which we find in the life-giving values
of our cultures.*

*Bless our Assembly.
Help us to grow as your people,

Year of the General Assembly of the Church launched

Bishops, priests, religious and laity from all over the country recently converged on Good Shepherd Seminary, Fatima, in the Western Highlands for an important week of workshops and discussions. The week culminated in the launching of the Year of the General Assembly of the Catholic Church in Papua New Guinea at a Mass in Banz.

The Assembly, which will ultimately involve input from nearly all Catholics in PNG, has come about at the request of the Bishops who felt the time has come again for the Church to take stock of where it's at and where it's going as it moves into the third Millennium.

At an address given by His Excellency Archbishop Adolfo Tito Yllana, Papal Nuncio to Papua New Guinea and Solomon Islands said, "This General Assembly is a great event for the local Church here in this country. This is a special grace we receive from God as we walk through the first years of this new Millennium. This is an event that will trace the path through which the Church would tread the coming years."

The Assembly is very much the "fruit" of two important documents that the Pope wrote - Novo Millennio Ineunte (At the Beginning of the New Millennium) and Ecclesia in Oceania (The Garden to remember the General Assembly

To mark the occasion of the launching of the General Assembly of the Catholic Church of PNG, delegates from each diocese of the Church in the country were asked to bring something to plant in a special garden behind the Chapel at Good Shepherd Seminary, Fatima in the Western Highlands.

Church in Oceania). These documents urge the Church to put the grace of the Jubilee into action. The plan for this already exists and is to be found in the gospel and in the living Tradition of the Church but it must be translated into pastoral initiatives adapted to the circumstances of each community inculcated. The documents urge us to plan the stages of the journey ahead, along with neighbouring dioceses and this must be done in a spirit of communion, "finding ways to get people in rather than keep them out". Communio is to be the theme and aim of all evangelisation in Oceania and the basis of all pastoral planning. We must also pass on a belief and faith that is living and speaks to future generations.

The theme of the Assembly is: "We are Church, Alive in Christ". Bishop Doug Young, the bishop with overall responsibility for the implementation of the Assembly said, this theme - echoes the theme of the last self-study of the Church; "We are the Church". But whereas that "self-study", made over 30 years ago, "worked to strengthen the local Church in the Dioceses this self-study aims to strengthen the particular church of the nation."

The Assembly is to be a celebration of the life and unity of the Catholic Church in PNG and as such, it is hoped, it will become a source of renewal for the Church.

□ Sr Jillian Dance, a welcome visitor from Australia to the initial meeting of the year of the General Assembly.

Sr Jillian Dance delighted to represent Pastoral Planning Network of Australia at PNG Meeting

Sr Jillian Dance of the Federation of Josephite Sisters, who is a member of the national Pastoral Planning Network of Australia, was a welcome overseas visitor at the week-long meeting of the inaugural session of the General Assembly of the Catholic Church in PNG at Good Shepherd Seminary, Fatima, Western Highlands.

Bishop Doug Young SVD, who attended a meeting in October last year in Australia of the National Pastoral Planning Network, which is made up of all those involved in pastoral planning in Australia and New Zealand, invited the Network to send a observer to Papua New Guinea for the inaugural meeting of the General Assembly. Sr Jillian was "absolutely delighted to be chosen to be that person", she said.

Sister Jillian said she was very impressed with the Church here. "There seems to be a good level of commitment." There are obviously concerns, she went on to say, that have to be worked through such as the small number of women in responsible positions and the role of the laity in the Church but on the whole the Church in PNG seems willing to face these challenges and that's a healthy sign of a Church alive to Christ.

Sister Jillian described her stay here as having "seen communio enframed in this gathering (of the Assembly) with Jesus at the centre. Communio is alive and well in the Church in PNG", she said.

The Tri-centennial of the Foundation of the Daughters of Wisdom

February 2nd 1703 - on that memorable day, St. Louis Marie de Montfort gave the grey habit of the Daughters of Wisdom to Blessed Marie Louise of Jesus at the hospital for the poor in Poitiers, France. Three hundred golden years have now passed since that founding event of the congregation of the Daughters of Wisdom.

