

"International Fireside" lecture series sponsored by International Center

May 10, 1984

The International Center at the University of California, San Diego will offer two talks in its ongoing "International Fireside" series during the month of May.

On Tuesday, May 15, at 7:30 p.m., Dr. Janice Stein, a visiting professor in political science will discuss "Peacemaking in the Arab/Israeli Conflicts: Problems and Prospects." Stein is a professor of political science at the University of Toronto specializing in Middle East and international politics.

Dr. Mounira Charrad, professor of sociology at UCSD, will speak on "Women: Status and Rights in the Middle East", on Tuesday, May 22, at 7:30 p.m. in the International Center.

The public is invited to attend the talks and admission is free.

For more information contact: Paul Lowenberg, 452-3120

(May 10, 1984)