JUDICIARY PROCEDURES

I. General Definitions

A. Quorum

For the conduct of a proper hearing, or a proper meeting, a quorum shall consist of four members.

B. Day

A day is any calendar day when academic classes are regularly held including the pre-enrollment period.

C. Calendar

The calendar of the Judiciary is a chronological log of cases scheduled to be heard by the Judiciary.

D. Jurisdiction

The jurisdiction of the Judiciary is outlined in Article IV of the ASUCSD Constitution. The Judiciary shall have the power to hear and adjudicate the following types of cases:

1. all cases arising under the ASUCSD Constitution;
2. all questions of interpretation of this Constitution shall be decided by the Judiciary, advised by a member of the faculty at UCSD, to be designated by a majority of the entire Judiciary;
3. charges of violations of the Constitution;
4. charges of violations of the duly approved by-laws of the subordinate organizations of the ASUCSD;
5. charges of violation of the rules and regulations of the ASUCSD Council;
6. charges of violations of the rights of an individual in the ASUCSD Council; and
7. all cases pertaining to sponsorship and financial allocations.
 - a. When a group applies to the ASUCSD Council for sponsorship and/or affiliation, it shall describe its membership requirements and recruiting methods.
 - b. When a group submits its line item budget each year to petition for funding, each group shall describe in writing its membership requirements, recruiting methods, and goals. This information shall be sent to the Council along with budget requests.
 - c. The Council shall not fund any activity or group which discriminates against any member of the ASUCSD by race, color, religion, marital status, national origin, sex, age, or sexual orientation.
 - d. The ASUCSD Judiciary shall have jurisdiction to decide all matters arising under this section.
 - e. The ASUCSD Attorney General shall, upon receipt of complaint by any member of the ASUCSD Council, upon his own initiative or at the direction of the ASUCSD Council, fully investigate any alleged violation of this section and shall initiate action before the ASUCSD Judiciary as appropriate. This subsection shall not be deemed to limit in any way the right of any member of the ASUCSD to initiate action before the ASUCSD Judiciary under this section.

E. Hearing

A hearing is a proceeding wherein evidence is taken for the purpose of determining an issue of fact or law and reaching a decision on the basis of that evidence. There are three types of hearings:

1. an Election Hearing is a hearing to adjudicate alleged violations of election regulations occurring within the election period;
2. a Summary Hearing is a hearing to determine whether a temporary restraining order should or should not be issued;
3. a General Hearing is a hearing to adjudicate types of cases not covered by an Election or Summary hearing.

F. Advisory Opinion

An advisory opinion is a formal opinion of the Judiciary on questions of constitutional interpretation and on other questions of law within the Judiciary's jurisdiction. An advisory opinion has no binding force per se on any persons or organizations within the ASUCSD.

G. Remedies

Judicial remedies are the means employed by the Judiciary to enforce or redress injury. The types of judicial remedies to be rendered in any particular case shall be at the discretion of the Judiciary and must be within the bounds set by the Constitution.

There are three major types of remedies issued by the Judiciary in its decision. They are as follows:

1. Writ of Mandamus

A writ of mandamus is an extraordinary writ issued from the Judiciary to an official of the Association compelling performance of an act which the Constitution recognizes as a duty. It is extraordinary in the sense that it is used only when all other judicial remedies have failed or are inadequate.

2. Injunction

An injunction is a judicial remedy awarded for the purpose of requiring a party to refrain from doing a particular act or activity. The injunction is a preventative measure which guards against future injuries rather than affording a remedy for past injuries.

3. Temporary Restraining Order

A temporary restraining order is an order granted after a summary hearing, demanding preservation of the status quo until a full hearing can be held to determine the merits of the case. A temporary restraining order is issued if the petitioner successfully shows:

- a. there is probable cause that the alleged violations cited are true; and
- b. the relative harm to be incurred by the petitioner if a TRO is not issued is greater than the relative harm to be suffered by the other parties if a TRO is issued.

4. Declaratory Judgment

A judgment which simply states the rights of the parties or expresses the opinion of the Judiciary on a question of law. Its distinctive characteristics are that no executory process follows as a matter of course, nor is it necessary that an actual wrong giving rise to action for damages should have been done, or be immediately threatened.

