

A show of prints by Miss Lynn Woodward on display in Library.

October 19, 1965

A show of prints by Ms. Lynn Woodward, San Diego print maker and graphic arts instructor at California Western University, is currently on display in the Building 3 Library Gallery at the University of California, San Diego, through November 14.

The gallery is open free to the public. Hours are 8:00 a.m. to midnight Monday through Friday and 9:00 a.m. to midnight Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Woodward was born in Brooklyn, New York in 1942. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from San Diego State College in 1964 and is a member of the San Diego Art Guild and the Potter's Guild of San Diego. Exhibits of her work have been shown at the San Diego Public Library, the Old Globe Theater, San Diego State College and Desert Sun School in Idylwild.

Her work has also been included in the Southern California Exposition All Media show, 1964; Arts of Southern California-Prints XVI, Long Beach Museum of Art, 1965; All California Art in Cross Section, 1965; and the First Annual Carnation Art Festival, San Diego, 1965.

She has had one-man shows at The Art Cellar Gallery in San Diego and The Silver Whistle in Encinitas.