

"Tartuffe" auditions to be held at UCSD Theatre

February 20, 1974

Open auditions for several roles in the University of California, San Diego production of Moliere's "Tartuffe" will be held at 7 p.m. Monday, Feb. 25, and Tuesday, Feb. 26, in the UCSD Theatre on the Matthews Campus.

Eric Christmas, UCSD professor of drama, will direct and play the title role in the production which will open April 19 for seven performances on campus.

For further information on the tryouts, individuals should contact the UCSD Department of Drama at 4S3-2000, ext. 2491.

(February 20, 1974)