SEASONS GREETINGS from OCEANIDS

FACULTY BALL ON DECEMBER 3

New members of the University academic community will be welcomed at the annual Faculty Ball to be held in Revelle Commons on Saturday, December 3 from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

Old and new faculty, academic staff members and their friends will enjoy dancing to the music of Vic Benson's eight-piece band with vocalist and refreshments at a cost of $7.50 per couple. Formal dress is optional. Proceeds will go to the Special Job and Scholarship Opportunity program.

Invitations have been mailed but information on the availability of reservations at this late date may be made by calling Miss Misti Wolfington at 453-2000, Ext. 1201.

Joining Chancellor and Mrs. John S. Galbraith in organization and planning of the affair are Professors and Mmes. Walter Kohn, Hugh Bradner, William McGill, S.H. Baron, Ted Forbes, Herbert York, John Stewart, Roy Pearce, Mmes. Paul Libby and William Nierenberg and Miss Misti Wolfington.

OCEANIDS? WHAT EXACTLY IS AN OCEANID ???

This is a question that people keep asking. So our president, Louise Arnold thought we ought to define it.

The name was first suggested by Dr. Dennis Fox, as an appropriate title for oceanographic wives when the group was just being formed.

Following are definitions from several well-known authorities.

According to Winston's Dictionary:

Oceanid (o-se'a-nid) n. Greek Mythology. an ocean sea nymph; any of the daughters of the sea god Oceanus by his wife Tethys. Oceanus was the first sea god, father of the Oceanids and the streams of the earth. (Continued on page 4)

REMEMBER December or ELSE !

Remember to pay your $3 OCEANIDS dues (which includes your BEAR FACTS) or renew $2 subscriptions, that is, by December 30, or else we will not be able to continue sending BEAR FACTS, much as we'd like to. These funds are BARE FACT's sole means of support and printing costs continue to rise, though our dues and subscription fees have remained rather constant. So we urge our readers to help us by sending checks, payable to BEAR FACTS, to Ve Worrall, 8526 Sugarman Drive, La Jolla (453-0449).

ENSENADA UCSD SOCCER GAME CANCELLED

We are sorry to report that the annual UCSD visit and soccer game with the Escuela Superior de Ciencias Marinas, Universidad Autonoma de Baja California has been cancelled. Call the Office of International Education, 453-2000, Ext. 1936 or 7, for further information.

OCEANIDS CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR UCSD CHILDREN

Children of the University Family can look forward to a festive Christmas party this year, complete with puppet show, exhibition folk dancing and refreshments.

Sponsored annually by OCEANIDS, the Christmas party is scheduled Tuesday, December 20, from 4 to 5 p.m. in the Humanities-Library Auditorium. This year's chairman is Judy Wesling.

The program will start with the puppet show, KASPER AND HIS ADVENTURES, to be presented by Ingrid Pfeiffer, a member of the San Diego Puppet Guild. The show features hand puppets from Germany, is characterized by the European tradition of puppetry, and encourages audience participation in the action.

Intermission will be followed by the folk dancing, which is being arranged by Ellen Smith, and the party will conclude with the serving of refreshments.

The Christmas party is free and open to all children of UCSD faculty, staff and students. This year they will have as their guests children from Margaret Rudnick's La Jolla Community Educational Service School.

HONORS

Noted Ichthyologist Dr. Carl L. Hubbs, professor emeritus at Scripps Institution of Oceanography, was awarded the Fellows Medal of the California Academy of Scientists last month. He is the third to receive the honor.

JAPANESE - ENGLISH SPEAKING VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Our Welcome Chairman, Mildred Hutchinson, would like to find Japanese-English speaking volunteers to welcome newcomers from Japan. This contact could be especially helpful to those with little understanding of English. Call 273-5532.

THE CRAFTSMEN IN SAN DIEGO

by
Rhoda LeBlanc Lopez

Among the many artist-craftsmen working in the San Diego area are some of the finest craftsmen in America, people who exhibit nationally as well as abroad.

One could write a book dealing with the definitions of craftsman and artist-craftsman, but for the sake of brevity, let us say that the craftsman is technically competent, even to the point of exquisite skill. The artist craftsman goes further, incorporating with his skill the rarer qualities of creativity, taste and visual excitement. He is first, last and always a designer.

His art is less a product than an experience, satisfying a need to create an expression of himself, a statement of integrity, a search for truth. For the buyer of his product, there is satisfaction exceeding the purpose of the piece, as in a teapot which becomes an art object rather than a receptacle for tea.

There are also many Sunday craftsmen in this area, some of whom are on a high artistic level. Their amateur status is determined by class participation, where some of the processes of their work take place under supervision. And one does not ignore the gifted student.

A good place to see the work of the last-mentioned craftsmen is at the University of California Extension School Christmas Sale, December 3 at the La Jolla Museum. Here ceramic delights and duds are on sale from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at low to reasonable prices.

