Blessing and opening of new cathedral - Kiunga

By: Sr. Zelia Cordeiro, SSpS and Fr. Rozario Menezes, SMM

Recently, thousands of people gathered in Kiunga, coming from 12 different parishes as well as from different countries to witness the faith and growth of the Catholic Church in Western province. Scores of people began their journey to Kiunga, some by plane, some by canoe, some by cars and others walking four to five days in the thick jungles of Western province to witness the blessing and opening of the new St. Gerard's Cathedral.

The Catholic Church in the province started in 1959 with just 300 Catholics. According to Bishop Gerald, the first Bishop of Kiunga, it was a very humble beginning with no permanent houses or churches.

Over the years the diocese grew in number and today the church buildings are too small and not sufficient due to the increasing number of Catholics, especially in Kiunga, where the diocese has its head quarters. This being the situation, people of St. Gerard's Cathedral parish, along with the Bishop, decided to build a new cathedral to replace the old St. Gerard's Cathedral. It looked like a dream, considering the geography of the diocese and the distance to get the necessary materials to Kiunga.

The celebration began with the procession from the old cathedral to the new cathedral. In the procession, liturgical symbols were passed from one tribe to another until they reached the door of the new cathedral, symbolizing that our faith was passed on to us from one generation to the next, this was done through different traditional dances.

According to Lewis Siware one of the organizers, the opening of the new cathedral brings new meaning, new life and new spirit into the lives of the people of Kiunga Diocese.

Bishop Gilles Cote, Bishop of the diocese, before blessing the cathedral, thanked the persons who made it possible to build this magnificent cathedral, among them were the managers of Star West and Tabubil Engineering who were present for the celebration and were given the opportunity of cutting the ribbon to declare the church open. Before the congregation entered the newly blessed church, the Faiwol tribe with their colourful bilas performed the traditional dance, symbolically chasing away the evil from the new building, which followed the Holy Eucharist. There were seven bishops and 27 priests at the altar for the solemn celebration of the Eucharist. During the homily bishop Gilles said that, the cathedral is not only the symbol of unity but also the manifestation of God's presence in the diocese, it is the house of God and we need to respect it and protect it.

- Each member of the diocese has contributed something or the other to the building of this beautiful cathedral.

Another major part of the celebration was, sharing of the food. As people came to take part in the celebration, some of them walking with a heavy bag, full of kaukau, sago, greens, brought enough food for everyone to eat, which was shared along with nine pigs. It was a touching experience to see that each one thought of the other as they shared food. After the food sharing, it was the time for speeches and entertainment.

Among those who spoke on the occasion were Bishop Gerard Deshamps SMM, former bishop of the diocese, Bob Danaya, governor of the province, Martin Tabi, MP, North Fly and Fr. Chris, a diocesan priest. All of them highlighted the importance of being faithful to the church each one belonged.

The traditional dances from different parishes went on till day-break, thus giving the finishing touches to the great celebration, which was the first of its kind in the whole province.

The special attraction inside the new cathedral is the huge Crucifix, carved by a local parishioner, and beautiful pictures painted on the columns and window frames by the people of Callan Services for Disabled Persons.

If the new cathedral has become a marvel to the people of the Western province it is because of the hard work of many people. Each member of this diocese has contributed something or other to the building this beautiful structure.

During the time of the apostles the church grew around those who were the official witnesses of Jesus. People devoted themselves to the apostles' instruction and the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and the prayers (Acts 2:42). May this New Cathedral be a great witness of the faith of the people of the Western province, and thus bring many closer to Jesus through our communal life.

May Christ be alive and active in the faith that we profess.

The opening and blessing of the Cathedral is available on video from Family Life, Box 592, Goroka, E.H.P. 411, at a cost of K30.00 - Format: VHS, DVD and CDR.

Workshop on Prevention of Mother to Child Transmission of HIV

By Lourdes Hummes, SSps

Concerned about the rapid increase of HIV/AIDS in our country, PNG, the National Catholic HIV/AIDS Coordinator Sr. Tarcisia, SSps, organised a second training on the Prevention of Mother to Child Transmission of HIV. This is a new program and is being implemented in several Health facilities in the Catholic Church.

This was a two-week training course for the prevention of transmission of HIV from mother to child.

Facilitators for the training were Dr. Ann Marie Doherty, Global Technical Advisor, from the Catholic Medical Mission Board, based in New York and myself, Sr. Lourdes Hummes, SSps, from the National Catholic Family Life Office. The medical part of the course was given by Dr. Ann Marie while Sr Lourdes gave the part on counseling.

Participants for the training were nurses. A total of 19 nurses attended the workshop. They came from nine Health facilities from the provinces of East New Britain, West New Britain, New Ireland, Simbu, Eastern Highlands and the National Capital District.

