MEDIA ADVISORY

EVENT: 16th Annual Muir College Pumpkin Drop and Halloween Carnival

DATE: Oct. 29, 1993

TIME: 11:30 a.m. -1:30 p.m.

LOCATION: Muir Quad between Tioga Hall and Tenaya Hall at the University of California, San Diego

REMARKS: UCSD's Muir College will hold its annual Halloween Festival, which includes a barbecue, game booths and a rock band. At 12:30, the mid-point of the festival, a huge (100-150 pound) pumpkin that has been carved out and filled with candies will be dropped from the top (11th) floor of Tioga Hall, the tallest building on Muir campus. After the drop, students can retrieve the candy that has been spilled from the splattered pumpkin.

Photographers are welcome to attend the pumpkin carving the night before the festival.

Photographers are welcome at the festival. Suggestions on special vantage points for filming the pumpkin drop are available by calling Blue Robbins, assistant resident dean, at (619) 534-4200.
