La Mesa, California, March 27, 1917.

The Trustees of the Helix Mutual Water Company, was called in La Mesa by the President, to consider the report of the committee, Messrs. Warren and Hawley, who were appointed to confer with the Cuyamaca Water Company, relative to their purchasing that portion of the Helix Mutual Water Company pipe line, situated about 1800 feet on the main line from the Eucalyptus Reservoir, and extending in an easterly direction about 1200 feet to the El Cajon Boulevard. The Committee reported that through Mr. Fletcher they had an offer of Two Hundred Fifty Dollars ($250.00) for the property; and that all users of water on that pipe line shall be released from further assessment by the Helix Mutual Water Company and that the stock certificates be canceled. On motion, the terms of the sale were accepted, and the committee was authorized to draw up a contract on the terms proposed.

Dear Sir:

The Cuyamaca Water Company have leased the 15" pipe line, to which you are at present attached, to the Lemon Grove Mutual Water Company; therefore, it will be necessary to move your meter to its former location at the Eucalyptus Reservoir at the earliest possible moment.

Very truly yours,

•