- H. Joinder of Party
Joinder of party is the uniting of several parties in a single suit.
- I. Severance of Party
Severance of party is the act of separating a party in a suit from another named party.
- J. Petition for Rehearing
A petition for rehearing is a request made to the Judiciary to rehear a previously adjudicated case for one or all of the following reasons:
1. introduction of newly discovered evidence (of a significant nature) which, by due diligence, could not have been introduced before;
 2. demonstration that previously introduced evidence is false and materially damaging;
 3. a showing that a reversible error with regard to a conclusion of law exists; and
 4. judgment was substantially prejudiced by violation(s) of due process as set forth in these Judiciary Procedures

II. Documents

- A. Charge Sheet
A charge sheet is a document requesting the Judiciary to call a hearing to adjudicate charges set forth by plaintiff. The charge sheet shall include:
1. the names, addresses, and phone numbers of the persons filing charges;
 2. the list of persons charged along with addresses and phone numbers when available;
 3. all the specific violations the plaintiff complains about;
 4. summary of all relevant supporting evidence;
 5. statements as to the constitutional, statutory, or regulatory provisions allegedly violated;
 6. the type of judicial relief sought;
 7. reasons for seeking judicial relief requested.
- B. Petition
A petition is a formal written request by an ASUCSD officer to the Judiciary for an advisory opinion.
- C. Summons
A summons is an order requiring the appearance of defendant(s) in a hearing under penalty of having judgment entered against him or her for failure to do so (a default judgment). The object of the summons is to notify the defendant that he/she has been charged with alleged violation(s) of ASUCSD constitutional, statutory, or regulatory provisions. Given timely notice, the Judiciary will allow for a request to reschedule a hearing if a defendant can show reasonable need for such action.
- D. Subpoena
A subpoena is a writ issued under authority of the Judiciary to compel the appearance of a witness at a judicial proceeding. Given timely notice, the Judiciary will allow for a request to reschedule a hearing if a defendant can show reasonable need for such action.

E. Affidavit

An affidavit is a written statement made or taken under oath before a member of the Judiciary or other persons who have been duly authorized to so act by the Judiciary.

F. Judgment

A judgment is the decision of the Judiciary upon matters submitted to it. All judgments from the Judiciary shall be in written form and kept on file in the offices of the Judiciary.

G. Brief

A brief shall include:

1. a summary of the party's arguments; and
2. any other appropriate material relevant to the factual issues.

III. Committee Administrative Procedures

A. Chairperson

The Chairperson shall be a member of the Judiciary selected by a majority vote of the Judiciary. Unless vacated through resignation or removal, the term of office of the Chairperson shall be one academic year. The Chairperson shall act as the official spokesperson for the Judiciary at all hearings and meetings unless as otherwise specified in these rules.

B. Assistant Chairperson

The Assistant Chairperson shall be selected in the same manner as the Chairperson. The Assistant Chairperson shall assume the position of Chairperson in the temporary absence of the Chairperson.

C. Resignations

When a member resigns prior to the expiration of his or her term, that resignation shall become effective only after the Judiciary has received a written memorandum of resignation, and a copy of the memorandum has been sent to the ASUCSD President by that member.

D. Confidence

All deliberations shall be held in strict confidence. The judgment of the Judiciary shall contain only those matters discussed in deliberation which the Judiciary wishes to release and make a part of the record.

The judgment of the Judiciary shall be held in strict confidence until a formal written judgment can be approved and issued by the Judiciary.

E. Eligibility for Voting

To be eligible to vote on a decision of the Judiciary, a member must take part in both the hearing and deliberation. A majority vote of the eligible members (provided a quorum is present) shall be necessary to constitute a majority decision.

F. Vacancy

A vacancy on the Judiciary may occur in one of the three following ways:

1. when a member resigns before his or her term has expired;
2. when a member's term of office expires; or
3. when a member is removed from office.

IV. Pre-Hearing Procedure for a Hearing

A. Filing of Document

The appropriate document must be filed in writing with the Judiciary. Completion of filing shall initiate action by the Judiciary. Completion of filing shall be satisfied when the chair of the Judiciary has received a copy of the document.

