in having facilitators from the Chancellor's Undergraduate Diversity Learning Initiative put on a workshop for your group or organization?

The following workshops are available for our Social Justice Peer Educators to present for your group or organization:

Fluidity Workshop: How do I Change and Grow?

This workshop will deeply explore the ways in which identities shift, grow, and change over time.

Intersectionality Workshop: How do I Fit?

This session will "dig deeper" into diversity. Issues of multiple identities and cross-issue organizing will be discussed, as it relates to social justice.

Target and Agent Workshop: Who Am I?

In this workshop participants will focus issues of power, privilege, and oppression. We will discuss how individuals or groups of people might be most challenged or be most likely to succeed within the institution and the larger community.

For more information, please contact diversity-institute@ucsd.edu.

Principles to Practice: Campus Community Center's Institute on Diversity and Social Justice

June 25th, 2008. 8:30am -4:00pm

Price Center, Gallery A. 50 people maximum

Addressed from multiple perspectives, and with a deep-seated attention to the lived experiences of the participants in the room, the session will explore both past realities, current situations and potentials for future change. Cultures within departments, political dynamics, and individual effectiveness will be examined and explored. By honoring UCSD's Principles of Community we continue to maintain an excellent workforce, and the session provides a space to hone the skills necessary to maintain and enhance this work.

FACEBOOK EVENT: NATIONAL DAY OF SILENCE

DAY of SILENCE

Please understand my reasons for not speaking today. I am participating in the Day of Silence (DOS), a national youth movement bringing attention to the silence faced by lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people and their allies. My deliberate silence echoes that silence, which is caused by anti-LGBT bullying, name-calling and harassment. I believe that ending the silence is the first step toward building awareness and making a commitment to address these injustices.

Think about the voices you are not hearing today.

"For the Bible Tells Me So"

Does God really condemn loving homosexual relationships? Informed by such respected voices as Bishop Desmond Tutu, Harvard's Peter Gomes, Orthodox Rabbi Steve Greenberg and Reverend Jimmy Creech, this film offers healing, clarity, and understanding to anyone caught in the crosshairs of scripture and sexual identity. You can view this in our Heritage Room or check it out from our media library.

Outing Racism: Anti-Racism Practice

May 3rd, 2008. 10 AM

From our Anti-Racism intern, Atiya Simon: "On May 3rd, 2008, at 10am, an incredible experience awaits. The stakes are high and the mood is set. The 2nd part of the Outing Racism series focuses on Anti-Racism Practice. The mission is to take action in our spaces and create a social justice environment that challenges us to start with ourselves. There will be delicious food, group discussions, anti-racism workshops and activities along with relational experiences. The task is challenging and emotive, passionate and necessary. The LGBT Resource Center welcomes your attendance at the Outing Racism: Anti-Racism Practice on May 3, 2008. Please RSVP at rainbow@ucsd.edu, Subject: Outing Racism."

Help us for Out & Proud!

If you can assist with creating the balloon arch or staffing the table on Library Walk for Out & Proud week, please e-mail Jan at jeestrellado@ucsd.edu with the day(s) and times you can volunteer. We really need our community to come together to make this happen.

1) We are asking for volunteers to commit to helping with the balloons anytime from 8:00 to 10:00am (staying as long as you can) on as many days as possible (Monday through Friday). We need about three people each morning to be successful. Breakfast will be

3pm to 6pm and Thursday from 5 to 8:30pm throughout the Spring quarter. Stop by the photobooth to sign up for a time slot! If you cannot make these times, please email mag002@ucsd.edu

2) Every day of the week we will have a double table out on library walk from 10:00am until 2:30pm (Monday through Friday). If you can volunteer to staff the table for an hour or more (with other folks - we always have one person covering from the LGBT RC Staff) that would be awesome.

Out of all of the events the LGBT Resource Center coordinates, we rely most on the support of our community to make Out and Proud truly great.

Again, if you are interested in helping please e-mail Jan at jeestrellado@ucsd.edu with the days and times that you are available.

Thank you and hope to see you all out on Library Walk next week!

Out & Proud Week: May 5-9, 2008

Out & Proud Week 2008 is next week! Out & Proud Week presents the largest opportunity for community visibility on the UCSD campus. It is a week-long group celebration and private reflection on the achievements of LGBTQI-identified students, staff, and faculty and our allies. It is also a time for public awareness and discussion of current LGBT issues on the state and national levels.

All Week

The LGBT Resource Center will be on Library Walk the week of May 5-9, 2008, from 10am-3pm. We'll be tabling with folks from various LGBT student, staff, and faculty organizations. Come visit us at the rainbow balloon arch!