The professionals of the area show in shops and galleries in La Jolla, Bird Rock, Mission Valley and San Diego. Many of these fine craftsmen belong to the respected Allied Craftsmen, which opens a sale show December 4 at Orr's Gallery in San Diego. This is a take-out show; that is, if you buy you take it with you, so if you'd like to see it complete, come opening day. This type of show is more crowded than A.C.'s usual exhibits, but very satisfying for shopping for the stunning wood, enamels, mobiles and sculpture, ceramics, silver, weaving and photography of this outstanding group of craftsmen.

The Potters Guild, Balboa Park, offers year 'round exhibits of ceramics by artists in a co-op set up. The National Invitational Enameling Exhibition, which includes several local artists, is on view at San Diego State College till December 8.

So much more could be said, about individual craftsmen and the nature of their work. In some private studios where commissions for public buildings and other types of work are under way, the work sometimes, not always, can be seen by appointments with the artists. Classroom situations also offer opportunity to watch work in progress - again, by appointment.

CLAY PERRY

Members of OCEANIDS extend their deepest sympathy to the family of Clay Perry who succumbed on November 18.

MEMORIAL TO DOROTHY HEDRICK

OCEANIDS has presented to the UCSD Record Library a set of records in memory of Mrs. Dorothy (Leonard) Hedrick, president of OCEANIDS in the year 1960-61.

This memorial is Volume 7 of the Complete Bach Organ Works as performed by Carl Weinrich. It is hoped that many OCEANIDS will avail themselves of the chance to listen to this music, which was a source of much enjoyment for Dorothy.

JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER OF LA JOLLA

The Jewish Community Center of La Jolla offers a varied program of activities, according to Howard Salzburg, president for the 1966-67 year.

The next meeting is scheduled for Monday, Dec. 12, at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gross, 5892 Soledad Road. Bernard Wind, former education director of Temple Beth Israel, will discuss "Origins of Christianity. For more information, call Mrs. Jerome Shaw at 454-1007.

Other programs include a Teen Club with activities for the young set including folk dancing, which meets on alternate Wednesday evenings and a discussion group under the direction of Prof. Jayson Saunders, on alternate Saturdays. Call Mrs. A. Harry Malin 247-1155 for times and places.

A Hannuka celebration is planned for December 8.

POINSETTIA FIELDS ARE BLOOMING

Miles of crimson poinsettias provide a spectacular view to travelers along Highway 101, at the northern entrance to San Diego County this month. The holiday flowers will be in bloom from December through January, covering 400 acres of rolling hillsides which border the Pacific Ocean. San Diego produces 90 per cent of all commercially grown poinsettias and this section is part of the largest such ranch in the world.

VACANCIES AT INTERNATIONAL NURSERY SCHOOL

Mrs. David Piper reports that there are 10 vacancies at the International Cooperative Nursery School.

Classes are held on Tuesdays and Fridays from 9 to 11:30 a.m. at the University Lutheran Church on La Jolla Shores Drive. Children from three years to kindergarten age are eligible and there is a charge of $25 per month. For more information call Mrs. Piper at 453-2765.

DID WE MISS SOMETHING?

Is there something we forgot? Or didn't include that you'd like to see? Remember, BEAR FACTS is by, for and mostly about OCEANIDS and if there is anything you would like included please let us know. Call Tanya Holm-Hansen, 453-2576, for Editorial items and Adelaide Booker, 453-4936 for Calendar items. (Carolyn Halkin, our regular Calendar editor is resting after the recent birth of a baby boy.)

CHRISTMAS

IN LA JOLLA AND SAN DIEGO

Christmas is for children, and December activities in the La Jolla-San Diego area promise a festive month for children here.

There are puppet shows, ballets, parades, Posadas, national celebrations and even a junior tennis tournament, all of which are listed in our BEAR FACTS Calendar section of this issue.

In La Jolla, the Christmas season officially opens with the Santa Claus Parade on December 9 sponsored by the Town Council, complete with the MCRD and Marching Chargers bands, majorettes, horses, drill teams and Santa Claus who will light the Christmas tree on Wall and Girard Streets.

Don't forget the OCEANIDS Christmas party for UCSD children on December 20, the La Jolla Art Museum's program for children, the Palomar Planetarium show, the unusual Christmas tree in Balboa Park's Children's Zoo and the many musical events listed in both Special Christmas Events and Music and Dance in the Calendar.

LA JOLLA CIVIC ORCHESTRA ASSOCIATION

The La Jolla Civic Orchestra Association is beginning its 12th season and continues to support the main purposes and principles upon which it was founded.

As a quotation from the program of its first concert given December 11, 1956, states,

"The purpose of the orchestra is to promote music on the community level: to give concerts, to encourage the study of music and participation in its performance, to give local musicians the opportunity to perform and be heard both as ensemble players and as soloists, and to foster music appreciation in the whole community."

The organization has found new ways to further its aims and objectives and is constantly striving to increase its impact and effectiveness.