A charge sheet must be filed for all types of hearings to request:

1. a direct judgment
2. a declaratory judgment
3. a temporary restraining order
4. a permanent injunction
5. a writ of mandamus
6. other judicial remedies

The charge sheet requesting a temporary restraining order should show that future substantial injuries to the plaintiff will result if injunctive relief is not granted prior to the general hearing on the merits of the complaint.

B. Review of Document

The Judiciary shall first determine whether the suit before them is within its constitutional jurisdiction to adjudicate. If the suit is within its jurisdiction, the Judiciary shall then review the document and determine whether the document is complete and proper, and whether there are sufficient grounds to hear the case (as presented in the charge sheet).

Sufficient grounds for the Judiciary to hear the case are established if both the following are satisfied:

1. the factual allegations, if true, constitute violations of the constitutional, statutory, and/or regulatory provisions cited in the charge sheet; and
2. the constitutional, statutory, and/or regulatory provisions cited provide adequate grounds for the remedies requested.

The Judiciary must decide within a reasonable time period whether to hear a case filed with the Judiciary.

If the Judiciary decides to hear the case, then it shall be placed on the calendar. If the Judiciary decides not to hear the case, it shall return the document to the plaintiff stating the reasons why the case was rejected.

C. Amendments to Document

The charge sheet may be amended until four days prior to the hearing date. After this time, the charge sheet can only be amended with the approval of the Judiciary, absent any objections from the adversary party. The charge sheet may be amended in any way except:

1. any addition of alleged violation not contained in the initial charge sheet;
2. addition to the list of defendants; or
3. any other change which makes the document partially or wholly deficient according to the standards contained in IV.B. above.

D. Calendar

All cases for hearing accepted by the Judiciary shall be placed on the calendar by the Chairperson no sooner than six days before they are to be heard, except as otherwise specified below. All cases accepted for hearing by the Judiciary must be heard no later than three weeks after acceptance.

Cases will be placed on the calendar as they are received, according to the priority standards noted in these procedures. This order shall be followed unless a majority of the members present at a meeting of the Judiciary vote to allow a change in the calendar.

The following types of cases shall have priority over all other cases on the calendar:

1. a request for a temporary restraining order; and
2. an election case.

After the Judiciary agrees to hear a request for a TRO case, it must be heard within two (2) days (after acceptance) and no later than four days after the initial charge sheet has been filed. After the Judiciary agrees to hear an election case, it must be heard within one day (after acceptance).

A request for an advisory opinion shall be placed on the calendar in a manner similar to the way non-priority cases are scheduled.

E. Notification

Proper notification to the parties concerned must be made no later than four days prior to the start of the hearing, and sooner if possible, in the case of a general hearing. In the case of a TRO or election case, proper notification must be made as soon as possible, given the time constraints as set forth in section D. above.

Proper notification shall be satisfied when the chairperson or the chairperson's delegate:

1. informs all the defendants and the plaintiffs of the hearing date, time, and location, by means of a summons in the case of a general hearing. In all other cases, notification may be by means of a summons and/or verbal notification, according to time constraints;
2. notifies parties of the issues to be considered by making available copies of the amended final charge sheet to both the defendant(s) and the plaintiff(s);
- e. makes available to parties copies of these Judiciary Procedures.

Any party failing to comply with a summons or a verbal notification, without reasonable cause, shall have a default judgment entered against that absent party.

F. Filing a Brief

A written brief must be filed with the Judiciary by both the defendant and the plaintiff no later than one day before a general hearing. No brief is required in the case of a summary hearing. In the case of an election hearing a brief must be filed by both the defendant and the plaintiff before the introduction of oral arguments. Ten copies of the brief must be filed with the Judiciary, and a copy delivered to the opposing party(s) before the oral arguments.

G. Joinder and Severance of Party

1. A motion for a joinder of party must be made by the concerned parties before the beginning of oral presentation. The party seeking joinder must demonstrate to the Judiciary that there is sufficient mutual interest with one of the two existing adversary parties to warrant the uniting of the parties in a single suit.
2. A motion for a severance of party must be made by the concerned parties or persons before the beginning of oral presentation. The parties or persons must demonstrate to the Judiciary that there exists:
 - a. a sufficient difference in the interests of members of one party such that the individual interests would not be substantially protected by the overall interests of the entire party;
 - b. a sufficient difference in the alleged violations against each member of one party such that it would adversely affect the outcome if severance of party is not granted.
3. Any recognized party or member of each may enter into arguments on the question of whether a joinder or severance of party should be granted.
4. A motion of joinder or severance of party shall be decided by a majority vote of the Judiciary members present.
5. If a severance of party is granted, a separate hearing shall be established by the chairperson at a time convenient for all parties concerned, but not to exceed five days from the date of the original hearing.

