

Fall Quarter calendar of events

September 12, 1980

CALENDAR OF EVENTS FALL QUARTER 1980 AT UC SAN DIEGO

September 22 - Fall quarter classes begin.

September 25 - 8 p.m. Chamber Music Series, Mandeville Auditorium. Tokyo String Quartet will perform works by Mozart, Beethoven and Mendelssohn. Series tickets (for five concerts), general admission: $45 and $40; UCSD students: $17. Individual tickets, general admission: $10 and $9; UCSD students: $4.

September 25 - 8 p.m. "a journey/MEDEA/a dream," Mandeville Recital Hall. Drama department production, recently presented at the Edinburgh Festival in Scotland, was developed from the various versions of the Medea legend. Performed nightly through September 28. General admission: $4; students: $2.

September 26 - Noon H.P. Lovecraft's Magical Medicine Show, Revelle Plaza.

September 26 - Noon "Bill Fontana/Sound Recycling Sculpture: Incoming Wavefronts Meeting a Shape of Land Over Time," Mandeville Art Gallery. Fontana's sound sculpture will be created from a continuous simulcast by eight microphones placed along the La Jolla shoreline. A reception for the artist is scheduled from 7-9 p.m. September 26, with a performance by the artist at 8 p.m. Gallery hours are noon to 5 p.m. Sunday through Friday and 7-10 p.m. Wednesday. Exhibit open through October 17.

September 27 - 8 p.m. La Jolla Civic/University Symphony, Mandeville Auditorium. Thomas Nee will direct a program of Bach, Haydn, Vivaldi and Dorroba, with guitarist Celine Romero, soloist. General admission: $4; students: $2.

September 28 - 3 p.m. See 8 p.m., September 27, for details.

October 6 - Noon "Contemporaries: A Selection of Portrait Photographs," East Room, Mandeville Center. A collection of portrait photographs by late La Jolla photographer Bern Schwartz. Exhibit includes portraits of Margaret Thatcher, Laurence Olivier, C.P. Snow and Margot Fonteyn. Open from noon to 6 p.m. daily except Mondays through October 30.

October 8 - Noon "Adventures in Research," International Center. Dr. Harding Smith, associate professor of physics, will discuss research activities at the UC San Diego Center for Astrophysics and Space Sciences.

October 9 - 8 p.m. Jazz Cabaret, Mandeville Auditorium. Jeannie Cheatham, vocals; Jimmy Cheatham, trombone; Cecil Lytle, piano; Bert Turetzky, bass, and legendary jazz artist Red Callendar, bass and tuba, will perform. Admission is free to Wednesday Evenings at the Mandeville Center subscribers. General admission: $5.

October 10 - 8 p.m. "Change the World: It Needs It," Mandeville Auditorium. Songs by Bertolt Brecht, Kurt Weill and Hann Eisler will be presented by West German performer Ina Wittich. General admission: $5; students: $3.50. Performance repeated October 11.

October 14 - 8 p.m. Atomicafe, Mandeville Recital Hall. Forum for student composers and performers.

October 17 - 8 p.m. Chamber Music Series, Mandeville Auditorium. Guarneri String Quartet will perform works by Beethoven, Bartok and Sibelius. General admission: $10 and $9; UCSD students: $4.

October 19 - 8 p.m. "Thurber II," Mandeville Auditorium. William Windom returns with a new one-man show based on the life and writings of James Thurber. General admission: $6.50; students, UCSD faculty and staff: $5.50; UCSD students: $4.50.

October 23 - 8 p.m. Lionel Hampton and Orchestra, Mandeville Auditorium. "King of Vibes" and his 11-member band will perform. General admission: $7.50; students, UCSD faculty and staff: $6; UCSD students: $5.

October 26 - 7:30 p.m. Daycare Center Benefit Concert, Mandeville Auditorium. Folksinger Sam Hinton, pianist Cecil Lytle, soprano Carol Plantamura and singer Mary Skelly will perform, with Jim Skelly providing narration in this concert for the UCSD Daycare Center. General admission: $5; students; $2.50; admission is a tax-deductible donation.

October 29 - 8 p.m. Violin, Percussion and Dance, Mandeville Auditorium. Janos Negyesy, violin, and Daryl Pratt and J. Blueston, percussion, will perform with the International Society for Art Experiment. Admission: $1.

November 1 - 8 p.m. Twyla Tharp Dance Foundation, Mandeville Auditorium. Renowned dance troupe will perform the dances of Twyla Tharp, one of this country's most exceptional young choreographers. Performance repeated November 2 at 8 p.m. General admission: $10 and $8; UCSD students: $7 and $5.

November 5 - 8 p.m. Three Beethoven Sonatas, Mandeville Auditorium. Pianist Cecil Lytle will perform "Moonlight Sonata," "Sonata No. 32 in C Minor" and "Sonata No. 27, Opus 90."

November 11 - 8 p.m. Atomicafe, Mandeville Recital Hall, Forum for student composers and performers.

November 12 - 8 p.m. Bill Monroe and the Bluegrass Boys, Mandeville Auditorium. Father of country bluegrass and his band will perform. General admission: $6; students, UCSD faculty and staff: $5; UCSD students: $4.

November 13 - 10 a.m. New Music Rises in the West, Mandeville Center. Two-hour demonstration of contemporary music techniques for San Diego City Schools students. Public is welcome. Phone 452-3229 for details.

November 13 - 8 p.m. "A Wilder Evening!" UCSD Theatre. Alan Schneider will direct three one-act plays by Thornton Wilder: "Pullman Car Hiawatha," "The Long Christmas Dinner" and "The Happy Journey to Camden and Trenton." Also performed November 14-16 and 19-22. General admission: $5; students: $3.50.

November 16 - 8 p.m. Pablo Casals Trio, Mandeville Auditorium. This widely acclaimed trio will perform works by Beethoven, Ives and Ravel. General admission: $5.50; students, UCSD faculty and staff: $4.50; UCSD students: $3.50.

November 18 - 10 a.m. Computer-Made Art and Music, Center for Music Experiment, Building 408, Warren. Two-hour workshop for local high school students. Public is welcome.

November 19 - 8 p.m. Wednesday Evenings at the Mandeville Center, Mandeville Auditorium. SONOR, contemporary music ensemble directed by Bernard Rands, will open the Wednesday Evenings series. Proceeds from the series, which features contemporary and little-known traditional works, are applied to the Department of Music scholarship fund. Tickets for the six-concert series cost $20, General admission: $4.50; senior citizens: $2.50; students: $1.50.

November 21 - "What's Cooking?" Center for Music Experiment, Building 408, Warren. Weekend of music, dance, visual arts and literature. Phone 452-4383 for details.

November 22 - 8 p.m. "Song and Symphony," Mandeville Auditorium. Soprano Carol Plantamura will perform with the La Jolla Civic/University Symphony, under the direction of Thomas Nee. General admission: $4; students: $2.

November 23 - 3 p.m. See 8 p.m., November 22, for details.

November 24 - 8 p.m. Quarter-End Gala Festival, Mandeville Auditorium. UCSD Gospel Choir and Concert Choir and jazz, wind and chamber ensembles to perform. General admission: $1. December 6 Quarter ends.

Tickets are available at the Central Box Office, 452-4559, unless otherwise indicated. If ticket prices are not listed, the event is free.

For more information contact: Public Information Office, 452-3120

(September 12, 1980)