

Art Display in Urey Hall

May 5, 1967

University students cannot take credit for the colorful art in the display cases of Urey Hall at the University of California, San Diego.

The drawings were done by kindergarten through sixth grade students of the Torrey Pines Elementary School.

William S. Watt of La Jolla, a sixth grade teacher at the school, organized the showing at UCSD.

The pictures will be in Urey Hall until Sunday, May 14, when they will move to the Fine Arts Gallery in Balboa Park for the San Diego City Schools Art Show.
