

Chicano Studies Program to present series of five lectures; part of a class taught by Prof. Ramon Gutierrez

May 5, 1983

The Chicano Studies Program will present a series of five lectures, open to the public, during the spring quarter at the University of California, San Diego.

The free lectures are actually part of a class, "Race and Ethnicity in American Life: The Chicano and the Mexican-American," taught by Prof. Ramon Gutierrez.

The lectures will be held from 1-1:50 p.m. in Third College Lecture Hall 104.

The lecture schedule:

Friday, May 13: "Chicanos in the U.S. Class Structure," Thomas Almaguer, professor of sociology, UC Berkeley.

Monday, May 16: "El Bracero Al Pocho Al Chicano: Perspectives on the Chicano in Contemporary Mexican Cinema," David Maciel, professor of history, University of New Mexico.

Friday, May 20: "Unemployment and Undocumented Mexican Immigration: Current Issues," Esteban Flores, post-doctoral fellow in sociology, Chicano Studies Research Center, UCLA.

Friday, May 27: "The Zoot Suit Riots: The Psychology of Symbolic Annihilation," Mauricio Mazon, professor of history, USC.

Friday, June 3: "Bilingual and Bicultural Education in the 1980s," Raymond Buriel, professor of Psychology, Pomona College.
