Prof. Fatima El-Tayeb is a professor in Literature, Ethnic Studies, & is the Associate Director of the Critical Gender Studies Program. She is the Cross-Cultural Center's Faculty in Residence for the 2011-2012 academic year.

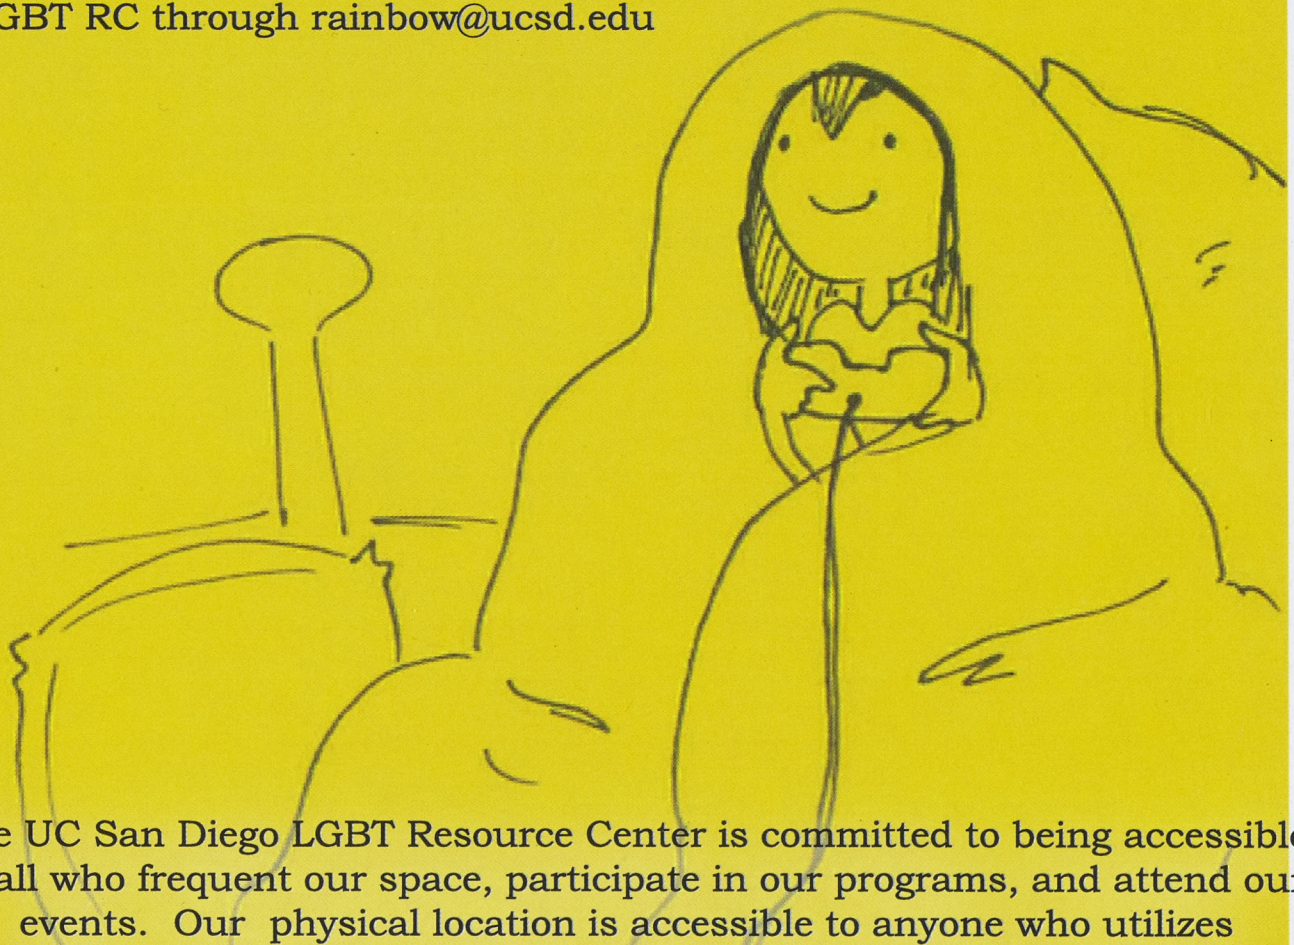

European Others examines the position of racialized communities in the European Union, arguing that the tension between a growing nonwhite, non-Christian population and essentialist definitions of Europeaness produces new forms of identity and activism. Fatima El-Tayeb combines theoretical influences from both sides of the Atlantic to lay bare how Europeans of color are integral to the continent's past, present, and, future.

PADL West presents two events with
MIGUEL GUTIERREZ

HEAVENS WHAT HAVE I DONE (2010)

SOLO PERFORMANCE
FRIDAY, MARCH 2nd, 7pm
SDSU, Studio Theater, ENS 200

TICKETS: $20 (general), $10 (students), available at the box office (next to Smith Recital Hall)

Created and Performed by Miguel Gutierrez
Lights by Lenore Doxsee
Costumes by Machine Dazzle
Set by Miguel Gutierrez and Jason Simms
Music by Vivaldi and others
Management by Ben Pryor / tbspMGMT

Set to music sung by renowned soprano Cecilia Bartoli, HEAVENS WHAT HAVE I DONE unfolds from a rambling monologue addressing the artists' ascension to success, the hypocrisies of an unstable world, artistic critiques, and dreams and desires of a more personal nature.

