UCSD'S GROVE GALLERY'S "ALL-UC PHOTO SHOW" CALL FOR ENTRIES

The University of California, San Diego's Grove Gallery will hold a juried "All-UC Photography Exhibition," from May 31 through June 23. Deadline for entries is May 4.

Photographs taken by career employees, faculty, graduate, and undergraduate students of the campuses and laboratories of the University of California system are eligible for entry.

Each person may submit up to two works, printed in black and white or in color. The photographs will be juried by Arthur Oilman, award-winning photographer and executive director of the San Diego Museum of Photographic Arts.

At UCLA, Chancellor Charles E. Young, the School of Fine Arts, the Frederick S. Wight Art Gallery and the Grunwald Center for the Graphic Arts are offering a combined purchase award to $500 for a photograph submitted by a member of the UCLA faculty, staff or student body. The award will be selected by 011man and will be accepted by Professor David Rodes for the Grunwald Center Collection.

For further information and a prospectus please write: All-UC Photography, UCSD Grove Gallery, B-038, La Jolla, CA 92093, or telephone (619) 534-2637.
