

Thomas Nee to direct University-La Jolla Chorus

December 24, 1969

The University-La Jolla Civic Chorus will begin rehearsals for productions during the Winter Quarter at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday, January 7, in the Recital Hall, Building 409, on the Matthews Campus of the University of California, San Diego.

Thomas Nee, Professor of Music at UCSD and Director of the La Jolla Civic Orchestra, will direct the chorus. Rehearsals will be held every Wednesday evening. The first performance is scheduled for March 8 in Sherwood Hall, La Jolla, when an all French program will be presented in conjunction with the Civic Orchestra.

According to Nee, the chorus is open to students and to members of the surrounding communities. University Extension credit is available to those wishing it.

For further information, call the UCSD Department of Music, 453-2000, extension 2093.