These centuries have been times of flourishing life mixed with moments of major crises. Less than a century later in 1789, the French Revolution shook the young congregation to its roots. The anticlericalism of that time encouraged violence against the Church.

Daughters of Wisdom were among the many martyrs who died for their faith. With a love stronger than death, a community of young sisters in Nantes, gave profound witness to their faith, singing a hymn of Fr. de Montfort as they were led to the guillotine to be beheaded.

The Sisters' untiring service of the sick and wounded, their closeness to the people and their courage in the face of death bore much fruit in the years that followed. The mission flourished, vocations were numerous, the congregation grew and prospered.

Another crisis was brewing at the beginning of the 20th century, reaching its peak with the laws of secularization. In France religious congregations could no longer operate schools or other charitable works. The fruits of the labours of so many Daughters of Wisdom developed over two centuries were once again threatened. Discerning the signs of the time, successive congregational leaders heard the call of Wisdom inviting them to respond to the needs of other far away countries. Daughters of Wisdom were sent forth on missions to Africa and North and South America. From the dying experience of the Sisters in France arose an international congregation spread around the world. Over the 300 years, about 18,000 sisters belonged to the Daughters of Wisdom.

Now, in 2003, the congregation celebrates its Tri-centennial. The newest life of the congregation is in Asia and Melanesia, where the Montfortian family: Fathers, Brothers and Sisters have taken root and the charism and spirituality of St. Louis Marie de Montfort continue to spread.

On the 2nd February 2003, 13 Daughters of Wisdom, from Canada, Papua New Guinea, Madagascar and England, living and ministering mainly in the Daru-Kiunga diocese, along with seven young Melanesian women in formation, celebrated this historic occasion in Kiunga with a Eucharist full of symbolism of the history of the congregation propelling it into the future. About 1000 parishioners and friends from neighbouring parishes joined them in giving thanks to the Lord for His many blessings. Food was shared and entertainment was provided by various groups.

Fr Henk Janssen CMM, Long time friend of PNG, dies

Fr Henk Janssen of the Congregation of the Missionaries of Mariannhill has died in the Netherlands. He was 66. His death came unexpectedly.

Fr Henk was born in 1937 in Beugen, Netherlands and was ordained priest in 1962.

After some years working in his home country he came to PNG in 1969 where he remained until 1999.

Fr Henk served the people of the Diocese of Lae for 30 years at the Pastoral Centre at 8-Mile, as Parish priest of All Saints, Bumbu and later as Parish Priest on Siassi Island. He also served three terms as superior of the Marianhill Congregation in Lae.

Fr Henk left the diocese of Lae several years ago because of health but remained very active in the Netherlands supporting his confreres in the Diocese of Lae.

In 2001 he paid a return visit to Papua New Guinea for six weeks.

Fr Henk was superior of the Dutch Province of Mariannhill at the time of his death.

His funeral will take place on Saturday 8th at the Mission House, St Paul's, Arcen, in the Netherlands.

Father P. Casserly dies

Coordinated Papal TV Broadcasts to the World had links to PNG Zenit News Agency

Marist Father Patrick Casserly, who helped coordinate worldwide TV broadcasts of key papal ceremonies, and who had worked in PNG in the 1970s, died after a long illness. The 59-year-old religious, who worked in the Pontifical Council for Social Communications, died on January 2 in a Rome hospital. "Father Casserly was an exemplary priest, devout and respectful, who with his profound technical knowledge, was able to enrich the work in the field of communications, inspired by the desire to transmit the Gospel message to many. His death is a great loss," said Archbishop John Foley, president of the Pontifical Council. Father Casserly also represented the Vatican in social communications initiatives of the Council of Europe, and at meetings of the International Catholic Union of the Press. Born in Kells, Ireland, he had previously been a missionary in Papua New Guinea. While here he established, over 26 years ago now, the Communications Institute at Kamaliki, Goroka. He also built a small studio, which now houses the printery, at the Catholic Theological Institute. He had worked in the social communications council in Rome since 1992.

New Director for National Pontifical Mission Societies

Fr Nick De Groot SVD has been appointed new National Director of the Pontifical Mission Societies in both Papua New Guinea and the Solomon Islands.

Fr De Groot replaces Fr Tim Elliot OFM who faithfully and ably held the job for over 15 years and who, because of age, asked to retire from the position.

