

Mrs. Hugh Bradner named co-chairperson of UCSD Luau

March 15, 1974

Mrs. Hugh Bradner has been named co-chairperson of the UCSD Luau to be held Friday, April 26, at the Hawaiian Pavilion at Sea World.

Chancellor and Mrs. William D. McElroy and the faculty of the University of California, San Diego are hosting the party which will be for faculty, staff and friends of the university.

Dr. Herbert Stem, head of the UCSD Academic Senate, will serve as chairman of the event on behalf of the faculty.

The evening will begin with cocktails at 7 l.m. on the terrace outside the pavilion followed by a luau buffet from 8 to 10 p.m. in the Foremost Garden.

Music for dancing will be provided throughout the evening by Marv Decker and the Contemporaries.

The luau, a first-time event, is planned as a gala social occasion for the university with dress specified as "Tahitian formal." Guests at the party will also be able to stroll throughout the park which will be reserved for the event.

Committee chairpersons are Mrs. Roswell W. Austin, arrangements; Dr. Theodore W. Forbes, decorations; Robert H. Smith, guest list; Mrs. Warren Houseman, invitations; Dr. and Mrs. John Stewart, music, and Mrs. Robert H. Smith, publicity.

Other committee members are Dr. and Mrs. Philip N. James, Dr. and Mrs. Patrick J. Ledden, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Watson, Dr. and Mrs. Murray Goodman, David E. Ryer and Dr. John J. Silber.