We now sponsor the La Jolla Civic Chorus and the Young Musicians Talent Foundation, with a competition each year for promising young instrumentalists, pianists, vocalists and composers. Awards go to the winners, as well as an opportunity to appear with the orchestra as soloists.

We invite participation in the orchestra and chorus by all who are capable musicians and have a desire to have an outlet for their abilities. The orchestra rehearses every Wednesday night from 7:30 to 10 at the Bird Rock Elementary School and the chorus rehearses Tuesday at 7:15 p.m. at the Bishops School.

For non-singing, non-playing music lovers there are six outstanding concerts scheduled in Sherwood Hall for the current season which can be enjoyed by members of the Association.

This month's special Christmas program will feature the La Jolla Civic Chorus under the direction of

FOLK DANCING FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS

A children's folk dancing class was formed last month for youngsters from the third to sixth grades.

The group meets Thursdays from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the auditorium at Torrey Pines Elementary School, with Ellen Smith as teacher.

Charges are 50 cents per child with $1 maximum per family for each session. For further information call Mary McIlwain at 453-2428.

The University Folk Dancers is open to all those in the University family interested in joining.

The group meets every Tuesday evening from 8 to 10:30 in Building 10, Matthews Campus. There is a charge of 25 cents per person.

ALLIED CRAFTSMEN'S CHRISTMAS EXHIBIT

The 20th Annual Allied Craftsmen's Christmas Exhibit looms as an exciting event on the holiday horizon for both gallery "doers" and Christmas shoppers.

The show will open on December 4 with a reception open to the public from 5 to 9 p.m. at Orr's Gallery, 2202 Fourth St., San Diego. It will close December 23.

This year's special feature will be tree ornaments designed especially for the show by well-known local craftsmen, already noted for their creative ingenuity and versatility.

Highlights will include ceramic birds by Jean Balmer, gold jewelry by Ruth and Toza Radakovich, a ceramic fountain by Rhoda Lopez, instructor at the La Jolla Museum of art and a contributor to BEAR FACTS this month, ceramic whistles with a pre-Columbian influence by Walter Chapman, instructor at Mesa College; and Christmas figures executed in baker's clay by Barbara Waszak, famed for her colorful stitchery and weaving.

Additional contributors Barney Reid, Jackson and Ellamarie Woolley and Kay Whitcomb are represented in the current Enamel Show at San Diego State College

Prices start at around $2 and everything is for sale. We have been advised to get there early.

Patricia Smith at 4 p.m., while the evening concert will be conducted by Herbert Weiskopf with cellist Wendy Brennan as soloist.

Future concerts will feature Young Musical Talent Foundation competitors on Jan. 15, 1967; Hans Lampl, conductor and Christopher Parkneing, classical guitarist on February 12; conductor Henry Kolar and winners of the Young Talent Competition, April 2; and Robert Cole, conductor and pianist Elizabeth Marshall with the Civic Chorus on May 14.

Future concerts will feature Young Musical Talent Foundation

For information on prices and memberships call the association at 454-0068. Members of the University Family and OCEANIDS are cordially invited to join us as participating or sponsoring members.

-- J.W. Tippetts, President

INTERESTED IN NEW INTEREST GROUPS?

Those interested in making music at any proficiency level - duets, chamber music, etc - please call Interest Group Chairman Marjorie van Andel, 459-2806.

Mothers of very young children, are you interested in forming an interest group for children? It has been suggested that such a group be formed to meet every month, with a film, puppet show or other entertainment feature for each gathering. Anyone interested may call Marjorie van Andel

BADMINTON, ANYONE?

A group from UCSD plays badminton every Thursday night from 7 to 9 o'clock at the La Jolla High School gym. All those interested are cordially invited to participate without charge. Both singles and couples are welcome.

WHAT IS OUR DEADLINE? That's a good question. It has been rather elastic, stretching accommodatingly to include events we consider important to our readers. However, due to technicalities brought about by the holidays, the January issue deadline will be hard and fast. Please get all your news in before December 18. We will be unable to accept anything after that date.

SORRY... Due to space restrictions, we are unable to print our description of exotic fruits and vegetables that can cross the border into California. It will be published next month.

OCEANIDS (cont.)

According to Webster's Dictionary: (Gr.Okeanis, -idos) Gr. Myth. An Ocean nymph, one of the 3,000 daughters of Oceanus and Tethys.

Encyclopaedia Americana: Greek mythology, a class of nymphs, daughters of Oceanus and Tethys. According to Hesiod in his "Theology," a poem dealing with the generation and descent of the gods, Oceanus and Tethys were parents of 3,000 streams and 4,000 ocean nymphs called the Oceanids.

Individual copies of BEAR FACTS are now on sale at the MITHRAS Book Store, a new addition to the Unicorn Theatre. We are sorry to report that while browsing through the NEXUS last month, we discovered, after requesting a copy, that BF was literally buried under a pile of miscellaneous items on the counter.
