F-Word feminism Film Screening

Tue. Week 3
April 14
6:30-8 pm

The Women's Center (above Hi-Thai, near Main Gym)

FREE FOOD!

The Women's Center celebrates Sexual Assault Awareness Month with a screening of The Purity Myth. This alternately hilarious and infuriating film adaptation of Jessica Valenti's book looks at the relationship between women's equality, women's sexuality, and a reactionary political movement that is working on multiple fronts to undermine both. We'll discuss the ways in which sexuality is framed and how we can move toward a more empowering view of sex.

My Personal is Political:

Reflections

on Your

Feminist Journey

Through

ART

Crafts!
Snacks and Drinks!

What does feminism mean to you? At this art-centered event you'll get the opportunity to symbolically represent your feminist journey on blank canvases using a variety of mediums. Come out for a discussion about your own feminist journey and how art activism in the feminist movement makes the personal political!

The Cross-Cultural Center and the Black Student Union presents

THE UNTOLD STORY

Misogynoir in the Black Community

Misogynoir
[mi-soj-in-nu-or] noun

From roots miso - hatred, gyn - women, and noir - color.

1. Specific anti-black misogyny where race and gender are factors in the oppression of black women.

Monday, April 20th 2015
6:30-8PM

Cross-Cultural Center Comunidad

Come for a thoughtful discussion on exactly what misogynoir is, its origins, and how to combat it.

There will be free food and drinks!

The UC San Diego Cross-Cultural Center is committed to being accessible to all who frequent our space, participate in our programs, and attend our events. If you require specific accommodations to fully access any of our programs or events, please contact Jamez Ahmad at jamez@ucsd.edu or 858.534.9689. THE REAL WORLD CAREER SERIES:

Building Skills for a Diverse Interconnected Community

Alternative Non-Traditional Interviewing

Learn How to Effectively Interview via Skype, Phone, Panel, Group, etc.

Wed., May 13, 2015

3:00-5:00 pm

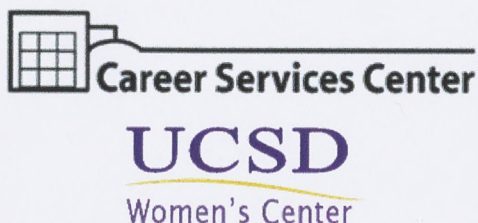

Cross-Cultural Center, Comunidad Room

The traditional interview format will always remain a staple among many companies, but others have created their own interview composite to keep up with the ever-changing technology fast-paced world. These new interview composites adopt a "show me" attitude aimed at eliciting solid evidence of a candidate's abilities. In this exciting and engaging workshop you will learn about yourself and develop your elevator speech to land a job or get into graduate school.

For more information, please contact Violeta Gonzales at violetag@ucsd.edu or call 858-534-9689.
