

Ceramic wares and artwork will be on sale here

November 23, 1977

Ceramic wares and artwork will be exhibited by the University of California Crafts Center during its Holiday Ceramics Sale Thursday, December 1, and Friday, December 2, at the center on the University of California, San Diego campus.

Crafts Center students will be displaying several hundred works which include a variety of ceramic cups, vases, planters, casserole dishes and novelty pieces. Proceeds from the sale go to the students with a portion of the sales going to help finance the center's ceramic program. The center is a non-profit organization with art course offerings for the general public.

The Crafts Center facilities are located on the UC San Diego campus between the Student Center and the Gymnasium. Hours of the sale are 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. For information about the display or course offerings call 452-2021.

For information contact: Charles R. Colgan, 452-3120

(November 23, 1977)