One of the roles of the Director, said Fr Nick, is to promote mission awareness in the Church. Vatican II stressed that all the faithful are part of the mission of the Church and all have a role to play. Every year a collection is taken in all parishes throughout the country on Mission Sunday and this offering is sent to the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples in Rome as part of our church's commitment to the wider mission of the Church.

Fr Nick went on to say that the Church in PNG and the Solomons receives back from the Congregation for the Evangelization of Peoples each year considerable help in the way of financing, far beyond what we send them, for such things as Diocesan projects, seminaries, formation, helping when natural disaster strikes and so on.

Fr Nick's appointment is for five years.

Bishop urges prayers for border crisis

Steven Gimbo reports from Vanimo

A very concerned Bishop of Vanimo, whose diocese covers the crisis-affected Wutung village on the border, has asked for all the faithful to pray for those involved in the border crisis.

The Bishop, in a recent pastoral letter to all the faithful, said that the sad events that occurred on the border last December have caused a lot of concern and suffering to everyone.

Bishop Bonivento said that presently communications between PNG and Indonesia are at risk and families are separated. Wutung people are not free to go to their gardens and "they cry for help".

He also pointed out in his pastoral letter that the inhabitants of the township and the surrounding villages are worried that the situation may suddenly worsen. The border crossers living in Vanimo, he said, are living in fear.

The bishop said that fortunately the PNG authorities are monitoring the situation, and it is hoped that very soon they will make appropriate decisions.

"I am writing to all of you urgently asking for your prayers," he said. "We need to pray that the PNG authorities make the right decisions for the good of everybody. Decisions based on justice, love for peace and respect for human rights."

In his letter, the Bishop also asked people to pray for those who came to PNG looking for shelter as refugees and who are presently accommodated in the border-crossers camp in Vanimo. Most of these people, he said, are children, women and elderly people and because of "some imprudent information in the media over the past two weeks, they now live in fear of being forcibly repatriated and abandoned to their fate."

The Bishop stressed in his letter that everyone must pray so that the Lord will help all those concerned and affected by the border crisis.

The Catholic Diocese of Vanimo, through the Diocesan Caritas Office, also provided humanitarian aid to the border-crossers living at the Transmitter Border-Crossers Camp in Vanimo.

Catholics at Fatima show solidarity

At a gathering of the delegates of the General Assembly of the Catholic Church at Fatima in the Western Highlands a very moving gesture of the solidarity of the villagers with Catholics on Bougainville was shown.

In the course of the gathering the villagers presented to the Bishop of Bougainville a large sum of money that they had raised to be used to assist the rebuilding of the Church there.

The gesture, of which neither the delegates nor the Bishop were aware, was in the program, being unexpected, was very moving not least to Bishop Henk Kronenberg, the bishop of Bougainville. He asked his Vicar General, Fr Bernard Unabali to speak and acknowledge the gift.

In his talk, Fr Bernard, thanked the people of Fatima for their solidarity with their Catholic brothers and sister on Bougainville. Such an unexpected gesture, he said, meant a great deal. Fr Bernard also took the opportunity in his talk to thank all the people of Fatima and in the surrounding area that had remembered and helped Bougainville and its people in their prayers and through practical help during the crisis.

Werenfried van Straaten, the "Bacon Priest," dies - Founder of Aid to the Church in Need

Zenit News Agency

Father Werenfried van Straaten, the Dutch-born founder of the international Catholic association Aid to the Church in Need, has died. He was 90. Father van Straaten's funeral was held at the Norbertine Abbey of Tongerlo in Belgium, the Premonstratensian Abbey he entered at 27.

Werenfried van Straaten was born on Jan. 17, 1913, in Mijdrecht, near Amsterdam in the Netherlands. At one time he had intended to become a teacher like his father, and in 1932 he began studying classical philology at the University of Utrecht. But in 1934 he entered the Abbey.

Following a bout of tuberculosis, his doctor decided that the young Werenfried was no longer up to the rigors of pastoral or missionary work, and his superiors wondered whether he should leave the Abbey. In the end it was decided that he should remain in the monastery and work as the Abbot's secretary.

