

Jack Douglass accepts new appointment

March 20, 1968

Jack Douglass, a staff member of the Department of Pediatrics in the School of Medicine at the University of California, San Diego has accepted an appointment on a part-time basis with the UCSD Personnel Office.

In his new assignment, Douglass will assist the University Employment Office in locating, interviewing and placing qualified candidates, particularly those of minority groups, in jobs at the University. Positions are available periodically for secretaries, typists, library assistants, technicians, engineers and maintenance personnel.

In addition to his recruiting efforts, Douglass will also assist in the areas of employee promotion and job counseling.

Douglass attended the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in education and received a liberal arts degree from San Diego State College in 1964. He and his wife Jane have three children.
