

Mills Concert Series

The Mills College Performing Group which has just received a $15,000 grant from the Rockefeller Foundation, has announced its 1965-1966 concert series, "Music at Mills."

The monthly series in the Mills Concert Hall will open on October 4 with two contemporary works, "The Modern Temper" by Seymour Shifrin and "Time Cycle" by Lukas Foss, and works by Boccherini and Mozart.

In April, the Mills Group will give a series of four programs at the San Francisco Museum of Art jointly with the San Francisco Tape Center. The Tape Center and the Mills Performing Group who recently announced their merger, will also produce a program on the Los Angeles Museum's Monday Evening Series, March 21.

Nathan Rubin, violinist on the Mills Faculty since 1955, has returned after a two-year absence to assume directorship of the group.