As such, he was also responsible for editing the Abbey newsletter "Toren" (Tower). At Christmas 1947 he wrote an article entitled "Peace on Earth? No Room at the Inn." In it the 34-year-old appealed for help for the 14 million homeless Germans, expelled from the Eastern territories, six million of whom were Catholics. The response was beyond all expectations and marked the start of the organization known today as Aid to the Church in Need.

One of the first things that Father

Werenfried requested of the Flemish country folk was bacon, for the famished refugees. He knew they had more food than money, and were willing to share what they had. Indeed, so much of the meat was collected that Father Werenfried became known as the "bacon priest."

From 1948 onward Father Werenfried worked closely with a monsignor who ran an organization for refugees and also a seminary for those expelled from the East, in the town of Konigstein, near Frankfurt. From Konigstein he launched his program of providing wheels for the many "rucksack priests" — Catholic clergy from among the displaced refugee population who sought to minister to their scattered flocks in war-torn Germany.

By 1950 he was financing the first "chapel trucks" — converted buses used as mobile churches to bring the Mass and sacraments to the scattered Catholic refugees in Germany. By then, Aid to the Church in Need had been active in Germany and Austria for six years.

The sickly young novice of 1934 had turned into a brilliant organizer, a powerful public speaker, and a highly successful popular missionary. He was making as many as 90 church appeals a month and cheerfully acknowledged begging to be his true vocation. Even in recent years he occasionally sat after Mass at the back of the church with his worn-out and by now legendary "hat of millions," collecting money for his cause.

It was in 1953 that his small handwritten newsletter, the "Mirror," first appeared. Today this bimonthly bulletin is published in seven languages, with a circulation of around 700,000.

In 1956, during the Hungarian Uprising, Father Werenfried travelled to Budapest and met Cardinal Jozsef Mindszenty, who had just been released from prison. It was the start of a flood of aid for the Church in Hungary. In 1959 Father Werenfried travelled through Asia, visiting the refugee areas and meeting Mother Teresa in her "House of the Dying" in Calcutta.

In 1960 his first book was published, "They Call Me the Bacon Priest."

In 1962 Father Werenfried attended the Second Vatican Council as an expert. He met 60 bishops from the Iron Curtain countries who were directly or indirectly receiving help from Aid to the Church in Need.

In 1965, during the Simba Uprising, Father Werenfried visited the Belgian Congo. A year later, together with a Belgian nun, Mother Hadewych, he founded the Daughters of the Resurrection, a religious community open to young African women with no formal education.

In 1964 Father Werenfried was appointed by Pope Paul VI as moderator-general of Aid to the Church in Need. In 1981, at age 68, he resigned this post but continued to write his "Mirror" newsletter and remained as founder and spiritual director to the organization, with special rights.

Br Francis Xavier Wins Radio Prize in Argentina

Brother Francisco Xavier del Corazon de Jesus Correa of the IVE congregation who was, until recently, based in the Diocese of Vanimo working in communications, has won an award in his native Argentina for his "Singaut Strong" radio program that he regularly produced while in Vanimo.

Each year, prizes are awarded to Catholic Argentine Communicators engaged in the production of programs and Communication Projects that serve the efficient proclamation of the Gospel in Argentina and the world.

Although the basic idea is to give the Award to an Argentine production in the Spanish language, the jury decided, by a unanimous decision, to award a special prize to Brother Francis Xavier, for the radio program "Singaut Strong" in the Pidgin English Language, because of its creativity, its content and the response of the local people.

DWU students insured

Chairman of the Papua New Guinea Vice Chancellors' Committee and President of Divine Word University, Fr Jan Czuba, SVD has expressed concern over the non-payment of insurance for students attending the four state-run universities.

This is in response to recent articles in the daily newspapers on non-payment of student insurance as revealed during the Parliamentary Public Accounts hearing this week.

Fr. Czuba said the continuing cutback on budget allocation for these institutions of higher learning is severely affecting important areas of spending and services, especially maintenance and supply of equipment. This will have negative impact on teaching delivery and the development of academia in PNG leading to a decline in the quality of services in Higher Education in our country.

In relation to this issue, the Administration of the Divine Word University, said Fr Czuba would like to inform all parents and guardians of students accepted to study at Divine Word University that all students are covered by insurance.
