

Media Advisory - the Annual Muir College Pumpkin Drop

October 21, 1982

MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: ANNUAL MUIR COLLEGE PUMPKIN DROP

TIME: Noon

DATE: Friday, October 29, 1982

LOCATION: Muir College Quad CONTACT: Paul W. West, 452-3120

BACKGROUND: Each fall, in honor of Halloween, the students of Muir College at the University of California, San Diego drop the largest pumpkin they can find off the top of Tioga Hall, an 11-story dormitory. The pumpkin is hollowed out and filled with trick-or-treat goodies for the crowd watching below. This year the pumpkin, listed as 100 pounds, will be dropped by Pat Danylyshyn-Adams, dean of the Muir College residence halls.

For more information contact: Paul W. West, 452-3120

(October 21, 1982)