

Dr. Lindsay to speak to Sigma Xi

May 12, 1967

Dr. George E. Lindsay, director of the California Academy of Sciences, San Francisco, will speak to the San Diego Sigma Xi Club Thursday, May 18, at 8:00 p.m., in the Otto Education Building, Balboa Park, club president Dr. Carl L. Hubbs, said today. The public is invited.

Dr. Lindsay will illustrate his talk, "Safari to Masailand," with lantern slides. The Society of Sigma Xi is a national honorary science organization whose purpose is to encourage original investigation in pure and applied science, Dr. Hubbs said. Membership in the Society exceeds 100,000 and is by nomination only.
