

Listing of events scheduled for Krenek Festival

November 7, 1985

THE KRENEK FESTIVAL SCHEDULE

Friday, Dec. 6

4 p.m. Recital--Works by Krenek. Joann Regenhardt, voice; Ilana Mysior and Charlotte Zelka, piano; Lisa Smith, guitar. Room B210, Mandeville Center. Free. Reception following recital.

8 p.m. Thouvenel Quartet Concert--Works by Krenek and Robert Erickson. Mandeville Auditorium. Tickets: gen. admission, $5; stud., staff, sen., $3. Tickets are available from TicketMaster outlets and from the UCSD Box Office.

Saturday, Dec. 7

10:30 a.m. Papers and Reminiscences--Krenek As Teacher. John Stewart, provost of Muir College and Krenek's biographer; composer Wilbur Ogden, and other students, in the East Room of Mandeville Center. Free. Coffee and croissants.

3 p.m. Concert--Works of Krenek. Michael Ingham, baritone; Elizabeth Manning, soprano; Janos Ngyesy, violin; Caroline Horn, piano; University of California, Santa Barbara instrumentalists, Thomas Nee, conductor. Room B210, Mandeville Center. Free.

6 p.m. Dinner. A banquet in honor of Krenek will be held in the North Dining Room on Muir Campus. The cost is $10.50 per person. For reservations and information, call 452-3583.

8 p.m. Concert--a Musical "Festschrift" for Krenek by His Students. Approximately 20 miniature musical pieces, three to four minutes in length and written especially for Krenek by his students, friends and colleagues to celebrate his 85th birthday. Performed by UCSD faculty and associates. Mandeville Center Recital Hall. Free.

Sunday, Dec. 8

10:30 a.m. Video Program. Video tape of Krenek opera, "Ausgerechnet and verspielt; video tape of Krenek at UCSD. Room B210, Mandeville Center. Coffee and croissants.

3 p.m. Concert--Orchestral Works of Krenek, Gladys Nordenstrom, Will Ogdon, George Pene and Glenn Glasow. La Jolla Civic-University Orchestra, conducted by Thomas Nee. Mandeville Auditorium. Tickets: gen. admission, $5; stud., staff, sen., $3.

Tickets available at UCSD Box Office. A reception will follow in the East Room, Mandeville Center.

(November 7, 1985) For more information contact: Alixandra Williams, 452-3120