SUNDAY SUNSET TOURS OF UCSD CAMPUS OFFERED

Visitors to San Diego and longtime residents alike are invited to join free 90-minute walking tours of the beautiful University of California, San Diego, campus offered every Sunday from Oct. 20, 1991 to April 26, 1992.

The "Sunday Sunset Tours" leave at 3 p.m. from the Information Pavilion on Gilman Drive.

Designed for adults who would like general information about the campus as an educational and cultural resource, the tours are sponsored by the UCSD Visitors Program. Highlights include undergraduate college campuses, theaters, galleries, recreational facilities, the Price Center, the Central Library, portions of the Stuart Collection and an overview of the science facilities.

Interested persons should call 534-4414 for reservations.

There is a minimal campus parking fee.