H. Conflict of Interest

1. A charge of conflict of interest may be brought against a member of the Judiciary present by any concerned party before the oral arguments. In order for a member of the Judiciary to be dismissed from a case on grounds of conflict of interest the concerned party must first demonstrate to the Judiciary that:
 - a. the Judiciary member has personal involvement which would lead to personal concern over the outcome of the case; or
 - b. the Judiciary member has a special monetary interest such that this interest would lead to a personal concern on the part of the Judiciary member over the outcome of the case.
2. Any recognized party or any members of each may enter arguments on the question of whether a member shall be dismissed for conflict of interest.
3. A motion for dismissal on grounds of conflict of interest shall be decided by a majority vote of all members present, excepting the member in question.

V. Hearing Procedures for all Hearings

- A. Minutes of all official hearings shall be taken with the exception of a summary hearing. In the case of a summary hearing, a special request may be made by one of the contending parties for minutes to be taken. Such a request must be submitted with the charge sheet of the requesting party.

B. Spokesperson for Each Party

1. The official spokesperson for each party must be designated and duly recognized by the Judiciary prior to the hearing. Only those designated and recognized spokesperson(s) for the defendant(s) as well as the plaintiff(s) may address the Judiciary to:
 - a. make arguments,
 - b. present evidence including examination of witnesses, and
 - c. raise objections.
- Each party shall have one spokesperson, unless the requesting
2. party can demonstrate to the Judiciary a compelling need and a rational justification for more than one spokesperson. The request to have more than one spokesperson for a party must be made prior to the hearing. The chairperson of the Judiciary shall rule on the request.

C. Time Allotment for Each Party

Each party shall be given an equal opportunity to argue his/her/their case before the Judiciary. This equality shall include the policy of giving each party equal time to present his/her/their case at each stage of the hearing.

D. Rules of Evidence

1. Definition of Evidence

Evidence is anything offered to the senses of the Judiciary to prove or disprove an alleged fact which is vital to the adjudication of a case. A factual allegation is not itself evidence, but rather is something to be proved or disproved through the introduction of admissible evidence.

2. Admissible Evidence

Only admissible evidence shall be considered by the Judiciary during the hearing. Admissible evidence shall include all evidence which satisfies the following criteria:

- a. the evidence presented must be relevant. Any evidence is relevant which tends to prove or disprove any factual issue in the complaint;
- b. hearsay evidence is inadmissible, except as otherwise specified.

3. Procedure for Admitting and Excluding Evidence

- a. All evidence presented is admitted if there are no valid objections on the part of either side. The parties concerned and the Judiciary shall have the right to scrutinize all evidence presented. Either party may object to any evidence offered which he/she/they believe(s) to be inadmissible.
- b. Any hearsay evidence that is not an exception to the hearsay rule shall be excluded.
- c. Any objection may be raised contesting the admissibility of evidence presented on two major grounds. The grounds are as follows:
 - (1) the evidence presented is believed to be irrelevant;
 - (2) the evidence presented is believed to be hearsay.
- d. The following guidelines shall be used when contesting the relevance of evidence presented:
 - (1) the objector must show that the evidence presented has no reasonable bearing on the issues being adjudicated, and
 - (2) the party presenting the evidence must then show that the evidence does indeed have a reasonable bearing on some issue in the case.
- e. The chairperson shall rule on the admissibility of all evidence challenged:

E. Hearsay Rule and Exceptions

1. Definition of Hearsay Evidence

Hearsay evidence is evidence of a statement made other than by a witness testifying at the hearing, which is offered to prove the truth of the matter stated. The statement may be oral or written and includes non-verbal conduct intended as a substitute for words.

2. The Hearsay Rule

All hearsay evidence shall be inadmissible, unless it is shown to be an exception to this rule.

