the river 2 hours after. Had a good dinner. Pakoleans 2 fish steamed & rice, & packing price $1.00 started about noon & embarked the contract American at 12 midnight, then started & crossed the river at 12 the Am., took some meals and reached San Francisco

MAR.] Wednesday 10. [1852.

Some women were in the night. Had a decent meal of Bill Dumple for 50¢. came on board & after quite a row about the Capt. having sold my tickets more we left in the night.

Thursday 11.

We are now out to sea & weather worse than ever. I am drying my clothes which are wet & mouldy.

The whole line is an imposition from beginning to end. From the
the ship, poor fare, board on the isthmus at their four 15¢ per pound for baggage paying to get on the steamer & then the ten cent fares
