- Unknown.

details: We were picked up while working in the fields, they took us to Otay Station. We were told that we were being checked out. We were placed in the corral, they opened the door and we thought they wanted us to get out, but what they did was push us back, hitting us with his baton. I was struck on my back.

Details: Particulares: I was picked up while working in the fields, they took us to Otay Station. We were told that we were being checked out. We were all placed in the corral. There were many men in there. One of the agents came over to the corral. He gestured for us to leave as he opened it. When he did open it, the men in the corral started to go forward. But then the agent took out his baton and started hitting us. I was struck on my back and side.