3. Exception to the Hearsay Rule

The following criteria must be satisfied in order to admit hearsay evidence:

- a. the presenting party has made a sincere and conscientious attempt to get more direct evidence and has failed;
- b. the hearsay evidence is demonstrated to be sufficiently trustworthy and relevant to the proceedings.

F. Rules for Raising Objections

Objections may only be raised by either one of the two parties or by a member of the Judiciary. Objections can only be raised to challenge either:

1. the admissibility of evidence; or
2. the propriety of procedural deviations from these rules.

The chairperson shall rule on all objections raised.

G. Rulings of the Chairperson

All rulings made by the chairperson during the hearing proceedings shall be subject to review by the rest of the Judiciary if an objection is raised. When the chairperson's ruling is challenged by either parties or by a Judiciary member, the ruling shall be explained and then the Judiciary shall decide whether to sustain or reject the chairperson's ruling. A majority vote of members sitting shall carry.

H. Order of Presentation

1. Oral arguments, testimony of witnesses, and other evidence will be presented by the plaintiff -- time allotted is 12 minutes.
2. Cross examination of plaintiff's witnesses by defendant -- time allotted is 10 minutes.
3. Examination of the plaintiff and plaintiff's witnesses by the Judiciary.
4. Oral arguments, testimony of witnesses, and other evidence will be presented by the defendant -- time allotted is 12 minutes.
5. Cross examination of defendant's witnesses by plaintiff -- time allotted is 10 minutes.
6. Examination of the defendant and defendant's witnesses by the Judiciary.
7. Closing arguments by the plaintiff -- time allotted is 5 minutes.
8. Closing arguments by the defendant -- time allotted is 5 minutes.
9. Adjournment of hearing and the Judiciary shall deliberate in closed session.

Note #1: Where the term plaintiff or defendant appears above, it shall refer to their respective spokespersons.

Note #2: All evidence shall be presented in the oral arguments and at no other times.

Modification

With the approval of a majority of the Judiciary, any part of the presentation contained in Section H. above may be excluded at the concurrence of both parties to the suit.

VI. Post-Hearing Procedure

A. Deliberation

After an election hearing, summary hearing, or general hearing has concluded, the Judiciary shall discuss and consider the case in closed deliberation in order to arrive at a judgment.

B. Judgment

Within seven (7) days of the close of a hearing and before the conclusions are made public in either written or oral form, the deciding majority of the Judiciary shall approve the written judgment. No decisions may be handed down without a written statement of its conclusions. Copies of this statement shall be sent to the parties of the case, the President of the Association, the Judiciary's faculty advisor, and the Secretary of the ASUCSD. A minority opinion may be filed at the same time as the majority statement.

C. Rehearing of a Case

The rehearing of a case will be granted a petitioner if he/she demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Judiciary that one or more of the conditions as specified in Section I.J. of these Judiciary Procedures is found to exist.

Appeal shall be made by filing a Charge Sheet.

Except for the considerations mentioned above, procedures for a rehearing shall be the same as those for a hearing.

REVISION: The ASUCSD Council reserves the right of revision of these Judiciary Procedures.

CalPIRG, the New Indicator Collective, the Clamshell Alliance of UCSD, and Groundwork Books are sponsoring a teach-in on nuclear power and nuclear weapons. The teach-in is the first stop in a University-wide tour. The tour is being coordinated by the UC Weapons Lab Conversion Project at Berkeley.

The teach-in is being presented to students and faculty of UCSD in order to familiarize them with the Weapons Lab Conversion Project, which involves all UC campuses, and the dangers of a plutonium economy that affects everyone. This educational program will provide the students and faculty with access to the leading authorities in varied areas of the nuclear question.

The teach-in is scheduled for November 6 from noon until 6:00 p.m. beginning at Revelle Plaza with a rally, continuing with a series of workshops and films, and ending with a panel discussion featuring Daniel Ellsberg, Peter Faulkner and other experts.

We realize this is extremely short notice, but your financial support is needed to make the teach-in a success. We are requesting EMERGENCY consideration in this matter. Attached is our budget for the teach-in, leading with a ~~4500~~ honoraria expense that Daniel Ellsberg has asked for. ⁴⁵⁰

Without your support this teach-in cannot occur. Please stretch your mind to figure a way to accomodate the funding needs of this program.

