MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: UCSD Campus Wide Yard Sale open to the public!

DATE/TIME: May 23, 1999, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

LOCATION: The University of California, San Diego campus: parking lot 701 on Voigt Drive and parking lot 207 on Muir College Drive. In addition to the yard sale booths, free visitor parking is available in both parking lots. Maps to the sites are available at the North Point and Gilman Drive Information Centers.

DETAILS: In a spring cleaning sweep creating a humongous yard sale, items that UCSD students don't want to move home after school year's end or have no further need for will be for sale including furniture, electronic equipment, clothes, books, college dorm/apartment decorations, bikes and other miscellaneous "stuff."

Items not sold will be donated to local charities that work with homeless teens. Donation bins also will be available for non-perishable foods.

BACKGROUND: Each school year during campus move-outs in the spring, UCSD students trash more than 250 tons of "stuff," much of which is reusable and recyclable. This year, for the first time, students and the community will benefit from a yard sale, recycling goods and reducing waste.

COORDINATOR: UCSD Recycling. For information, call UCSD Recycling at 534-0919.