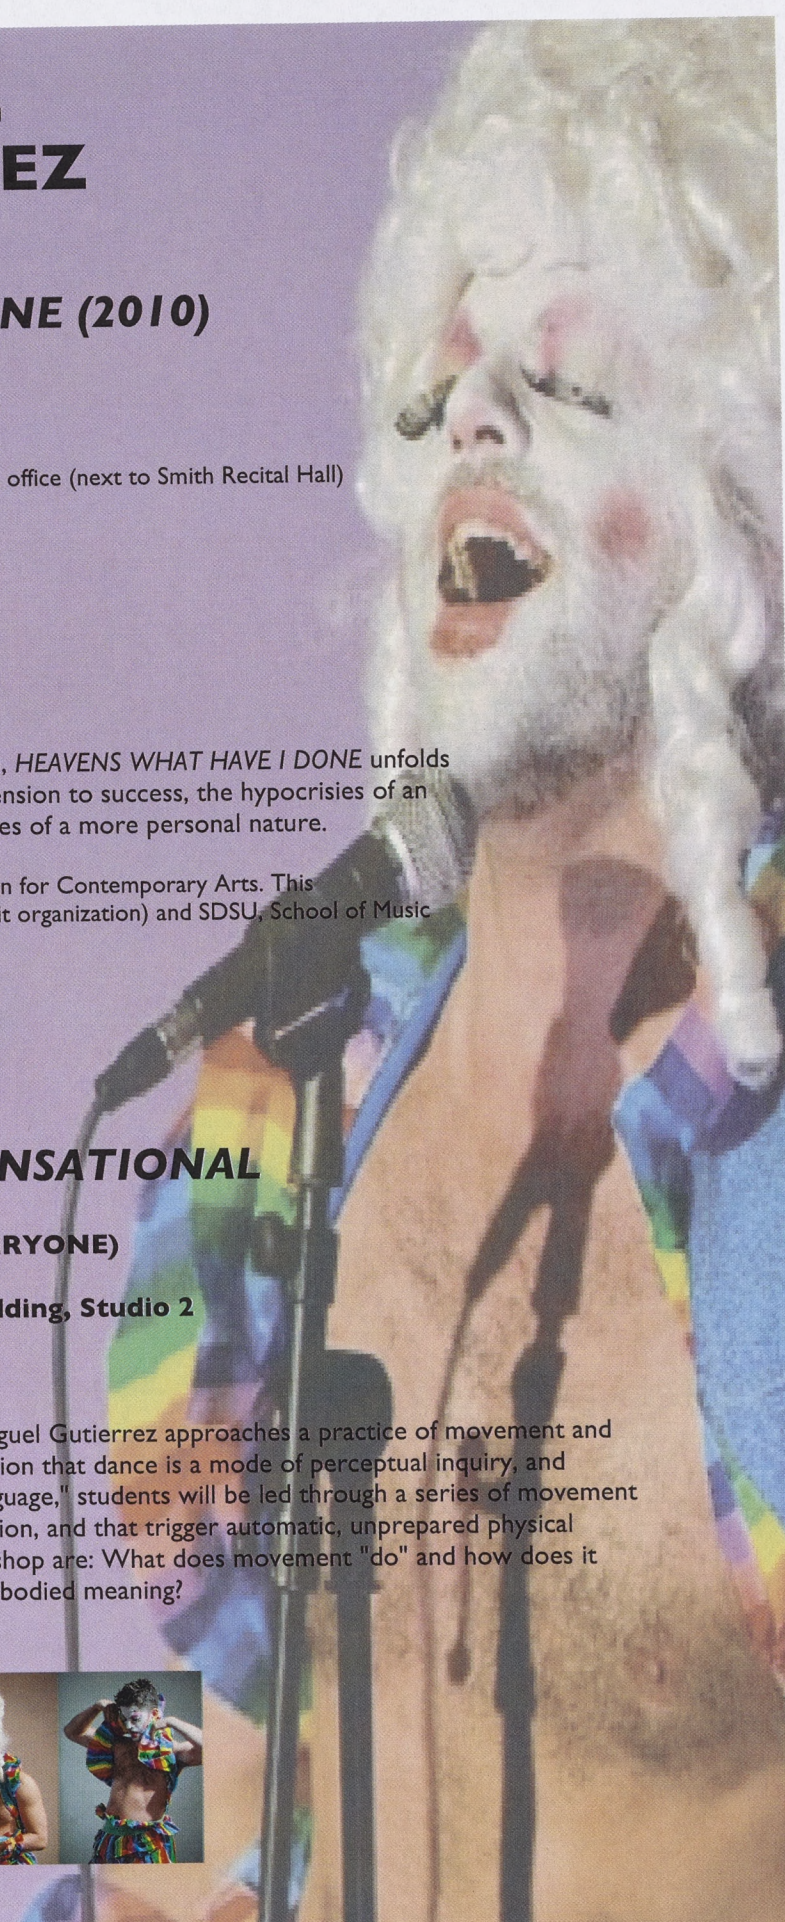

HEAVENS WHAT HAVE I DONE was supported by Foundation for Contemporary Arts. This performance was made possible by PADL West (a non-profit organization) and SDSU, School of Music and Dance.

INEFFABLE INTANGIBLE SENSATIONAL

COMMUNITY WORKSHOP (OPEN TO EVERYONE)
SATURDAY, MARCH 3rd, 10am-1pm
UCSD, Mollie and Arthur Wagner Dance Building, Studio 2
FEE: $25, $15 (students)
To register: email padlwest@gmail.com

This workshop looks at some of the ways in which Miguel Gutierrez approaches a practice of movement and improvisation in his work. Working from the proposition that dance is a mode of perceptual inquiry, and working against the idea of dance as a non-verbal "language," students will be led through a series of movement explorations that prioritize sensation, non-rational action, and that trigger automatic, unprepared physical response. Some of the questions that guide this workshop are: What does movement "do" and how does it operate as a framework for complicated, nuanced, embodied meaning?
