CONTACT: Barry Garron, SDCCD 584-6540 or Winifred Cox, UCSD 534-3120

MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: News conference where UCSD Chancellor Richard C. Atkinson and San Diego Community College District Board President Gene French will announce and sign an agreement to guarantee City College, Mesa College and Miramar College students admission to UCSD as juniors upon completion of the associate degree. This is the first agreement of its kind in Southern California between a community college district and a University of California campus, and only the second in the state.

DATE: Friday, June 26, 1987

TIME: 1 p.m.

PLACE: San Diego Mesa College, 7250 Mesa College Dr., Room H-119 (map enclosed)

PHOTO OPPORTUNITIES: Following the signing ceremony with Chancellor Atkinson and Board President French, the first student from each community college campus to take advantage of the new program will receive a transfer agreement guarantee certificate and community college and UCSD T-shirts. The first students from Miramar College to receive the guarantee will be identical twins (one will be wearing a UCSD T-shirt and the other a Miramar College T-shirt) who graduated from Mira Mesa High School on June 16 and will attend Miramar College in the fall. Photo opportunities with students in science laboratories at Mesa College will also be available following the news conference.
