UCSD'S GROVE GALLERY'S "ALL-UC PHOTO SHOW" CALL FOR ENTRIES

The University of California, San Diego's Grove Gallery will hold a juried "All-UC Photography Exhibition," from May 31 through June 23. Deadline for entries is May 4.

Photographs taken by career employees, faculty, graduate, and undergraduate students of the campuses and laboratories of the University of California system are eligible for entry.

Each person may submit up to two works, printed in black and white or in color. The photographs will be juried by Arthur Oilman, award-winning photographer and executive director of the San Diego Museum of Photographic Arts.

At UC Riverside, Chancellor S.J. Schraer has offered a purchase award up to $1,000 for a photograph submitted by a member of the UC Riverside faculty, staff or student body, to be chosen out of the juried photographs in the exhibition. The photograph will be selected by Oilman and, at the close of the exhibition, will be returned to UC Riverside for installation.

For further information and a prospectus please write: All-UC Photography, UCSD Grove Gallery, B-038, La Jolla, CA 92093, or telephone (619) 534-2637.
