

Nora Post presents oboe recital

November 11, 1971

New music for the oboe will be featured at a noon recital, Monday, November 22, at the University of California, San Diego in the Recital Hall, Bldg. 409, Matthews Campus.

Nora Post, a senior at UCSD's John Muir College, and oboe and English horn player, will present "Obsession" for oboe and piano by Japanese composer Makoto Shinohara, "Concert Trio" for oboe, piano and contrabass by American composer Nicolas Roussakis, and, "Quartet" for flute, oboe, percussion and contrabass by American composer Barney Childs.

Miss Post will be assisted by pianist Keith Humble, UCSD associate professor of music, Bertram Turetzky, also UCSD associate professor of music and one of America's foremost artists on the contrabass, Nancy Turetzky on the flute, and Ronald George, UCSD graduate student and a recognized innovator for percussion.

Miss Post is majoring in theoretical studies of music. She has attended the Julliard School of Music, Interlachen Arts Academy, North Carolina School of the Arts, and Northwestern University.

She has given concerts in Boston, Chicago, Expo '67 and the New York World Fair of 1964. Presently she is principal oboist with the La Jolla Civic Orchestra and performs in the San Diego Symphony.

(November 11, 1971)