FOUR GRADUATING SENIORS AT UCSD RECEIVE CHANCELLOR'S AWARDS FOR EXCELLENCE IN RESEARCH

Four graduating seniors at the University of California, San Diego have received Chancellor's Awards for Excellence in Undergraduate Research. The awards are made to one outstanding graduating senior in each academic division who has achieved distinction in undergraduate research or creative activity.

This is the first year of the Chancellor's Awards which will be given annually. 1997 Award recipients are:

Erika Iverson, bioengineering, School of Engineering, advised by Robert L. Sah.

Atisha Paulson, visual arts, Division of Arts and Humanities, advised by Babette Mangolte.

Greg Forest, urban studies and planning, Division of Social Sciences, advised by Keith Pezzoli.

Jun Sasaki, biology, Division of Natural Sciences, advised by Victor Vacquier.

The certificates of commendation signed by Chancellor Robert Dynes and a cash prize were presented to the students by their faculty research advisers during commencement ceremonies of their respective colleges June 14 and 15.
