

First annual open house held at UCSD - plans

May 10, 1966

The first annual open house at the University of California, San Diego will be held Sunday, May 22 from 12:30 to 4:00 p.m.

Highlight of activities at Revelle College will be the dedication of Harold and Frieda Urey Hall at 4:00 p.m.

Many facilities at the Torrey Pines campus, including dormitories, art gallery, library, laboratories, and classrooms will be open for inspection. Students will guide visitors through the campus and answer questions about UCSD.

Parking will be available in the main parking lot west of Urey Hall and in the lot adjacent to the Humanities-Library Building south of the campus.

Special entertainment will be presented in the main cafeteria and in the Humanities-Library auditorium. The aquarium-museum will be open at Scripps Institution of Oceanography.

Chancellor John S. Galbraith said the public is cordially invited to visit the campus and see the facilities which have been added in recent months.

(5-10-66)