

MEDIA ADVISORY

April 8, 2004

Dolores Davies

EVENT: Press conference to introduce Marye Anne Fox, chancellor of North Carolina State University, immediately following action on her appointment as chancellor of the University of California, San Diego, by the Regents of the University of California.

DATE/TIME: 4 to 4:30 p.m., Monday, April 12, 2004.

LOCATION: Conference Room 111A, University Center. Note: Limited parking will be available for media on Myers Dr. in front of the Chancellor's Complex, University Center.

BACKGROUND: The University of California Board of Regents will take action on the recommended appointment of Dr. Fox during a 3 p.m. teleconference Monday, after which Dr. Fox will be available to the media. Joining her for the local appearance will be:

Robert C. Dynes, president of the University of California. David Miller, acting senior vice chancellor, UCSD.

Dr. Fox has served as chancellor of North Carolina State since 1998 and previously was vice president for research at the University of Texas at Austin. As one of the nation's most distinguished physical organic chemists, she succeeds former UCSD chancellor Robert Dynes, a physicist, who now serves as UC president. Her appointment follows an intensive national search held since Dynes' assumed the presidency in October.

DETAILS: Press feeds will be available for electronic media. Live webcast of the press conference can be viewed by visiting <http://ucsdnews.ucsd.edu> or the direct link at: <http://earth.ucsd.edu:8080/ramgen/encoder/newchancellor.rm>.
