

More specifics on the four college commencements: number, speakers, topics

June 13, 1975

UCSD COMMENCEMENT CEREMONIES: Sunday, June 15

Total graduates: 1,495 (includes 48 School of Medicine graduates who received their degrees June 8)

THIRD COLLEGE - 10:30 a.m., Third College Plaza, Matthews campus

Guest speaker: Sen. Daniel K. Inouye, D-Hawaii Student speakers: Sakura Kone, communications - Third World studies major Daniel Gutierrez, urban and rural studies major Ana Martinez, sociology major Graduates: 108

REVELLE COLLEGE AND GRADUATE DIVISION 12:30 p.m., Revelle College Plaza

Guest speaker: Dr. Roger Revelle, head of Center for Population Studies at Harvard University and former director of UCSD's Scripps Institution of Oceanography (will rejoin UCSD faculty during 75-76 academic year)

Student speaker: John Graves, biology major Excellence in Teaching Awards: Dr. David S. Luft, associate professor of history Dr. Immo E. Scheffler, assistant professor of biology Harold Urey Chemistry Prize: John Bittl and Nathan Jacobson, chemistry majors Seymour E. Harris Economics Prize: Gary Campbell, economics major Special award: Hazel M. Alksnis, UCSD staff member in Revelle College Provost's Office Honored by the senior class for her outstanding service to the college Graduates: Revelle - 400; Graduate Division 287

JOHN MUIR COLLEGE - 1:30 p.m., courtyard north of Applied Physics and Mathematics Bldg., Muir College campus

Student speakers: Katherine Newman, philosophy major Ronald Maggiano, history major Faculty speaker: Dr. Jonathan Saville, associate professor of literature Outstanding Teacher Award: Dr. Saville Sigurd Burckhardt Prize for Literature: Genie Lerch, literature major Certificates of Appreciation: Maria Riker, sociology major

Miryam Liberman Langberg, biology major Graduates: 650

FOURTH COLLEGE - 3 p.m., conference room, Institute of Geophysics and Planetary Physics, Scripps Institution of Oceanography campus

Presiding: Dr. M. Lea Rudee, Fourth College provost Graduates: 2 - the first graduates of Fourth College

(June 13, 1975)