Sincerely,

The Teach-in Committee

Subject: RESOLUTION ON SECTION 647 (e) -- CALIFORNIA PENAL CODE

WHEREAS, in the face of nearly unanimous world-wide opposition, the South African government maintains its system of apartheid through a legal network of codified racism, and in particular through the notorious Pass Law requiring citizens to produce identification upon request of law enforcement officials or to face imprisonment for failing to do so; and

WHEREAS, a similar law exists in the United States, that being section 647 (e) of the California Penal Code, which like the Pass Law, requires citizens to produce identification upon request of law enforcement officials, to face imprisonment for failure to do so; and

WHEREAS, both of these statutes are enforced primarily and selectively against individuals who are black, brown, or young; and

WHEREAS, in addition to being morally intolerable, 647 (e) denies due process (arrest without warrant, automatic self-incrimination, probable cause, etc.) and thereby violates the 4th, 5th, and 14th amendments to the Constitution; and

WHEREAS, Edward Lawson, who has been repeatedly arrested and once convicted under 647 (e), is involved in a federal constitutional challenge of this law;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the ASUCSD supports Mr. Lawson's fight and condemn 647 (e) as inconsistent with the United States' Constitution; and

BE IT FINALLY RESOLVED, that the ASUCSD be directed to support in some, any amicus curiae that is submitted by ASUC.

WHEREAS: Already 200,00 Farmworkers have lost their jobs to mechanizations, and

WHEREAS: 120,000 more jobs will be lost to mechanization if it continues at its present rate, increasing California unemployment by 1.2%, and,

WHEREAS: Mechanization research on the campuses of the University of California so far has benefitted exclusively the largest growers at the expense of farmworkers, and,

WHEREAS: Some of the Regents of the University of California will profit directly from the development of these mechanical harvesters, and,

WHEREAS: The Regents, by choice, have refused to fund research on the social impact of mechanization on farmworkers, and,

WHEREAS: The United Farmworkers are not opposed to mechanization in the fields, but believe it must benefit everyone and not just the growers,

THEREFORE: BE IT RESOLVED THAT THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL OF UC SAN DIEGO unequivocally supports the United Farmworkers' demand that further funding of mechanization projects by the University of California be halted until the social impact of these projects to farmworkers is determined, and,

Be it further resolved that this body joins with the United Farmworkers of America AFL-CIO, as well as other UC campuses, in calling for a Blue Ribbon Committee to be appointed by the Governor which will investigate the displacement of farmworkers by mechanization and to recommend viable solutions and urges the Board of Regents to do the same.

Be it finally resolved that the Legislative Council of UCSD supports the United Farmworkers in their effort to assure farmworkers protection and compensation as machines are brought into the fields.

SUBJECT: Student Center for Undergraduate Research and

WHEREAS: CACIIP has committed funds (~~$~~8,000.00) towards a SCURI Grant Center in response to the proposal

WHEREAS: the purpose of the center/program is to provide

during the fiscal year (1978-1979) as SCURI's first year of operation.

This money will provide salaries or stipends for a structional Improvement Proposal submitted by Jeff

The Director will be picked by proposal principal director and the AS President, Jeff Leifer, with recommendations from the Commissioner of Appointments and Evaluations, Jim Lofgren. The Director will determine the process for selection of the two assistants and the Clerk.

Whereas SCURI is an entity independent of the ASUCSD, as noted in the CACIIP proposal (see Department) and now stated in this bill.

The funds commitment represents a long term program stimulated by the AS during 1977-8; not subject to restraint or termination by any succeeding student government or administration.

This year's Director staff and Policy Board will pick next year's staff with the help of the AS Appointments and Evaluations Commissioner.

The first SCURI Director will be responsible for drawing-up guidelines that outline selection processes for the Policy Board and other positions. If there are desired alterations from stated facts in the CACIIP proposal, the Director will note these changes in the guidelines. No serious salary alterations are allowed, in keeping with the legislative intent of the Leifer administrations' Council of the ASUCSD.

Supervision of the SCURI Grant Center will rest in the SCURI Board of Directors, to be composed of faculty, staff and a majority of students; the latter of which are to be appointed by the ASUCSD. The Coordinator (Director) will be responsible for submitting quarterly reports to CACIIP and ASUCSD as to the progress of SCURI.
