A covenant between the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches

By Aaron Gunbi

The Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches in PNG have signed a special Covenant during an ecumenical prayer service at St. Martin's Anglican Church in Boroko.

The covenant is the fruit of a dialogue that began in 1988 when the bishops of the Anglican and Roman Catholic Churches in PNG formed an Anglican/Roman Catholic Commission. The discussions were aimed at strengthening a growing respect for one another, discussing their differences and sharing their common faith in Christ. In 1995 this commission began to develop a covenant to express its vision and goal of full visible unity. The hope was that such a covenant would help the two communions to come to a better understanding of each other and to work together in pastoral areas.

The ceremony began with a prayer and then the two leaders from the Churches - Anglican and Catholic, Archbishop James Ayong the primate of the Anglican Church in PNG and Bishop John Ribat Bishop Delegate for Ecumenism and Inter-faith Dialogue and Bishop of Bereina Diocese restated the covenant message and then signed the document.

The two Churches stated that in the name of the Trinity they believe in God's will for the unity of humanity embracing Christ as the primordial sacrament. There have been many years of dialogue, co-operation and friendship between the communities and wish to respond positively to the pastoral needs of the people and be effective evangelizers of Christ to the nation.

The two churches affirm that: the foundation of true ecclesial unity in Christ is the unity of the Triune God; the centrality of their faith is Jesus Christ, the liberator and the Lord of the world;

The two churches also affirm that Christ desires to unify all races, languages and cultures of people into one Church; Grace is nourished by God's word through Scripture, the Sacraments and the working of the Holy Spirit within the Church. It is the grace of the Holy Spirit that is working to bring the Anglican and Roman Catholic communions into the fullness of ecclesial unity in Christ, and enabling them to agree on the Eucharist, Ministry and Authority, which now urges us to overcome the separation which exists in doctrine and ecclesial life, in order to achieve that full visible unity which Christ wills for his Church.

The two churches have now promised to work towards resolving any matter that hinders them in their unity. They also promised to discuss the validity of Anglican Orders, married priest and women's ordinations.

A year of celebration for Archbishop Hesse

For Archbishop Karl Hesse this has been a busy year of Celebration and recognition of service to the Church. Earlier on in the year Archbishop was invested with the British Empire Medal for services to the Church and the Community.

He has also been celebrating this year, 25 years as a bishop and 40 years of service as a priest.

These celebrations haven't just been limited to Rabaul or Papua New Guinea. His recent visit to Germany was also an opportunity to celebrate with his many friends and members of his family in his home country.

One of the greatest joys of the Archbishop to help cap off this year of celebration has been the creation of the new Diocese of Kimbe out of the Archdiocese of Rabaul something he has wanted for a long time.

Archbishop Hesse Jubilee in Germany. Archbishop has much to celebrates with friends and brother priests in Germany.

"Youth Bind Us in God's Love"

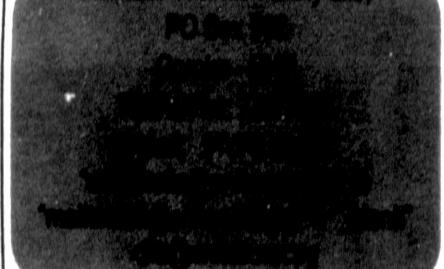

More than four hundred youth from the nineteen provinces of Papua New Guinea gathered at Vunapope for a weeklong pilgrimage, in July 2003. The historical occasion was a positive response to the General Assembly of the Catholic Church in Papua New Guinea.

The Pilgrimage Video is available from Catholic Family Life Office.

Catholic, Anglican and Lutheran accept each other's sacrament of baptism

By Aaron Gumbi

The validity of baptism in three of the mainline Churches - Roman Catholic, Anglican and the Evangelical Lutheran Churches have been an ongoing discussion among the leaders of these three churches for several years but they have now officially signed an agreement recognising each others baptism at an ecumenical prayer service at St Mary's Cathedral in Port Moresby.

The Primate of the Anglican Church in Papua New Guinea, Archbishop James Ayong, the Assistant Bishop of the Lutheran Evangelical Church Bishop, Kiage Motoro, and the Catholic Bishop Delegate for Ecumenism and Inter-faith Dialogue and Bishop of Bereina Diocese, John Ribat signed the document. The two communities agreed on the following:

- We confess together that in the sacrament of baptism the Holy Spirit truly incorporates us into Christ and into this Church, justifies and truly renews us, hence we are reborn to a sharing of divine life.

- We confess that baptism is the effective sign of our participation in the passion, death and resurrection of our Lord, whereby the baptized receives adoption by the Father and becomes a child of God, receives the gift of the Holy Spirit, obtains the forgiveness of sins, shares in Christ's eternal priesthood, participates in his messianic mission in the world, and becomes an inheritor of God's Kingdom.

- Therefore together we recognize the necessity of baptism and affirming our common doctrine and practice in respect to this sacrament, do declare:

- That we mutually recognize and respect each other's rite of baptism as contained in the Book of Common Prayer, the Lutheran Book of Worship and the Roman Catholic Rite of Baptism which require the Trinitarian formula and the pouring of water or immersion in water.

- That the rite of baptism performed by our churches is valid and therefore not to be repeated even conditionally.

- That, although our churches have always recognized the sacrament of baptism administered according to the New Testament, this present declaration constituted an act whereby our church mutually give guarantee of the validity of the Baptism administered by their respective ministers.

