

Department of Music to present concert

December 1, 1967

The Department of Music of John Muir College at the University of California, San Diego, will present another in its continuing series of Performer's Choice Concerts at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, December 9. The concert, to be held in the Recital Hall, Building 409, Matthews Campus, is open to the public.

Works to be performed include a choral piece by Folke Rabe, Harold Budd's "Noyo" for vibes, chimes and keyboard and "Aria No. 4" by Elliott Schwartz, all from contemporary literature, and the "Octet in F Major, Op. 166," by Franz Schubert.

The concert will mark the close of the fall academic quarter at UCSD and will coincide with, the John Muir College student-faculty barbecue and caroling party. Hot spiced cider will be served at the concert.