This was the second training of this kind and the participants, the nurses, were really eager to learn and to get to know all about this new program on 'Mother To Child Transmission'. It is really exciting to know that now there is a treatment available for the pregnant mother and also for the infant. In that way it is possible to reduce infection up to 50%.

The goal of the Catholic Medical Mission Board is to aim at 50% reduction of HIV infection to the infant through the program of Prevention Mother to Child Transmission of HIV.

The good news about this program is that there is a drug available for the treatment. The mother will receive one single dose of Nevirapine when she is in labor and the baby will get a single dose, 24 hours after delivery. With that treatment available children can be born with the hope to live.

After the two trainings that already happened, now there are trained counselors, nurses, midwives and doctors who are ready to help pregnant mothers and their families:

- To reduce the transmission of HIV from mother to child by up to 50%;
- To assist those who have tested HIV negative, to stay HIV negative;
- To support the life of parents and children with HIV;
- To prevent orphanhood;

United, we all strive to prevent and reduce transmission of HIV. This new program aims at reducing transmission from mother to child so that all children can be born to live.

Celebrating Religious Life in Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands

"We are evangelical communities, authentic witnesses who reflect the Melanesian face of Christ through our charisms."

Every year the leaders of Religious congregations in the Catholic Church meet to discuss how they can work together on different issues. This year, a year in which the Catholic Church is holding its General Assembly, the Religious too had their Assembly of Religious Life. The theme was "Celebrating Religious Life in Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands". The Assembly was held recently, over a weekend at Kefamo Conference Centre in Goroka. Eighty Religious: sisters, brothers, priests and Bishops, took part, half of them Melanesians, from all over our two countries.

During last year, the religious communities were invited to take part in a discussion paper that was part of the Assembly of the Catholic Church. The result of this discussion was the starting point for our Assembly. Bishop Douglas Young SVD was our facilitator and led us to formulating a Vision and Mission statement that will be our guide for the next few years.

OUR VISION – "We are evangelical communities, authentic witnesses who reflect the Melanesian face of Christ through our charisms."

OUR MISSION IS TO–

1. Become dynamic religious communities among all people especially the poor and the marginalised.
2. Foster life-giving communities through genuine community prayer and dialogue.
3. Strengthen initial and on-going formation founded on the specific charisms of each religious congregation and give professional skills training appropriate to the needs and signs of the times.
4. Give prophetic witness by:
  - deepening our holistic personal relationship with Christ;

specific inculcation programmes;

challenging structures where necessary;

renewal programmes and our prayer life.

5. Contribute to the growth and mission of the Church in living and sharing our charisms and continually educating all families about religious life.

On Sunday morning, the Catholic people of Goroka had prepared a very animated Eucharistic liturgy in the YC Hall with the Apostolic Nuncio as the main celebrant. At this the religious, joined by those from Goroka, renewed their vows. It was truly a joyous occasion.

That evening, again joined by the religious from Goroka, we had a festive meal and social which brought out a lot of hidden talents. We are so grateful for all that was achieved during that weekend.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church

Bishop Francesco of Goroka writes

LET'S continue the exploration of the faith taken from the Catechism of the Catholic Church.

The Church is One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic

These four qualities are interrelated and together describe the Church. The Church does not acquire these qualities but they are gifts given by Christ to the Church.

The Church is One

This definition of the Church has its foundation in the unity, which exists between the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. They are three persons but they are completely united with each other in the unity of the Godhead. God is one, and the Church is One because of her founder Jesus Christ. She is one because Christ wants to restore the whole of humanity as one body under the leadership of God. She is one because the Holy Spirit dwelling in her brings into reality the mind of God, the Father, entrusted to the Son to bring communion and unity.

There are also differences or diversities in the Church. These diversities cannot touch the true elements of unity. These are related to languages, cultures, charisms, conditions of life, but they cannot destroy the plan of God to bring unity to all people through Jesus Christ. Christ is the one who unites everyone. Differences, which may cause division, are the result of sinfulness among people, Christians included.

The clear sign of unity is first of all "charity, which binds everything together in perfect harmony" (Col 3:14). Unity is also expressed in the one profession of faith binding the Church in her fundamental understanding of faith. Unity is present in the liturgical celebrations, especially the sacraments. Unity is also expressed in the apostolic succession through the Sacraments of the Holy orders having in mind to maintain always the unity of the Body of Christ.

The One Church is that one entrusted by Christ to the pastoral care of Peter and the other Apostles and their successors.

