Dear Leo:

It was a very exciting, heart warming, and impressive for us to see you on Ed Murrow's program Sunday. It was wonderful to have you in the living room again, and we thought the program had considerable impact.

Like all of your many friends here on campus, we often think of you. Betty particularly asks that I join her in sending you an expression of our love and admiration.

Yours,

Harry Kalven, Jr.

Dear Leo:

My thanks for your thoughtfulness in sending us a copy of your collection of short stories. Through Hans I have been following the progress of the book with great interest and I am delighted to have it. It has the wit, irony, and brilliance we have come to expect of you, and I congratulate you on it.

I do hope you will be in Chicago one of these days soon, so we can proudly show the latest of the Kalven children--our still very new baby daughter.

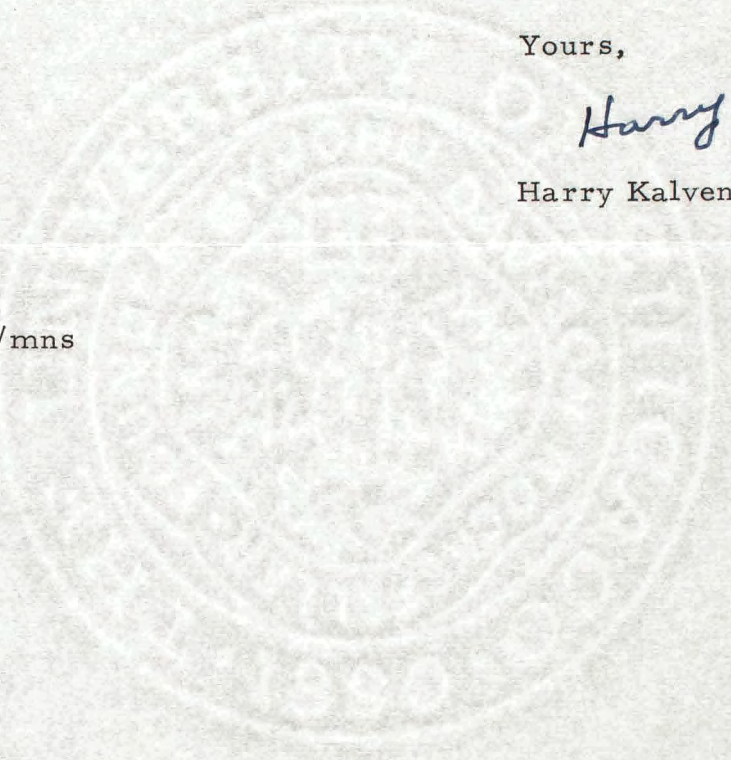

With all best wishes as ever.

Yours,

Harry Kalven, Jr.

Dear Harry:

Enclosed is a correspondence which is self-explanatory,
and which I am sending you for your information.

Are you admitted to the Bar in Illinois?

With kindest regards,

Sincerely yours,