- That our churches accept the baptism of infants where the faith of the parents and of the ecclesial community supplies for the child's ability to profess a personal faith and represents a commitment to raise the child in the Christian faith.

- That baptisms administered by our respective ministers are to be duly recorded in the proper registry books, and certificates of baptism delivered to all who are baptized. The presentations of the said certificate of baptism shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the fact and validity of baptism. We agree, in cases of real doubt, to consult each other in these matters.

The three churches agreed to commit themselves to continue to pray, consult and work together to establish the fullness of their unity in Christ of which baptism is the foundation, the impetus and the pledge for their Christian calling.

Anglican Archbishop James Ayong signs the covenant.

However, this agreement on the validity of baptism does not mean if one is baptized from one denomination automatically becomes the member of the other two and can partake in the other sacraments. The signing does not also mean the three Church become one-there remain three.

About a hundred people witnessed the ceremony. In the group were the Archbishop of Port Moresby Sir Brian Barnes, Catholic co-chairperson of the International Anglican/Roman Catholic Commission for Unity and Mission, Archbishop John Bathurst of Brisbane, Bishop of Goroka Diocese, Francisco, professors and seminarians from the Catholic Theological Institute of Bomana, many religious and a few laity from each denomination.

In his homily the Archbishop of Brisbane said, "The challenge that lies before us all is to realize just how marvelous is the life given us in Baptism and just how baptism challenges us as Christians to become a sign to the world not of pride and division but of humility and communion in Christ, all of this as a sign of what all society is capable of becoming based on his vision, and of what the world can become if spurning divisions it becomes one body in Christ."

The leader of the Lutheran Church in PNG said it was a joy for him and his congregation to be part of this important development in the Church. "We had been doing practising this for a long time but now we have officially declared the validity of our baptism with our brother churches - Roman Catholic and the Anglican." The Anglican leader, Archbishop James Ayong too was happy and expressed similar thoughts.

Bishops attend 35th Humane Vitae meet

Steven Gimbo of Vanimo writes

Two Bishops from PNG were among a number of international speakers at a pro-life conference in Australia.

Bishop of Vanimo, Most Rev. Cesare Bonivento PIME and Bishop Emeritus of Alotau, Most Rev. Desmond Moore were two of the four international speakers whose talks were featured during the conference held recently.

Human Life International is the world's largest pro-life and pro-family organization and this conference was held to celebrate the 35th anniversary of Humanae Vitae, the prophetic message of Pope Paul VI.

Bishop Cesare Bonivento and Bishop Desmond Moore are members of Human Life International and staunch pro-life preachers. Bishop Cesare talked on The Priest and The Teaching of the Church and Bishop Desmond talked on Ministering To Those Hurt By Abortion.

Apart from them, Human Life International also brought some well-learned experts from other parts of the world and also from within Australia who talked on other issues that are affecting human life.

In conference, the speakers spoke about issues like Fighting The Global Depopulation Movement, The Two Pillars: Humanae Vitae and Veritatis Splendour, Contraception - Why Silence Kills, Ministering To Those Hurt By Abortion, The Supreme Principle of Morals and Evangelium Vitae 73, Contraception and The Mind Of Christ, Face to face With The Culture of Death, The Crusade of the 21st Century, Holy Orders and Matrimony, The Priests and The Teaching of the Church.

The Conference was held at the Chevalier Centre, Sacred Heart Monastery, Kensington, NSW, Australia.

Buildings at last for Mariannhill

For many years the block of land at the right side of the entrance to the campus of the Catholic Theological Institute Bomana has been lying vacant.

In fact, according to oral traditions, it had been reserved for the Mariannhill Missionaries more than 30 years ago. Finally in 2003, with the construction of the Mariannhill College the block has reached its destination. Architect of the building is Peter Mildner and the Homeguard Building Company has realized his designs.

The house has 12 rooms and the usual facilities for a religious community.

The connection of Mariannhill with the CTI (formerly Holy Spirit Seminary) is not new. Already in 1973-74 Fr. Frans Lenssen was a part-time lecturer in Scriptures. Later, in 1998-99 two CMM candidates were enrolled for Religious Studies. Last year, students already studying elsewhere and some newcomers were brought together and started studying at the Institute. The group was accommodated in a rented house in Gerehu, belonging to the St. Ann Sisters of Charity. At present six students with their rector Fr. Christian Blouin are temporarily living in the De La Salle College.

The Mariannhill Missionaries came to PNG in 1960 and were entrusted by the Holy See with the Vicariate of Lae. The Morobe province had just been erected as a new ecclesiastical territory, cut off from the mother mission of the SVD Missionaries in the Vicariate of Madang under Bishop Adolph Noser SVD.

The then small township of Lae was more or less an outstation of Madang, with the late Bishop Leo Arkfeld as parish priest. It was in Lae where this beloved flying bishop was trained as a pilot.

When the first CMM team of four priests, including the still active Fathers Anthony Mulderink and Henry van Lieshout, arrived in Lae in 1960, some Passionists Fathers had been in charge of the pastoral care of Lae, Wau and Bulolo for a short time.

Henry van Lieshout became bishop in 1967 and is still the first bishop of the Lae Diocese. In 1960, the Catholic Church in Morobe counted only 1800 Catholics, mostly expatriates. Meanwhile, according to the Catholic Directory, this number has increased to 30,000.
