

Media Advisory, UCSD International Architectural Symposium

December 14, 1988

MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: International architectural symposium at the University of California, San Diego

DATE: Saturday, February 4, 1989

TIME: 9 a.m.-5 p.m.

LOCATION: Mandeville Auditorium, UC San Diego

BACKGROUND: Four of the world's most honored architects, Ricardo Legorreta, Fumihiko Maki, Richard Meier, and Richard Rogers, will discuss their work at a special symposium honoring the founding of a new school of architecture at UCSD. See accompanying release for further information.

MEDIA COVERAGE: The media is invited to cover this event. Please notify us if you plan to attend the symposium by calling 619-534-3400. We expect a very large turnout and it would help us to know in advance which media will be in attendance and what special needs you might have.

For further information contact: Paul Lowenberg, University Communications, (619-534-3123).

(December 14, 1988)