Division in the Church

It is true that division among Christians wounds the Church, the Body of Christ. Over the centuries dissensions rose and communities became separated from one another. The causes for division may be a different interpretation about the Word of God, the sacraments, the liturgy or the structure of the Church. There may be some reasons for disagreement, but in many instances, pride or selfishness may be the cause for division.

Sometimes responsibility for division may be found on both parties involved. In some instances instead of a listening heart and a loving dialogue there were responses of condemnation and hatred.

Today there is already a different approach to the issue of division in the Church. There is a greater respect for the faith of others recognizing that "many elements of sanctification and of truth" (LG 8,2) are found outside the visible confines of the Catholic Church.

The words of Christ, during the last supper, asking, "that they may all be one. As you Father, are in me and I am in you, may they also be one in us" (Jn 17:21), resound as important today as they have been at the time of Jesus. It is on this unity that the credibility of the Church is manifested "so that the world may know that you have sent me" (Jn 17:21). Evangelization today has to develop also along the path of ecumenism that is the effort of unifying the Christians, so that the world may believe.

All Christians are invited to make an effort to move with greater desire towards the witnessing of unity. Few elements that are helpful in the process of unity are: a constant renewal within the Church which call for holiness; pray together in public or private especially for the unity of Christians; to be open towards a deeper understanding of each other's faith in dialogue; ecumenical formation and collaboration among Christians.

The Church is Holy

The Church is holy because Christ, who loves the Church as his bride, is holy. Christ sanctifies the Church by taking her as his Body and by giving her the gifts of the Holy Spirit for the glory of God. For this reason the Church is called 'the holy people of God' and her members are called 'saints'.

The activities of the Church are directed primarily to call people to believe in God and to offer them the means of sanctification.

This does not mean that her members are automatically saints, but they are on the way to become holy. In the members of the Church, sin is also present and a constant process of conversion and purification is needed in order to present herself to Christ as a spouse in full splendor of holiness.

Mary, the mother of Jesus, by the grace of God, is already holy and from her the Christians may ask for the grace to grow in holiness.

In the Church the grace of God is always present so to guide people towards holiness. Those people who are already in the glory of God are part of the holiness of the Church.

They are in communion and helping the 'holy people' who are still journeying here on earth, so that we may imitate them and call on them for their help and intercession before God.

A young hero for the youth of PNG

by Br. Emil Vake, SDB

Our young hero first saw the light of day on April 2, 1842, in a village called Riva di Chieri, some 14 kilometres from the city of Turin in Northern Italy. He was the second of 10 children. On the same day he was baptised with the name Dominic. His parents, Charles and Brigid Savio, were poor and hard working people from Castelnuovo d'Asti a little town about 12 kilometres from Turin.

His parents dearly loved their son and had only the idea to bring him up as a good Christian. Dominic's heart was a fertile soil for God's grace and blessings to take root, grow and radiate to others. When he was four, he learnt to pray his morning and night prayers from his loving mother who taught him how to pray and to love God.

At the age of five, Dominic had already learnt to serve Mass. Neither rain nor heavy snows could keep him away from the altar. The parish priest more than once found him kneeling on the church steps, waiting for the Church doors to open.

Closer to the Eucharist as an altar boy, he had still to wait two more years before he was allowed to make his First Holy Communion at the age of seven - a remarkably early age for those times. Dominic's resolutions made on the occasion were:

1. "I will go to Confession frequently and receive Holy Communion as often as my Confessor allows.

2. I will sanctify Sundays and Holy Days.

3. My friends shall be Jesus and Mary.

4. I prefer to die rather than commit sin."

These resolutions became the guiding light of his life. They were his whole program of sanctity and were faithfully kept.

On October 2, 1854 he met Saint John Bosco (more popularly known as Don Bosco) for the first time. "You are good material, Dominic," said the priest. "Well, Father, I'll be the material, and you'll be the tailor. Take me along with you, and turn me into a good garment for Our Lord." A bargain was struck. Dominic was accepted as a boarder at Don Bosco's Oratory.

The ordinary school life schedule of study, class, games and prayer soon gave way to something which troubled Dominic's mind. He heard Don Bosco preach that it is God's will that we become saints and that it is easy to be a saint. He wanted to become a saint quickly and did not know how to get started. Don Bosco gave him the secret to youthful sanctity in these slogans: "Cheerfulness, study and prayer" and "Do your ordinary duties extraordinarily well".

The formula worked magic in the heart of the boy. His holiness overflowed in the apostolic zeal that soon manifested itself among his companions. Also in those days, indecent pictures were damaging the hearts of the young. Dominic had the courage to work his way into a group of boys and destroy such pictures. On another occasion he exposed himself to physical danger in order to reconcile older boys who had decided to fight with stones. His zeal to do good urged him to found the Immaculate Conception Sodality, the purpose of which was to draw many young boys to Christ, especially through the frequent reception of the Sacraments and through devotion to Our Lady. Unfortunately Dominic's health was failing. On March 1, 1857 he left Turin. It was hoped that a holiday at home would do him good. Four days later Dominic had to take to his bed, and on March 9th he breathed his last. His last words were: "What beautiful things I see!" he was just 15 years old! His feast is celebrated on May 6th.

What can we learn from the life of this saintly youth at the age of 15? Dominic made holiness consists in being happy. And the secret of his happiness was his deep friendship with Jesus and Mary and a way of life that becomes ever more in harmony with that. This is what led him to resolve to die rather than offend God. But that was not all. He was convinced and courageous enough to stand against all forms of evil and sin. Today the Church presents Dominic Savio as a model for the youth of the entire world "in the joyful road to sanctity."

Dominic grew to be what he is because he came from a deeply Christian family. His family was the foundation of his holy life and his great desire to be a priest. This also challenges us to form deeply Christian families in PNG if we wish to form deeply Christian youngsters.

Well, we may say that we are in the new millennium and Dominic lived over a 1000 years ago. Yet we young people of PNG today greatly need youthful heroes like St. Dominic Savio.

Vunapope prepares for closing GA

While in Vunapope for the Youth Pilgrimage, Bishop Douglas Young, Bishop Deputy for the General Assembly, was able to meet with Fr Albert Tuat and other members of the diocesan staff responsible for local preparations for the closing gathering of the General Assembly scheduled for Vunapope in July 5-11, 2004. We were able to get help from Fr Vester and Mr Lazarus Sopalei who had just completed the successful pilgrimage to Rakunai.

Bishop Douglas began with a brief summary of the aims of the Assembly and the expectations of the CBC as to what it could achieve. The process itself should generate a spirit of renewal through participation. If our closing gathering is able to agree on a Vision for the Church of PNG at national level (with a sense of ownership, commitment, and passion), he said, that would be sufficient to make the gathering worthwhile. He went on to say that, if we can agree on a National Mission and Priorities, then we will have exceeded expectations!

The first item that came up for discussion was the division of labor for this event. Three bodies are involved: Secretariat for the General Assembly, responsible for management and materials, and accountable to the PrepCom and CBC. PrepCom, responsible for policy and direction and accountable to the Bishop Deputy and CBC Archdiocese of Rabaul, as host.

The following overall areas of specific responsibility were proposed:

Secretariat: overall (national) preparation and logistics, collation of responses to the discussion papers, national level invitations; Assembly Secretariat, travel to and from Rabaul.

PrepCom: program and conduct of business within the meeting room; draft proposals for Vision, Mission, priorities.

Archdiocese: local level preparations, travel within Archdiocese, liturgy and music ministry, accommodation for a maximum of 200 delegates, associated supportive, cultural and liturgical events (opening and closing ceremonies, plus evening prayers/lectures/consultations), local level official invitations.

It was agreed that at the opening gathering there should be five official delegates from each diocese: the bishop, the two who attended the opening and two others (presumably also including at least one more woman). In addition there would be the national bodies represented at the opening gathering with the addition of other national bodies that fell through the net the first time around. After this the meeting there was a brief evaluation of the youth pilgrimage of last year to see if there were lessons to be learned. Fr Vester and Mr Sopalei simply pointed out the importance of communication so that everyone knows what others are doing. They also stressed the value of developing and sticking to a checklist of tasks to be done. They provided their checklist to the secretariat. They mentioned also the need for a certain flexibility to be able to respond to unforeseen events - changed dates for school holidays, key people not turning up, sound system failing!

The meeting then looked at the timing of the event, especially as it coincides with the Feast of Blessed Peter To Rot. The decision as to when to celebrate, on July 7 (Wednesday, the middle of the gathering) or on Sunday, the liturgical closing of the Year of the General Assembly is left to the Archdiocese in consultation with the parish priest of Rakunai.

Finally the committee looked at the program, primarily to give the diocesan staff a clearer picture of what the closing gathering might look like. The Secretariat proposed:

Monday, July 5: arrival and opening

Tuesday-Friday: business, according to a synodal process, i.e. orderly discussing and responding to draft documents; evenings could be given over to public activities. There could be other public activities not involving delegates during the day.

Saturday: Public official closing and celebrations

Sunday: Solemn liturgical closing of the Year of the General Assembly (possibly solemn liturgical proclamation of the national vision and launching of a follow up activity)

The countdown has begun. The staff of the Archdiocese of Rabaul will have good opportunities to "practice" with the Archbishop's Jubilee celebrations, and the Diocesan and Regional Assemblies.
